

SPIRITED YOUNG LADY WRITES OF HER HAIR AND HERPICIDE

Few ladies realize how much an un-ly head of hair detracts from their personal appearance. It also indicates an undesirable trait. Unkept hair simply shows that while they may be scrupulously neat in every other way, they are careless about their hair.

Thin, scraggly, wispy hair generally indicates dandruff and dandruff is caused by a germ. Newbro's Herpicide will eradicate the scale-like accumulation and keep the scalp clean and healthy so that the hair grows naturally and luxuriantly. That terrible itching which goes with the dandruff disappears with almost the first application.

15TH AND 16TH DISTRICT APPEALS TO BE HEARD

There Are 15 Appeals on Supreme Court Calendar—The Cases.

Special to The Gazette-News. Raleigh, Nov. 18.—Fifteenth and sixteenth district appeals are to be heard by the Supreme court this week beginning today, and there are 15 appeals on the calendar. The first appeal is State vs. Isley in which the issue is whether original prosecution can be sustained in a case where the defendant procured shoes for himself and children on agreement to return and work on the farm to the value of the shoes, failed to do so and then refused to pay for the shoes. In the trial below Isley was sentenced to 30 days as on the roads.

State vs. English, from Randolph county, is another important appeal, the prisoner being under 25 years of age for the killing of John M. Armstrong, who is stated to have been a business rival of the prisoner in the leasing of lands for hunting purposes. English claims that he was beside himself with morphine when the killing occurred and that his mind was a blank for some time prior to and after the killing.

The appeals other than the state cases follow: Pruett vs. Southern Railway; Smith vs. Quarries; Lyster vs. Peeler; May vs. Manufacturing company; Shuford vs. Cook; Flows vs. Hartwick; Abernethy vs. Railway company; In re Will of Mrs. I. B. Carter; Montgomery vs. Railway company; Hooper vs. Hooper; Abernethy vs. Strines.

The secretary of state chartered the Charlotte Plating and Brass company of Charlotte, capital $100,000 authorized and $15,000 subscribed by W. C. Murphy, W. A. Anthony and others.

Special letters are being sent to the officers of all the Odd Fellow lodges in the state by Grand Master M. L. Shipman urging that there be held special meetings on Thanksgiving to close the first period of the special campaign being conducted this year for increase in the membership of the local lodges. The grand master says the reports coming in are indicative of the most gratifying progress in this membership campaign and he wants special effort in connection with the Thanksgiving special meetings.

W. ASHEVILLE CITIZENS HOLD FIRST ELECTION

Voting for Mayor and Five Aldermen on Non-partisan Tickets Today.

The first election in West Asheville under the new charter, granted at the special session of the general assembly in September, is being held today, and the residents of the town are showing no little interest in the outcome of the voting. Over 80 per cent of the eligible voters have registered for the contest, 311 in all, and the voting this morning seems to indicate that every man registered will cast his ballot before the polls close. A mayor and a board of five aldermen are to be selected.

Both tickets are supposed to be non-partisan, one known as the "citizens' ticket" and the other as the "workingmen's ticket. The men on both tickets were selected at mass meetings of the citizens of the town, when those present pledged themselves not to be swayed in their selection by the party affiliations of the candidates. The "platform" of both sides is civic improvement and the vote promises to be a close one. The polls opened at 8 o'clock this morning will close at sunset.

The nominees on the citizens' ticket are:
For mayor, A. L. Bright; for aldermen, W. V. Felmet, Dr. G. G. Anderson, W. E. Britt, H. A. Brown and J. C. Penland.

Those who represent the workingmen are:
For mayor, Rev. J. L. Crook; for aldermen, W. E. Britt, W. V. Felmet, L. J. Moses, R. M. Miller and W. B. Westall.

Myrtle Hahn Says D. D. D. Prescription is Worth Rockefeller's Millions to Her.

"Ten years I suffered with eczema—three years of that time I could not appear in public. My entire body was covered with the disease. I could not eat, I could not sleep. I could not live. I have at last found the great Prescription D. D. D. My body is clean, smooth. If there were one bottle only of D. D. # VA. METHODISTS DENY WOMEN LAY RIGHTS

By Associated Press. Danville, Va., Nov. 18.—After a debate begun Saturday and practically absorbing the attention of the Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church south, that body at 11:30 last night, by a vote of 113 to 111, defeated the proposition to extend lay rights to women. A peculiar phase of the vote of the conference is that the clergy voted by a majority of one in favor of the proposition but the adverse majority by the laymen overcame the small clerical lead. Dr. W. A. Christian, chairman of the committee on memorials which reported the memorial adversely, closed the proposal. The conference also completed the election of its quota of seven clerical delegates to the general conference after a stubborn three days' struggle. The rural clergy had organized the capture of the majority of the delegates, and made a vigorous fight but only landed two of the seven.

SUFFRAGETTES CAUSE WILD DISTURBANCE

By Associated Press. Sheffield, Eng., Nov. 18.—A wild suffragette disturbance occurred here last night. Philip Snowden, socialist member of parliament for Blackburn, attempted to address a "no conscription" meeting arranged by the labor party but was howled down by suffragettes. Stewards promptly took a hand and in the scuffle were attacked by male sympathizers with the women. Some of the stewards were kicked and badly bruised. In spite of the fact that many of the disturbers were ejected the uproar persisted to such an extent that at the end of half an hour the meeting was abandoned.

Druggists Entertain Women.

By Associated Press. Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 18.—Women visitors accompanying delegates to the convention of the National Wholesale Druggists association were entertained today with an automobile ride through the city and at a luncheon at the Country club. Routine matters occupied the time of the morning session of the convention. Following a short session this afternoon, the convention planned to adjourn for sightseeing. A reception to President Albert Plaut and a dance were features planned for tonight.

Corn Rates Upheld.

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 18.—The interstate commerce commission today held that a rate of 20 cents a hundred pounds on corn and its products from Cincinnati and Louisville to Wilmington, N. C., was not unreasonable. Shippers had complained that as compared with a rate of 23 cents from the same points of origin to Charleston, Savannah, Brunswick and Jacksonville with a proportional rate of two cents lower, the 20-cent rate was unreasonable and discriminatory.
