GOVERNOR CRAIG APPROVES ROUTE

Thinks Elk Mountain Drive Would Prove Great Attraction Here.

The proposed Elk mountain drive has received another strong endorsement, this time from Governor Locke Craig. Secretary N. Buckner of the board of trade is in receipt of a letter from the governor, in which the latter speaks very enthusiastically of the possibilities of such a highway. He expresses a hope that it may be built within a short time.

In his letter, Governor Craig states that he has been over a large part of the proposed route and that he considers the valleys through which it would pass to be the most beautiful and picturesque to be found anywhere. He pronounces the view from the summit of Elk mountain to be unsurpassed by any in the world. He is familiar with the route and evidently thinks it is altogether feasible. He says that he believes the construction of the highway would contribute greatly to the pleasure and benefit of the thousands of visitors who come here annually.

The route of this proposed highway was outlined in The Gazette-News several weeks ago, and since that time a great deal of enthusiasm has been aroused over it. Copies of the original story were mailed by Mr. Buckner to good roads enthusiasts over the state who are familiar with local conditions, and these have responded, without exception, with opinions that the road is altogether feasible and would prove a great asset to Asheville and western North Carolina. Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geologist and good roads builder, is one of the many who are lending the proposition their hearty moral support.

THANKSGIVING DAY WITH METHODISTS

The Ministers at Conference Royally Entertained by Charlotte People.

Special to The Gazette-News.

Charlotte, Nov. 23.—Thanksgiving day and all away from home. Away off yonder in the humble little parsonage the members of the preachers' families sit down by the humble board. Some of the preachers here attending the sessions of the Western North Carolina conference of the M. E. church, south, fared much better probably in the Queen City than they would at home, but his feet are like other people's and would rest best under his own table. And the appetite is always keener for that food which is shared by the loved ones with touch of knee and elbow in the lovelight of kindly smiles.

Hymn No. 1 was sung and Dr. J. C. Rowe led in prayer. The further calling of the roll was dispensed with. A message of greeting was received from the South Carolina annual conference and the secretary was instructed to send a suitable response. The class of the second year was called and the following young men were admitted into full connection: W. B. Davis, J. M. Folger, T. J. Folger, A. C. Gibbs, R. F. Honeycutt, J. A. Marr, M. T. Smathers, W. B. West and W. B. Shinn. They will be ordained deacons Sunday morning. The name of F. A. Hawley was called in this connection. He was admitted on trial two years ago, served Weaverville station one year, was appointed to Leaksville station last year and after the conference was transferred to Marshville. He refused to go to this field and returned to the state of New York, where he is now pastor of a church in the Methodist Episcopal church. His character was passed and his name was discontinued. T. W. Dibble was called and his transfer to the South Carolina conference was announced. Charles N. Curtis was located at his own request. Giles W. Vlek, a transfer from the North Carolina conference, was passed in this class.

The Superannuated.

The names of W. G. Maloney and J. P. Lanning were referred to the committee on conference relations for the superannuated relation, and those of S. S. Higgins and A. T. Bell to the same committee for the superannuated relation.

HEARING DEFERRED IN CHEROKEE CASE

Respondents Ask Judge Boyd For Time to Prepare Their Arguments.

In the case of the Cherokee Tanning Extract company, bankrupt, there was a hearing before Judge James E. Boyd of the United States District court in Greensboro Wednesday, when the cashier of the bank of Andrews and A. A. Fain, the permanent receiver for the company who was named by the Superior court of Cherokee county, were ordered to appear and show cause why they should not comply with the order of the District court to have all property of the company turned over to Vonno L. Gudger, appointed permanent receiver by the latter court.

The respondents were present for the hearing but asked that they be given more time in which to prepare their arguments in the case. This was granted by Judge Boyd, and the hearing was then deferred until December 10. It will be held in Greensboro.

Vonno Gudger and the manager and two night watchmen of the plant of the bankrupt company are to be given a hearing before Judge G. S. Ferguson, who named the receiver for the state court, on December 9 to show cause why they should not be attached for contempt of the state court in attempting to take the handling of the property out of the hands of this court.

This case has already caused no little interest here, as well as in other sections of the state, since a question of jurisdiction between the state and United States is at issue. Some interesting developments are expected as a result of the two hearings on December 9 and 10.

REPAIR DAMAGE OF SEWER GAS BLAST

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 23.—Steam shovels were today employed in tearing up the remnants of the nine foot sewer wrecked for a mile in the Lawrenceville district by an explosion of sewer gas last Wednesday. Debris had clogged the channel and sewage and water had backed up, undermining the walls of a brewery so that it was in danger of falling in.

Two hundred employees were hurriedly driven into the street by city inspectors. Large holes have appeared in the streets under which the sewer runs and the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks at thirty-third street are under water.

OFFICES ARE CLOSED DURING FUNERAL HOUR

Southern Railway Employees Here Pay Last Tribute to Dead President.

The city ticket office of the Southern Railway company here was closed this morning from 11 to 12 o'clock as a token of respect to the late president, W. W. Finley, who died very suddenly at his home in Washington Tuesday. The clerks of the office here suspended work during the hour of the funeral services, and in compliance with orders issued from the headquarters in Washington, all work along the lines running out of Asheville was suspended for five minutes at 11 o'clock. All telegraph wires were closed, trains were stopped and work of every nature ceased, while the employees of the road paid silent tribute to their dead chief. The passenger station and offices of the company in Asheville are draped with heavy black.

Division Passenger Agent James H. Wood was the only official of the road here who was able to go to Washington to attend the funeral services. He left yesterday afternoon. Col. Sanford H. Cohen, manager of the Greater Western North Carolina association, left the city a few days ago and will be in Washington today to attend the last rites over the remains of Mr. Finley. The deceased was deeply interested in western North Carolina during the time that he was at the head of the Southern, and his interest in the work of the association was very keen.

SHIPS ORDERED TO CHANGE POSITIONS

Washington, Nov. 23.—Secretary Daniels today ordered Rear Admiral Badger, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, to send the battleships Connecticut, Kansas and Ohio of the fourth division from Mediterranean ports to the east coast of Mexico as reliefs for the Louisiana, Michigan and New Hampshire of the second division. The fourth division will sail for Mexico on December 1, calling at Guantanamo for coal, and probably will reach Vera Cruz about December 26 or 27.

Although it had been announced that the second division would relieve the third in Mexican waters, all seven battleships remained in gulf ports upon the arrival of the second. At the navy department it was stated today that the Louisiana, Michigan and New Hampshire would leave for home ports immediately upon arrival of the vessels from the Mediterranean.

The battleship New Hampshire is due in Vera Cruz today from Tuxpan.
