SAYS LABORERS "LITTLE BETTER THAN SLAVES"

Dr. Manly Declares They Are Worn Out by 12 Hours Labor a Day.

Washington, January 1.—Laborers compelled to work 12 hours a day are "worn out more rapidly than were the slaves on the southern plantations and are more effectually debilitated from the common pleasures of life than many of the prisoners in our penal institutions," declared Dr. Basil M. Manly, before the American Association for Labor Legislation in joint session here with the American Political Science association.

Dr. Manly, who recently investigated for the federal bureau of labor, conditions of employment in the iron and steel industry, asserted that the number of 12-hour men was enormous in the manufacture of iron and steel, gas, cement, paper and pulp, coke, starch, beet sugar, glass bottles, in many branches of the chemical industries and in bakeries, and he added that they form the labor force also in a long list of minor industries.

"These men," he said, "are little better than slaves to the machines they operate. The 12-hour worker has no time for recreation, no time for friends, no time for his wife and no time for his children."

S. Thurston Ballard of Louisville, Ky., a member of the Federal Industrial Relations commission, who has an eight-hour shift in operation in his flour mill, contended that "a man doing active or laborious work can do as much in eight hours as he can in 12."

Austin B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, condemned long hours in railroading.

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 31.—The American Historical association and the Mississippi Valley Historical association met here in joint session today.

The American association delegates came here after adjournment yesterday of their twenty-ninth annual meeting in Charleston.

RETURN OF MONA LISA CEREMONIOUS OCCASION

Picture is Carefully Guarded From Florence to Paris—To Be Exhibited.

Paris, Jan. 1.—The return of Da Vinci's "Mona Lisa" to Paris after an absence of two years and four months was made into a ceremonious occasion by the French government. The picture after traveling from Florence to Rome and thence to Milan under careful Italian guardianship was committed to the care of the representative of the French government, M. Marcel, conservator of the French National Museums, who arrived here with a staff of assistants in a private compartment of the express train from Italy.

"Mona Lisa" had been kept under close watch by M. Marcel all the way from Milan to Paris. The picture was enclosed in a thin oaken case bound with straps and with a light handle.

When the train drew into the station, Eugene Pujales director of the French National Museums, took the box containing the painting from the hands of M. Marcel and carried it to a waiting automobile. The portrait was then taken to the National School of Fine Arts where Leon Bonnat, the head of the school of officially certified its genuineness.

After it was carried to the hall of honor of the school, the walls of which had been hung with priceless Gobelin tapestries belonging to the government, newspapermen and high officials were then permitted to obtain a private view of the picture which is to be placed on public view for several days.

An admission fee is to be charged, and the money thus obtained is to be distributed among the Italian poor of Paris in recognition of Italy's part in the recovery of the master piece.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK VALUED $565,000,000

Receipts for 1913 Exceed all Records—237,730 Sheep In One Week.

Chicago, Jan. 1.—Live stock, the value of which was estimated at $565,000,000 was received at the Chicago stock yards during 1913, according to figures just compiled. This exceeds the records of all previous years. Sheep receipts of 237,730 head in one week was another new record established during the year.

Because of a shortage calves reached the price of $12.50 per hundred weight. This was the highest price paid for calves on the Chicago market in years. Heavy cattle did not sell as well as in 1912 because of a liberal marketing. Sheep receipts for the year also fell behind those of the previous year.

The hog receipts alone showed an increase over 1912. This was caused by an epidemic of cholera in Iowa and southern Illinois, which forced farmers to market. Despite the limited market, demand was large and prices secured were higher than in 1912. Although they sold at approximately $5 a head higher than previously, horse receipts showed a slight falling off.

A comparison of 1913 receipts with those in 1912 shows: 1913—cattle 2,061,559; calves 254,861; hogs 7,531,775; 1912—cattle 2,652,342; calves 605,401; hogs 7,189,967 1/2; sheep 5,899,724; horses 90,172; cars 257,284; 1912—sheep 6,055,540; horses 92,977; cars 255,088.

MAXIMS SENT FORTH TO AID SUFFRAGISTS

Chicago, Jan. 1.—Designed to help Illinois suffragists in their work of the coming year these maxims were sent forth by Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association:

"Let all women vote, even if they vote wrong."
"Do not condemn even foolish activity; anything is preferable to inane apathy."
"It is more cheerful to be a voter than a mere woman."
"Don't grumble over corrupt politics; just vote."
"Don't worry because the constitutionality of the Illinois suffrage law has been attacked. Have faith in the Supreme court."
"Equal suffrage will not shake the foundations of Illinois politics, not immediately."
"Women are near relatives of men."

U. S. INTERVENTION AT CALUMET ASKED

Counsel of Federation Suggests Action Be Taken Under Erdman Law.

Calumet, Mich., Jan. 1.—Federal intervention under the amended Erdman act has been suggested as a means of settling the copper miners' strike by the Western Federation of Miners.

A telegram calling attention to the possibility of such action was sent today to President Wilson by O. N. Hilton, chief counsel for the Western Federation of Miners, as a sequel to a talk late Tuesday between him and John B. Deismore, solicitor of the department of labor, who is here to find means of settling the controversy.

The telegram follows: "Under the recent act of congress creating a labor commissioner, authority undoubtedly is ample under the general welfare clause of the constitution to warrant governmental interference in settling the strike."

"It involves a federal question. Conditions here in the district forcing the strike are appalling. One miner for 25 days hard labor received one dollar and seventy-five cents. Another less than thirty dollars a month for five successive months."

"Any assistance you can render in settling the strike would mean a happy new year, indeed, to these humble and very deserving people. Will you kindly confer with Labor Commissioner Wilson and the attorney general. A representative of the former is here."

The union's secretary said that he was convinced as a lawyer that the position he had taken was sound.

Convinced that testimony available as to the identity of the man who started the Christmas eve panic, calling "fire" in a crowded hall, is insufficient, local representatives of the Western Federation of Miners decided not to produce witnesses for that purpose before the coroner's inquest today.

As a result only odds and ends of testimony were heard and it was expected that the jury would begin its deliberations late today. Half a dozen persons appeared at the hearing.

None of the witnesses who were in a position to see the doorway noticed the entrance of any man wearing a button of the Citizen's alliance, and several did not even hear the first alarm.

Inquiry Will Be Proposed. Washington, Dec. 31.—Congressional investigation of the Calumet copper strike troubles will be proposed when congress reconvenes, by Senator Arthur of Arizona.

WINGATE PRISON CASE TO BE INVESTIGATED

Heroic Treatment Given in Effort to Save Life of Society Woman.

Amityville, L. I., Jan. 1.—Heroic treatment was being administered yesterday to Mrs. Charles Wingate, daughter-in-law of General George Wingate, chief counsel for the Long Island railroad, in an effort to save her life from the effect of a slow poison which she took Tuesday night.

General Wingate said he was sure the poison had been taken by mistake, but the case was nevertheless referred to the district attorney's office for investigation. The family physician refused to go into the details other than to say that Mrs. Wingate had told him she had taken the drug because she was dependent. She dictated a letter to her father-in-law, according to the physician, and this together with the statement she made was turned over to the district attorney.

The Wingates are socially prominent here and have two daughters. One of them, Grace, ran out and summoned a physician when she heard her mother had taken poison, and because remedies were applied promptly, hope was expressed this afternoon for her recovery.

GOLF BALL PRICES WILL BE REDUCED

New York, Jan. 1.—The long threatened cut in the price of golf balls has become a reality on this side of the Atlantic. On the other side the cut came earlier and balls at one shilling (25 cents) and upward are profusely advertised in the golfing journals.

The happy New Year announcement to American golfers is contained in a statement issued by Robert C. Watson, president of the United States Golf association, following a conference with a leading manufacturer. He says the retail price will be reduced from $2 to $1.50 a dozen.

IMPORTANT RULINGS BY COMMERCE COMMISSION

Washington, Jan. 1.—Two important principles were laid down by the interstate commerce commission in the decision of a case begun by the Texarkana freight bureau against several southwestern railroads involving rates to and from lower Mississippi river crossings. The commission held that:

"In the making of joint through rates on long distance traffic to local or non-competitive points, the differentials above the rates to the bargaining points should be reasonable in relation involved."

"While carriers may properly meet water competition the maintenance of a lower rate to one point than to other points which are intermediate cannot be justified on the ground that it is necessary to suppress water competition."

The commission decided that class rates from St. Louis, Kansas City, Memphis and certain defined territories to Texarkana should not exceed those from the same points to Shreveport, La., and that the Texarkana rates must be the maximum to all intermediate points.

HOBBS IS ACQUITTED OF SOLICITING OF BRIBES

Vicksburg, Miss., Dec. 31.—G. A.

Holst, a state senator who was charged with receiving and soliciting a bribe, was acquitted today by a jury before which he had been on trial for several weeks.

$256.78 CONTRIBUTED AT CHRISTMAS TREE

The total amount collected by the ushers and members of the Christmas tree committee, including the contributions that were made to Mayor Rankin and $53.53 collected on Fack square last night by the ushers, was $256.78. This is considered a very excellent showing by the committee in charge of the municipal tree, and together with the large amount of clothing of all kinds, food and provisions collected, will go a long way towards relieving the poor of the city during the winter months.
