Flanagan's Boy

Story of St. Patrick's Day

By CLARISSA MACKIE

"Larry will never be coming home, sighed Dennis Flanagan as he looked out into the March twilight. "It's ave years since he went away to seek his fortune, Molly, and do you never wonder what he's found?"

Molly Delaney looked at her uncle through unshed tears.

"I am always wondering that, Uncle

Dennis," she answered. "Light the lamp, Molly, and read hi latest letter." requested Dennis. When the lamp was lighted it disclosed a comfortable sitting room. clean and cozy and warm. It showed Dennis in his big rocking chair, his helpless rheumatic feet propped on a stool. Lovely Molly Delaney, with her misty black hair and her Irish blue eyes, sat down at the table and opened the worn envelope that contained Larry Flanagan's letter and read:

Dear Father-Although it's five years since I left you with high topes in my heart that my returning would be soon, i fear that I must walt a little longer be-fore seeing your dear face again and feeling the hearty clasp of your hand. Gold is an alluring jade. She has led me a pretty chase in this bleak, cold country, and now she is only just in sight. Please God, when next I write it will be to tell you that I have struck it rich, that I am coming home to buy a grand house for you and Molly, and we will all be happy together. Remember that I promised Mol-ly that when I came home I'd bring her a bunch of emerald shamrocks, the real iswels, and now they are just within my reach. A boy from Hazenville is due here tomorrow, and with his coming I expec to hear direct news from you both. love from your dutiful son, LARRY. Molly lifted her eyes and looked across the table at Dennis Flanagan. "Uncle Dennis, I'm afraid that Larry will never come home," she whispered.

The old man lifted a tremulous hand. "Hush, child; I've a feeling that Larry will come back to us. I had a dream last night. I thought there came a knocking at the door and I opened it to see our Larry. Instead of wearing fine clothes and a silk hat, poor Larry was in rags. And instead of pinning a bunch of emerald shamrocks on your bosom, where they'd be out of place on that flimsy cotton gown, my dear, our poor Larry carried a little pot of the living green plant from old Ireland. And then I woke up.

Molly was sobbing softly.

"I don't care how poor he is. Uncle Dennis, if he will only come home to

"No more do I. childie " whimpered Dennis.

Don't sorrow. Uncle Dennis," comforted the girl, slipping to her knees "Larry will soon come beside him. If this last quest for gold should prove useless, I can see him turning about and coming back to us. Between the lines of his letter I could read that he was hungering for the ones he had left behind."

"God bless you, daughter," smiled Dennis more cheerfully.

The Alaska twilight had fallen swiftly like a dull gray blanket tossed over the frozen world; then a ghostly moon appeared over the eastern mountains and revealed bleak expanses of glistening snow and the dark masses of pine

Under the shoulder of the hill crouch. ed a little cabin, and before the blaz-Ing fire on its bearth two young men were sitting. The "boy from Hazenville" had arrived, and Larry Flanagan was listening to his story of home and

"And my old father helpless with the rheumatism?" repeated Larry incredu-lausty, "Why, Mike Dolan, the old scout never wrote a word of it to me! But, thank heaven, the railroad stocks will keep him comformble, but"-

Mike Dolan looked at the big framed man, whose brown hair was graying on had taken on new lines of doggedness during the past five years. Was it possible that Larry did not know that the little western railroad had blown up and that old Dennis Flanagan's stock was worthless?

"Larry." he interrupted soberly. "didn't you know that the railroad busted and your father lost every

"You lie!" cried Larry savagely, for he was struck to the heart by the news.

Mike Dolan smiled pityingly, "It's all true, Larry, and what's more true is that your little cousin Molly is a wonderful girl. When the bad news came the lass opened a millinery shop, and with her clever fingers she certainly has made money hand over fist. She's taken good care of your father, and"- "Whisht, man," cried Larry in an agonized tone, "I cannot bear to hear any more! Look at me, Mike Dolan! Laugh et me! I came away to make my fortune. I said when I returned 1 would bring Molly a bunch of shamrock made from emeralds, with diand dewdrops on 'em. and look at He swept his arm in a gesture miske good that promise, and Molly-sweet little Molly Delaney-not botherlag ber dear head about emeralds or diamonds, but doing her duty day by day. Laugh at me. Mike Doian, for I am a blind foot?"

But Mike Dolan did not laugh.

On the 17th of March Dennis Flan

Phone 202 for your wants.

agan and his niece sat down to supper. All day long Dennis had listened for the postman's ring at the doorbell, but There came a newspaper from his old home in County Autrim. Ireland, but beyond that there was nothing. Always before they had received some word from Larry in his faraway home, and, though the delay might be attributed to the mails and the heavy snowstorms reported in the feet. northwest. Dennis was heavy hearted.

"May the blessed saint whose day it is protect him wherever he is!" sighed Dennis as he took a cup of tea from Molly's hand.

"I'm sure we will hear from Larry in the morning," cried Molly hopefully. Look, Uncle Dennis, at the sweet pot of shamrock I brought home."

Dennis looked at her keenly. "Molly, lass, and do you not pine for he real emeralds, the jewels that Larry promised?" he asked.

Molly laughed scornfully. Her cheeks flushed rosily, and her blue eyes shone with love for the absent lover-cousin.

'Uncle Dennis, you make me ashamed! Don't you believe I'd rather see a lad who has two green eyes-eyes the color of that bunch of shamrockthan all the jewels in the world? Those emerald eyes of Larry Flanagan's are the only jewels I would wear against my heart!" Whe hung her head in sudden sweet shame.

Dennis' wrinkled hand was stretched ncross the table toward her.

"Then, Molly, lass," he whispered, maybe it'll come all right, for again home, poor and needy instead of rich

"Who wanted him rich, Uncle Den nis?" cried the girl hotly. "We were satisfied, you and I. We pleaded with him not to go away and leave us. But there; perhaps it was for the best, but there is an ache behind it all?"

"What is that?" Dennis lifted his head. "The music of the band. The knights o' green are parading. Shall we go down to the corner of the street and watch them, Uncle Dennis?"

"Yes. 'Twasn't so many years ago that I marched with 'em meself on St. Patrick's day, and Larry-1 hoped by this time he would be back among them, brave in a green and gold uniform. Help me on with my overcoat, dearle." So the old man, leaning on the arm of the siender, upright girl, went down to the corner and with swelling heart watched the passing of the gallant knights who marched in honor of the good St. Patrick.

As the tail of the procession passed out of sight Dennis Flanagan and his niece turned toward home.

Molly knew that the old man's heart was far away in Alaska with the beoved son, who was vainly seeking the will o' the wisp, gold.

Tonight gold and the luxuries it brings seemed a tiny thing to the girl with the aching heart. Again they were seated about the glowing little stove in the sitting room the door to the porch.

Moliv crossed the room and opened the door only to fall back against the lintel white lipped and staring.

"Uncie Dennis, Uncie Dennis, I'm "Uncle Dennis, Uncle Dennis, I'm COMMITTEE TO LOCATE the snow covered porch.

Dennis hobbled to her side and saw the form of a man huddled on the door

"Poor soul!" he muttered, turning the face toward the light, and then he fell back, with a startled cry. "Heavens, Molly, it's our own Larry!

"Tis my dream come true!" be mouned, Molly recovered her courage when she realized that she was actually needed to allay suffering. She rubbed the cold face with snow and poured a strong stimulant through the white tips. After awhile Larry opened his

When he was safely inside, supported on either side by father and sweetheart, he looked down at them from tender green dyes that were rarely beautiful.

Dennis and Molly looked at him hungrily.

the temples and whose handsome face promised to bring back emerald shamrocks to deck his sweetheart's breast-Larry was shabby and obviously poor and undeniably bungry, for he was thin and pale and worn.

But he was Larry, come home to this idea. them once more!

Clasped in his father's trembling arms, Larry soothed the old man's excitement, while Molly hurried to and fro making a pot of strong coffee and brolling a piece of beefsteak.

When she had set the table with the meal Larry's eyes beckoned her across the room, and she came and stood be

"Molly, darling," said Larry in a low tone, "my fine promises are for nothing. I come home poorer than when I went away, and the emeralds I was to bring home, lassle"-his voice shook -"are missing. I find you have been as a daughter to my father. My heart is broken with the shame of it all, and"- Molly's soft hand closed his lips. "Be still," she smiled at him, while Dennis chuckled in his corner. still, Larry. You have brought home jewels to me worth more than emeraids. Your true eyes of emerald green that included the four corners of the are my jewels, and your love and conrough cabin. "Me, still striving to stancy shall always grow green in my beart, and the little bit of Uving green yonder"-she pointed to the shamrock on the table-"is more to me than lifeless gems or cold gold." Watle Larry held her close to him Dennis nodded his head at his son.

"The true had. A good woman is above rubles, but our little Molly is far above rubles and gold and emeralds."

Phone 202 for your wants.

TIZ" FIXES TIRED, SUFFRAGE SUPPORTERS URGING THEIR VIEWS SORE, SWOLLEN FEET

Good-bye sore feet, burning feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelling feet, tired

Good-bye corns, callouses, bunions and raw spots. No more shoe tightness, no more limp-ing with pain or drawing up yeur face in agony.

"TIZ" is magical, acts right off.
"TIZ" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. Use "TIZ" and forget your foot y. Ah! how comfortable your feet Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" now at any druggist or department store. Don't suffer. Have good feet, glad feet, feet that never swell, never hurt, never get tired. A year's foot comfort guaranteed or money refunded.

COL. ROBERT BINGHAM IS SUED FOR $10,000

dreamed the dream of Larry coming J. F. Gryder Brings Action in Superior Court for Damages.

> J. F. Gryder filed a complaint in the office of the clerk of Superior court yesterday in which he seeks damages in the sum of $10,000 from Robrt Bingham for personal injuries, alleged to have been received while in the employ of the defendant.

It is set forth in the complaint that e plaintiff was in the employ of the defendant and his duties were to milk several cows every day. This was to be done in a stable at the Bingham school and the milk brought to a storeroom adjoining the mess hall of the school, where it was the duty of the plaintiff to weigh each bucketful on scales on the porch of the store om, it is set forth.

While in the discharge of his duties is claimed, the plaintiff on October 13, 1913, was bringing two bucketsful of milk, one with eight gallons and the other with four gallons, to the porch to be weighed, when on stepping on the porch the rotten planks gave way and he was violently thrown upon he porch and permanently and seriously injured. It is set forth that the plaintiff's back was wrenched and spine fractured and dislocated, causing him to be permanently injured and to lose much time from his work and de-priving him of the opportunity to nake a living for himself and family

The complaint states that it was the duty of the defendant to furnish the plaintiff with a safe place to work when there came a soft knocking at and that in not so doing he was careless and negligent.

Jones & Williams represent plaintiff in the action.

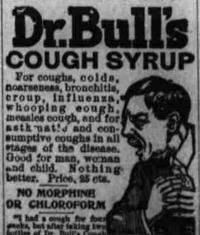

Will Report to Education Board on Site for Grace High School.

A committee from the county board of education and Superintend-

Larry, who had gone forth so gallarry, who had gone forth so gallarry, who had gone forth so gallarry, who had school in detail and telling of the it concerned itself with three wonderful advantages it would be to charges, two of which the judges suspense to deek his awestheart's breast. purpose of the school board to make George was the father of a girl's child the new Grace school one of the best — Scotch verdict of "not proven"

W. E. N. Ingle was appointed this

A Question of Weight. Teacher—How many ounces in pound? Boy-Well, ma says it de FEDERAL FUNCTION

tee In Interest of the Amendment.

Washington, March 4 .- Supporters nd opponents of the proposed constitutional amendment for woman suffrage crowded into the house judiciary committee hearing yesterday for another battle of words. Representative Mondell of Wyoming, said that experience with suffrage in his prompted him to urge its extension. The women of Wyoming, he said, voted in quite as large a proportion as

Mrs. Anionette Funk of the National Women's Suffrage association declared there was not a state where the ma-jority of legislatures elected within the past twenty years had been responsive to the people's will.

She suggested that by congressional action, "you remove the barrier of legislatures so that the people, upon a direct petition may vote on this ques-

The greatest obstacle in the way of securing to women the right to vote," she declared, "Is in the provisions of those constitutions which make so difficult the option of constitutional amendments. There is injustice in these provisions. \ To nullify them by a federal amendment would not be an interference with state's rights. It simply would be giving the people the right to make such laws as they desire in respect to voting."

GWALTNEY IS APPOINTED TO SUCCEED CAPT. RICE

Commissioners Name new Convict Boss-Bridge Contract Is Awarded.

Several important matters were deided by the board of county commisioners at the session yesterday.

J. A. Gwaltney was appointed succeed Captain J. W. Rice as the head of convict camp No. 2, Captain Rice having resigned yesterday morn-Several men made application ing. for the place.

Peter Kernan, a local contractor was awarded the contract to construct a concrete bridge over Hee Tree, just above Swannanoa. The new bridge will be 45 feet long, 10 feet wide and just as soon as the weather permits pired term of the late Joseph and it is thought that the job will be eight feet high. Work will begin on it completed in about three weeks. The decision to build this bridge of concrete was reached by the board after much discussion as to the merits of steel and concrete. It was finally decided that as the concrete bridge did not have to be repaired or painted it road supervisors for the county was noon today. appointed with the exception of two Ben DeBruhl was appointed in place was appointed to fill the place held by eyes, smiled, shook himself and slowly ent Hipps went out yesterday to New York, March 4.—William R. staggered to his feet.

WM. GEORGE SCORED BY INFORMAL JUDGES

Grace to make final arrangements George, founder and former head of for the location of the new High the George Junior Republic at Free school, which the board will erect in ville, N. Y., is further scored by the that district. It is expected that the findings of three informal judges in spectfully represents that on the ommittee will decide upon the site a report made public here. The presand report the matter to the board ent investigation was conducted under he once. joint auspices of committees repre-it will be remembered that The senting the Freeville institution and Gazette-News carried a story several the National Association of George county High schools in the state and was returned. The charges sustained

At the meeting of board yesterday The judges who passed on the exempt by laws from such discharge. Dated this 27th day of February 1 ness was transacted, nithough the Samuel Seabury, state Supreme court board was in session until 12 o'clock justice, and Miss Lillian Wald, a somorning by the board as committee-ithaca Sunday night said that the man from the Inanda district. Ithaca Sunday night said that the judges in this hearing had rendered decision acquitting George.

Washington, March. 4.—Alfred P. Chom, general counsel of the Southern house commerce committee, said he believed the federal government should have exclusive power to provide for regulation and issuance of capitalization by ratiroads in interstate traffic. He contended that to allow this power over interstate roads to both the interstate commerce commission and to the various state railroad commissions, would be an unnecessary commissions, would be an unnecessary and annoying duplication of a great work, and that it was exclusively a federal function.

Protests Against Burnett Bill.

Weakington, March 4.—Germany has protested against the provinces of the Burnett bill to require immigrant ships to carry a United States health inspector. The question of acceptance over foreign ships this involved I the protests by both linity By W. S. HYAMS, Deputy Clerk. and Germany.

THE FAIR 12 South Main St.

Just Received

A full line of Ladies' New Soring Suits and Coats, all Parisian models, no two alike.

Millinery

Our Spring Stock of Millinery is Complete. We have a large selection of Parisian models

Come and See Them

They are now on dis-

TRUSTEE'S SALE,

SECRETARY BRYAN HAS ANOTHER GRANDCHILD

Washington, March 4 .- A new baby girl, at Secretary Bryan's home yesterday delayed a conference with the British ambassador and also the cabinet meeting.

Mr. Bryan telephoned his office and the White House, that he would be late and announced the birth of a girl to his daughter, Mrs. Rithard L. Hargraves of Lincoln, Neb. Mr. Bryan now has six grand children.

To Elect Senator.

Montgomery, March 4.-Governor O'Neal has announced he would call a special election for May 11 for selection of a senator to fill the unex-

Southern Train Derailed.

Folkston, Ga., March 3 .- A dozen passengers sustained bruises and other minor injuries when Southern railway train No. 30 from Jacksonville would be the cheapest in the end. way train No. 30 from Jacksonville to Columbia was derailed near here at

Get your Y. M. C. A. circus ticketa now. Reserved seats 25c. 16-5t

BANKRUPT NOTICE.

United States of America, Western District of North Carolina, sa. In the United States District Court in and for said District. In the matter of Frank Bela Poteat, bankrupt.

Petition for Discharge. To the Honorable Jas. E. Boyd, judge of the District Court of the United States for the Western District of North Carolina. Frank Bela Poteat, of Bakersville, in the county of Mitchell and state of spectfully represents that on the fifteenth day of October last past was duly adjudged bank-under the acts of conrupt gress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully compiled with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the Court touching his bankruptey. Wherefore he prays that he may be decreed by the Court to have a full discharge from all debts provable everything will be done to carry out were that George had made improper against his estate under said bank-overtures to another. Dated this 27th day of February A

> FRANK BELA POTEAT, Bankrupt. Order of Notice Thereon.

Western District of North Carolina. County of Buncombe, as. On this 2rd day of March, A. D. 1914, on reading the foregoing peti-

SAYS ATTORNEY THOM ing be had on the same on the 7th day of April, A. D., 1914, before P. W. Thomas, as Special Master, at his office, 33-34 American National railway, testifying yesterday before house commerce committee, said he

And it is further ordered by the court, that the special master shall send by mail to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness the Honorabie James E. Hoyd, judge of the said court, and the seal thereof, at Asheville in said

By W. S. HYAMS, Deputy Clerk

tained in a certain deed of trust made tained in a certain deed of trust m V. Goldsmith and wife, S. K. by E. L. Kuykendall and wife, Vit Goldsmith, to the undersigned trustee, Kuykendall, to the undersigned tru dated the 5th day of February, tee,, dated the 17th day of February 1913, and duly recorded in the office 1913, and duly recorded in the off of the register of deeds for Buncombo of the register of deeds for Buncombo county, N. C., in book of mortgages and deeds of trust No. 90 at page and deeds of trust No. 90 at 254 to which reference is hereby made, 299 to which reference is hereby m and default having been made in the and default having been made in payment of the indebtedness secured payment of the indebtedness secured by said deed of trust whereby the by said deed of trust whereby power of sale therein contained has power of sale therein contained become operative, said undersigned become operative, said undersigned trustee will, on Saturday, the 28th day trustee will, on Saturday, the 28th day of March, 1914, at 12 o'clock, noon, sell at public auction for cash, at the sell at public auction for cash, at ourt house door in the city of Asheville, county of Buncombe and State ville, county of Buncombe and S of North Carolina the following lands of North Carolina the following lands and premises, situate, lying and being and premises, situate, lying and being in the county of Buncombe and State near Electric street in the town a of North Carolina, adjoining the lands West Asheville, county of Bunc of Will Glass, Penland, Ray and oth- and State of North Carolina, ers and being the same lands and premises conveyed to Hannah Glass by Geo. C. Stewart by deed dated Septem-ber 15th, 1880, and duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds for Buncombe county, N. C., in deed book No. 44 at page 89 et seq., to which reference is hereby made for metes and bounds.

This February 25th, 1914. GWYN EDWARDS, Trustee.

of March, 1914, at 12 o'clock, a court house door in the city of As

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

By virtue of the power of sale co and State of North Carolina, and being the lands and premises on ass by veyed by F. P. Ingle and wife, Magg Ingle to E. L. Kuykendall by deed dated January 2nd, 1913, and day recorded in the office of the regi of deeds for Buncombe county N.C. in book of deeds No. 184 at page 48 et seq., to which reference is herely made for metes and bounds.

This February 24th, 1914. GWYN EDWARDS, Trustee

PHONE YOUR "WANT ADS." TO 202

New Spring Goods

In all departments we have received attractive late styles, the pick from many importers and manufacturers who rank away up for ability in their respective lines.

The invoices for many more have come, so the next day or two will furnish large additions to the stock.

Réady-to-Wear Hats E. P. Reed Shoes

In the Hats, for ladies and children, and the Reed Low Cuts for ladies you will find a number of prime effects at prices most reasonable, we assure you. BUTTERICK PATTERNS—BUTTERICK PASHIONS—BUTTERICK DELINEATORS.

These meritorious items are en-joying their usual popularity or more. Great Enterprise with long experience to build upon has made the Butterick name famous the world over. April sheets should reach us March 13th to 15th.

H. Redwood 8 Co.