DR. C. B. WALLER TO CONDUCT SERVICE

Beginning next Monday night, Rev. Dr. C. B. Waller, pastor of the First Baptist church, will conduct evangelistic services at the First Baptist church at Hendersonville, which will continue for two weeks. It is stated that several other churches had asked Dr. Waller to conduct services for them at this time but he finally decided to hold the Hendersonville services for the next two weeks. Dr. Waller delivered the annual sermon last week in Hendersonville at the Women's Missionary union meeting and it was after this sermon that the Hendersonville people decided to ask him to hold the evangelistic services for them.

A NEW FRONT AT JARRET'S GROCERY

E. C. Jarrett, the Park square grocer, is installing a new front to his store, which when completed will make the place one of the most modern and up-to-date in the city. The door to the store has been moved back about four feet, making room for two large show windows, which will be about eight feet deep. The work on the improvement of the front was started several days ago and Mr. Jarrett states that it will be finished some time next week. As soon as the work is finished the front will be repainted.

Gigantic Germ. Mrs. R. was an extremely careful mother and had repeatedly cautioned her six-year-old daughter against handling any object that might contain germs. One day the little girl came to her mother and said: "Mother, I am never going to play with my kitty any more, because she has germs on her." "Oh, no," replied her mother, "there are no germs on your kittens." "Yes, there are," insisted the child, "I saw one hop."—Harper's Magazine.

SECOND GREEK WAR IS STARTED HERE

Another Civil Suit Instituted With Members of Greek Colony as Principals.

The opening guns in another Greek war were fired this morning when Gus Kantsios filed a complaint in the office of the clerk of superior court against Demos D. Puchas for $1900, which the plaintiff claims was secured from him through false and fraudulent means. The complaint states that some time prior to July 15, 1913, the defendant told the plaintiff that he wished to return to Greece and wanted to sell him a lease he had on the Royal Victoria hotel at 36 South Main street and the California lunch room, also on South Main. The complaint sets forth that the defendant told the plaintiff the lease was for an unexpired term of three years; that he had the consent of his lessor, Arthur Kantsios, who was out of the United States at the time, to sell the lease. The plaintiff then states that he believed this to be true and purchased the lease and paid $1500 in cash, gave his note for $250 and assumed payment of two notes of $75 each, which the defendant had given his lessor, Arthur Kantsios. After purchasing the lease, paying for it and obtaining a written assignment for it, the plaintiff states that he found the defendant had no right or authority from his lessor to sell or sublet the lease, without the written consent of his lessor. Further, it is claimed by the plaintiff that he found if the lease was sold, that the lessor, Arthur Kantsios, could come in and take possession of the property without notice; that the defendant knew this to be true at the time he sold the lease to the plaintiff. It is further set forth that the representations made by the defendant to the plaintiff were false and fraudulent and made for the purpose of deceiving and misleading the plaintiff and to cheat and defraud him out of the purchase money. It is claimed in the papers that immediately after discovering that the defendant had no right to dispose of the lease, the plaintiff demanded of him that he returned his money, which the defendant refused to do. W. W. Jones is counsel for the plaintiff in the action.

"CHICKEN INSPECTOR" IS DESERTER FROM ARMY

Walter Baird, Arrested Here This Week, Sent to Chattanooga for Courtmartial.

Walter Baird, who was tried in Police court this week on charges of attempted false arrest and imprisonment and fined $50 and the costs, was turned over to the United States army authorities as a deserter from the army yesterday morning and was taken to Chattanooga, where he will be tried before a court martial, it is stated. Baird came here several days ago from his home in Detroit, he claimed and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Soncrant, where he is alleged to have attempted to arrest them, claiming that he was an officer from Detroit. When Mr. Soncrant started to call up the local police headquarters, Baird darted out the door of a back room on Franklin street and was only caught after a long chase on Clingan avenue. When arrested he was found to be wearing a badge with the words "Chief chicken inspector No. 7-11", on it. He was held in the police station pending some arrangements he said he could make, in order to get his fine paid, when a circular was found in the office at the station, which told of Baird's desertion from the United States army at a post in Pennsylvania about a year ago. When confronted with the circular he admitted that he was the man and said that he was willing to be turned over to the army officials.

"FAUST" CRITICISED BY THE ATHENS BANNER

The following criticism of the New York Grand Opera company's presentation of "Faust" which comes to the Auditorium was clipped from The Athens Banner of March 11: The Athens people should congratulate themselves every time they have the opportunity to hear any opera, however badly it may be sung; they should be doubly appreciative when in the local play house they have the privilege of hearing a company as excellent as the one presenting Faust last night. There was only a small company but each member was exceptionally good—there was not a voice that was not well placed, clear, sweet and well trained. Margarina's final song in the prison scene was very pleasing, though her work throughout was delightful and sustained. The audience was rather small due to its being Lent and also to the fact that there were several other attractions in the city. This is why regretted, as it was one of the best offerings at the Colonial this season—indeed one of the best musical attractions ever seen here. THEATRICAL managers and poker players are not the only people to whom a "full house" is important. It is important to the men who make bookends or leaders. PROFIT! Again, the moral: The Gazette-News, want columns.

ADDITIONAL SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NOTES. (Continued from page 6) The condition of Mrs. John Y. Jordan, who underwent an operation at the Billmore hospital several days ago, is reported today as much improved. It is expected that Mrs. Jordan will be able to leave the hospital the latter part of next week.

There will be a called meeting of the Rector's Aid society of Trinity church tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Brewster Phillips, 147 Chestnut street. All members are urged to be present. Mrs. Malcom Yeaman and son, Harvey Yeaman, of Henderson, Ky., are guests at the Langren hotel. Bear Wallow Notes. Correspondence of The Gazette-News. Bear Wallow, April 2.—Approximately 800 people were present Sunday at the Baptist church at this place for one of the biggest singing conventions held in Edinowville township. There was considerable rivalry displayed between the classes, the general opinion being that Mountain Home was entitled to the pennant. Prof. Zack Searcy, was leader of Mountain Home class; Rev. H. R. Freeman, leader of Liberty class; Watt Justice, leader of Edinowville class; and R. E. L. Freeman had charge of the Bear Wallow class. A picnic dinner was served and those present enjoyed the day to the fullest. The convention was held for the purpose of improving the music of the country choirs. The next one will be held with the Mountain Home class on the fifth Sunday in May. S. G. Freeman of Resler City is visiting at W. T. Huntley's. Mrs. Kelley Owenby, has arrived home from Lockhart, S. C., where she spent the winter. T. M. Merrill, Grady Bradley and Mrs. Roda Gossitt have gone to Forest City on a visit. Mrs. Russell Oates and three small children, who have resided at Old Fort for the past year, have moved back to their home in the Hickory Nut gap. Lafayette Jones, who is teaching school in Epik county, visited the singing convention Sunday.
