

GREY SUFFERER FROM LIVER AND STOMACH

Used Many Different Remedies With No Result But Finally Succeeded With Theford's Black-Draught.

Ridgeway, Va.—Prof. T. A. Walker, of this town, says: "Twenty odd years ago, I became a teacher. The work was very confining and did not then very well agree with my health, and soon I became a great sufferer from liver and stomach troubles.

I used many kinds of liver and stomach remedies, but from none of these did I receive anything more than temporary relief. Yet, it seemed that I was compelled to take some kind of liver and stomach medicine. I became despondent and hardly knew what to do.

Along about this time Theford's Black-Draught was recommended to me. I bought some and began its use.

It did not take me long to discover that I was using a superior medicine. It thoroughly cleansed my liver and stomach, and gave me an almost ravenous appetite. My indigestion soon passed away, and so did my brown greasy-looking complexion. In short, I felt like a new being.

Now, I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time, and take it occasionally. I cannot afford to be without it. If I ever have a sick spell, I take Black-Draught, and it always brings relief. I verily believe that Black-Draught is the best liver and stomach medicine that ever was made."

ABSORBS SKIN, CHASES WRINKLES—YOUNG AGAIN

"The shock at beholding myself in the glass after nine long weeks abed, nearly caused a relapse," writes Emily Colson in Home Queen. "The faded face, with its lines of illness and worry, seemed twenty years older. Now, I thought, I could not attend my chum's wedding, eleven days off, to which I had looked hopefully forward.

"She herself came to my rescue. She procured an ounce of ordinary mercerized gauze at the drug store, which she made me spread on like cold cream, washing it off next morning. Applied nightly, this apparently absorbed the withered skin, so gently I experienced no discomfort. Upon the wedding morn the pallid complexion had entirely given way to one of youthful color and loveliness.

"And there wasn't a wrinkle. This due to a wash-lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel. The daily face bath had dispersed every line."

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Cox's Entertainments.

Mrs. Tench Cox entertained with a tea dance yesterday afternoon at her lovely home, "Klondike," in honor of Miss Evelyn Empe of Wilmington, who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Settle, at "Orton," and Mrs. Cameron Waddell, Jr., who has recently returned from Europe. The spacious and elegant Cox home was thrown open for the event and beautifully decorated with a profusion of cut flowers of all kinds. Exquisite pink peonies made lovely the dining room in the center of which the large dining table was arranged with bonbons, nuts and many dainty things and presided over at either end by ladies serving punch and tea. Mrs. Thomas Settle and Mrs. Charles L. Minor took turns serving punch and Mrs. Thomas A. Jones poured tea. Delicious salads, sandwiches, patties and pastries of all kinds were served, followed by ices, cakes and candies. In one of the large parlors Mrs. Cox with her sister, Mrs. Settle, and the two guests of honor, Mrs. Waddell and Miss Empe, formed the receiving line and graciously received the guests. The pool room was cleared for dancing and many of the enthusiasts among the younger dancing enjoyed the various new dances. Several hundred guests attended Mrs. Cox's delightful tea dance and the event was a most successful social compliment for the guests of honor.

A GLOWING CRITICISM OF "SAPHO" PRODUCTION

The Majestic theater next Saturday will present a new departure from its usual program by offering for that day only a great feature picture, "Sapho," in six reels. It is a dramatization of Daudet's celebrated story and has appeared with wonderful success all over the country. The critic of the Los Angeles Times comments thusly on this remarkable production, as follows:

"Slipping into the square of light thrown by the big projecting machine at the Majestic theater yesterday, Miss Florence Roberts as Sapho in the motion picture production of this famous play added new laurels to her already top-heavy crown. With the same passionate abandon with which she made the role of 'Sapho' famous in the play that took the country by storm a few years ago, Miss Roberts as the pictured Sapho left absolutely nothing to wish for in yesterday's production. Only the voice was lacking, and that was made up for in the wealth of detail that the film allowed. In the play but four scenes are given, and all the earlier scenes of the book are of a necessity omitted on the stage. In the picture yesterday all this was changed. As there is no limit to the number of scenes to a film drama, the motion picture production of 'Sapho' followed the book in every particular."

"NIGHT ON BROADWAY" IS JOLLY MUSICAL FARCE

A jolly musical farce which will appear at the Majestic theater next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday is Halton Pow's "Night on Broadway," the company being headed by that universally amusing comedian, Harry Emerson, whose originality has stood out pre-eminently for a number of years. He will be remembered for his clever work in "Gay New York." At times his capers are purely nonsensical, but as laugh provokers are thoroughly irresistible.

"Night on Broadway," without its musical and fantastic embellishments, is one of the most amusing of farces adapted from the German. There are ten acting parts and each one a distinct characterization. The members of the chorus were engaged especially for their talent, youth and beauty. The management prides itself on the costuming of the chorus, eight complete changes being made during the action of the comedy. The music is of the jingle kind one can't forget.

Good temper is like a sunny day. It sheds its brightness everywhere.—French proverb.
