CABIN JOHN'S BRIDGE IS SCENE OF PICNIC

Over 100 North Carolinians in Washington Go There for An Outing.

Gazette-News Bureau, Wyatt Building, Washington, June 29.
A hundred or more North Carolinians, members of the North Carolina society of Washington, journeyed to Cabin John bridge Saturday for the annual picnic. Everybody brought a basket filled with good things to eat. A basket of fried chicken which Mrs. E. H. Boyd of Greensboro brought out was the center of attraction. Mrs. Boyd had the chicken cooked in Greensboro Friday, and sent here by parcels post, arriving just in time for the feast.

Several congressmen and the two senators were expected to speak but not a single member of the delegation or either of the senators or any member of their families appeared at the bridge to mingle with the folks from home. They were busy, perhaps, with matters in congress; others may have attended the ball game, if there was any to attend.

Dr. J. A. Holmes, president of the society, who is in Mexico for his health, wired Secretary R. O. E. Davis that he regretted his inability to be with the folks from "down home."

Senator Overman presented petitions to the senate Saturday advocating woman suffrage signed by Mrs. A. D. Glasgow of Charlotte, and Miss Anna Liddell, and one from Chapel Hill signed by a half dozen women who believe the gentler sex should be allowed the privilege of voting.

ALEXANDER STEWART OF SOUTHERN RY IS DEAD

Superintendent of Motive Power and Equipment of Road Dies in Paris.

Washington, June 29.—Friends of Alexander Stewart, superintendent of motive power and equipment of the Southern railway were shocked to learn through cable advices of his death in Paris yesterday. His death is said to have been due to liver complaint for which he had gone abroad to be treated. Mr. Stewart was born in Fort Wayne, Ind., 47 years ago and was well known in railway circles.

PAUL GILMORE AGAIN IS AT THE MAJESTIC

"The Mummy and the Humming Bird," a play which will be presented at the Majestic the first three days of this week is one of the best known comedy dramas now before the public. The play is one that by the interest of its story excites and maintains the interest by the natural sequence of the incidents, by the dramatic keenness in which its plot is developed by the brightness of its dialogue, and has established itself in the general estimation as one of the best comedy dramas ever presented before the American public. In no other single play have so many strong characters been assembled.

Paul Gilmore will assume his great character, Lord Lumley, and will be supported by an excellent company, including Miss Mabel Scott, the popular society actress.

FORTY DEFENDANTS IN POLICE COURT TODAY

Heaviest Sentences Imposed in Retailing Cases—Day's Record.

With forty defendants, charged with about fifty offenses, the usual Monday "Blue Matinee" was staged in Police court this morning, with a large and interesting audience looking on, from the free seats provided for those who get amusement or profit out of watching their less fortunate brothers and sisters go through the drama of parading their faults before others.

The longest sentences today were imposed on alleged retailers, although several smaller offenders drew shorter sentences and small fines.

Lillian Clark, colored, drew the prize sentence of the day, it being 10 months in the county jail on charges of retailing to Jim Calloway, while Mattie Bridger, white, was given a sentence of three months on charges of retailing to Calloway. Each appealed and bond in the first case was fixed at $300, and at $200 in the last case.

Carl Gregory was given a sentence of 30 days on the roads on charges of being a vagrant, with appeal bond fixed at $100.

Mattie Williams, colored, was given 20 days in jail on charges of larceny.

Cliff Fowler, Brutis Fowler and Miles Landrum, colored, were each found not guilty of assault.

Hall Reaban, Dolph Nix and George Hart were each found not guilty of assault. Hart was also found not guilty in a case of a disorderly nature.

Gessie DeRumple, colored, was fined $5 and the costs on charges of gambling and a no prose was taken in a similar case against Fred Fowler, colored, to make a state's witness of him.

An assault case against Lonnie Young, colored, was continued.

Eness Poodles was taxed with one-half the costs on charges of allowing stock to run at large.

The case against J. F. Roberts, charged with riding on a fire wagon, was continued. In a similar case, Lawrence Cressman was fined $1 and the costs.

The case against Lum Ponders, colored, charged with retailing to Charles Erwin, was continued.

Dr. Paul Ringer was fined $3 and the costs for speeding. Dr. Dunn $2 and the costs and E. M. Gudger $3 and the costs. The last named was taxed with the costs in another automobile case.

Fate Henderson, colored, was found not guilty of violating an automobile law.

Fred Fowler, colored, was fined $5 and the costs on charges of assault.

Harry Fowler, colored, was found not guilty of larceny.

An assault case against John Singer was continued.

In the case against L. B. Crompton, charged with violating an automobile law, the judgment was suspended and costs remitted.

Lewis DuPont was fined $3 and the costs on charges of speeding.

A capias was issued for Sol Evans, colored, charged with allowing a dog to run at large without a muzzle.

George Palolis was found not guilty of allowing minors to play at pool.

Earl Fletcher was taxed with the costs for violating a motorcycle law.

Mary Patton was fined $10 and the costs for obstructing an officer in the discharge of his duty and taxed with the costs on charges of a disorderly nature.

Ten "drunks" were up today, eight being fined $5 and the costs and one $3 and the costs. A capias was issued for another.

COMMITTEES DIFFER ABOUT JURISDICTION

Washington, June 9.—Conflicting claims of jurisdiction among house committees over the administration bills has caused President Wilson to take a hand in the situation and he has arranged conferences with the conflicting committees this week. It expects little difficulty in bringing about harmony.

CLAUD GOOLAKE PARDON

To the Public:
As the father of Ube Luther, I desire to appeal to the good people of Buncombe county to urge Governor Craig not to pardon Claud Goolake. He betrayed my little daughter, robbing her of her virtue under promise of marriage, and when she found that her pretended lover and prospective husband had betrayed her, rather than suffer the torture and ignominy that would be inflicted upon her by the lash of public scorn, she ended her life. Her seducer is really guilty of murder, but was convicted of a lesser felony and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment. He was convicted in the Superior court of this county after a long and tedious trial, being defended by very able counsel, but although it has been a year since the sentence was imposed this defendant has never been committed to the penitentiary.

I am a poor man and am not able to have petitions to the Governor circulated over the county. I am a broken hearted father, and I implore fathers and mothers to intercede with the governor to deny this petition. This I ask, not only that the destroyer of my home may be made to suffer the penalty of his cowardly act, but that the serving of his sentence may prove a valuable object lesson to others of his stripe, like inclinations and designs, who are seeking to invade the innocence and virtue of other homes.
Respectfully, J. B. Luther.

1887. A July 4th Declaration --of Value Leadership 1914

This store has never been undersold--quality for quality--nor will it ever be if we can help it. On the contrary: We Save You Money on Everything You Wear. Scarcely a day goes by but what customers learn too late that the same goods might have been bought here for less. It is gratifying to us to here this because 'Competition is the life of trade.'

But--why pay more? Because another store wants more profit on goods bought at higher prices? Why not convince yourself before purchasing? We invite comparison in Style, Value and Price; and the fact that most customers come back "after looking elsewhere" speaks much for Methods.

This old store is really younger than ever this season--Its stocks are fresher; its merchandise "newer" than at any preceding period.
