They were also to urge the passage of the suffrage resolution adopted at Chicago recently by the Federation of Women's clubs. Twice before President Wilson has received suffragists at the White House. He told them that whatever might be his views on woman suffrage or any other subject, he had made it a rule not to urge legislation upon congress that had not been the subject of "organized consideration" by the democratic party, of which he considered himself the spokesman. BOSNIANS IN FEAR OF SERBIAN PARTY

Is Generally Believed Serbian Nationalists Incited Plot to Kill Arch-Duke.

Vienna, June 30.—According to opinions expressed here by high government officials, the plot of the assassination on Sunday of Prince Ferdinand and his wife at Sarajevo owed its inception to nationalist propaganda which originated in Serbia. This propaganda took deep root among certain elements among the Serbian population of Bosnia. The Bosnian authorities were aware of the reasonable aims of the people but were compelled to proceed with caution in order not to injure another group of Serbians who were loyal to it.

The Bosnian authorities, while carefully watching and restraining these fanatics apparently were unable to discover the conspiracy in time to prevent Sunday's crime.

How deeply this Servian danger really penetrates Bosnia is impossible to estimate, but fears are expressed here that it will be difficult to stem it now.

Exceptions to the rule prescribe the open seasons as follows: Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, between February 7 and November 1; Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, between February 14 and November 20.

BRITISH OARSMEN FEAR HARVARD EIGHT

Henley on Thames, England, June 30.—British river experts after seeing the work of the Harvard university second eight and the Union Boat club of Boston, crews expressed fears today as to whether they would prevent the grand challenge cup from crossing the Atlantic this year. They had an opportunity this morning to compare the rowing of the American eight with that of the English crews and the remarkable speed developed by the trans-Atlantic oarsmen more than confirmed the high opinion already held of the visitors. The regatta starts tomorrow.

LAWYERS MEET IN CONVENTION

North Carolina Bar Association Convenes at Wrightsville Beach—16th Annual Session.

THOS. S. ROLLINS OF ASHEVILLE PRESIDES

Zeb F. Curtis Responds to Address of Welcome—Over 100 Members Are In Attendance.

Wrightsville Beach, June 30.—The first session of the 16th annual meeting of the North Carolina bar association convened last night with over 100 lawyers of the state in attendance. The meeting was presided over by the president, Thomas S. Rollins, of the Asheville bar. He introduced George E. Elliott, of the Wilmington bar, who in a short and witty address, welcomed the visitors to Wilmington and the beach.

Zeb F. Curtis, of Asheville, made the response to the address of welcome. In the course of his remarks he said: "In looking over the reports of the meetings of this association since its organization, I find that almost every meeting has been held on the seashore or in the mountains. This is a very significant fact. It indicates that when the association assembles for deliberation it shall be under circumstances that are calculated to inspire the members to greater effort to uplift the profession in North Carolina. The spirit of good fellowship that pervades these meetings brings the lawyers of the state much closer together, and if this association ever accomplishes what it was organized for it can only be done by the united support of the membership of the association. The regatta that comes from a few days spent in pleasant social intercourse under such auspicious circumstances will build up enough nerve tissue to go through the strain and stress of a long term of court, when both the judge and jury are on the wrong side of every case that you have to try. In the preparation of our cases how often do those words of the author of Ecclesiastes come to us 'Of the making of books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.'"

"On behalf of this association, I assure my distinguished friend from Wilmington that we greatly appreciate the hospitable manner in which we have been welcomed, and will furnish every proof of our enjoyment of your hospitality while here."

Following the addresses of welcome, President Rollins delivered the president's annual address. At the close of the president's address Chairman A. W. McLean, of the executive committee, reported that owing to the inability of A. J. Montague to attend the convention that the program had been changed so as to have address of Tom G. Brown Tuesday night and the address of A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, Wednesday morning. During the year he stated the committee had made special efforts to secure increase in membership and he was glad to report this had met with hearty response.

L. R. Varner, secretary of the membership committee, read the names of 69 new members already received and other applications will be passed upon tomorrow.

Following the address by Judge Clark this morning the committee on memorials will make its report. Secretary Davis read a letter from Congressman Montague in which he expressed his deep regret in being unable to attend on account of legislative duties.

President Rollins announced committee on new officers as follows: W. D. Pruden, chairman; J. S. Manning, Frank S. Sprull, O. H. Guion and H. F. Seawell. Committee on publication, Julius C. Martin, chairman; Frank Thompson and C. E. Maaburn.

Many of the members of the association are accompanied by their families and this will add much to the pleasure of the meeting. While the program includes important addresses by notable speakers, ample provision has been made for the social features. There will be no meetings in the afternoon. The local bar association had arranged for an oyster dinner at Lumina this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

DEM. COMMITTEE TO MEET TUESDAY

Chairman Bourne Calls Meeting to Ratify Selection of J. W. Hays, as Chm'n.

Today, through the columns of The Gazette-News, Chairman L. M. Bourne of the Buncombe county democratic executive committee issues a formal call for a meeting of the committee on next Tuesday, July 7, at 12 o'clock, noon, in the commissioners room at the county court house. The principal business of this meeting will be to ratify the election of J. W. Hays as chairman of the committee who was selected as the choice of the democratic candidates at a meeting a few weeks ago. Other business of importance will likewise come up for consideration at this meeting and a full attendance is desired.

The executive committee is constituted of the chairman of the various precinct committees in the county, which committees were elected at the primary on May 16. These committees are asked to meet immediately, if they have not already done so, and select their chairmen, so that all precincts may be represented on the committee at its first meeting.

Returns from the county precincts following the May primary indicate that no committees were selected in Limestone and Ivy No. 1, and if this proves the case it will be the duty of the executive committee to fill these vacancies at the organization meeting next Tuesday.

As soon as the precinct committees meet and select their chairmen, it is asked that the names of these chairmen be at once reported to Chairman Bourne or Secretary Donald Gillette of the executive committee.

MRS. CLARK AND FRIENDS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

Leave Vessel Just Before It Is Swamped by Waves in Violent Storm.

Washington, June 30.—Mrs. Champ Clark, wife of the speaker of the house and a number of young people whom she chaperoned had a narrow escape at Mount Washington, about 15 miles from Washington Sunday during a severe electrical storm, according to facts related today. The party were on a wharf. They had gone down the Potomac on the United States motor launch Wilhelmina and were the guests of the commandant at the fort. Soon after their start on the return trip the storm began and the party landed and took refuge in the freight house. There they saw the Wilhelmina, from which they had just landed, ship water in such quantities that the crew was forced to beach her. The party included Mrs. Clark and her daughter, Miss Genevieve Clark, Miss McCumber, daughter of Senator McCumber of North Dakota; Miss Parker, daughter of Representative Baker of New Jersey and Representative Keller of Tennessee.

They returned to Washington on a lighthouse tender.

MIDDLESEX GRAND JURY FINDS BILLS ON CHARGES IN CONNECTION WITH FINANCING CAMDEN RAILROAD

'CONSPIRACY TO STEAL' AMONG THE CHARGES

Investment Committees of Two Savings Banks of Cambridge Indicted—Mellen Surprised.

Cambridge, Mass., June 30.—Eighteen persons, including Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford and the Boston and Maine railroad companies, Frederick S. Moseley, of F. S. Moseley and company, Boston, broker, the late Ralph D. Gillett, of Westfield, and the investment committees of two savings banks of this city, were indicted yesterday by the Middlesex county grand jury on various charges in connection with the financing of the Camden railroad from Bondsville to Springfield. Mr. Gillett was president of the Hampden railroad.

The railroad was built a year ago as a link to connect the Central Massachusetts division of the Boston and Maine with the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, but never has been operated, an attempt to obtain the legislature's consent to its lease to the Boston and Maine having failed.

The indictments against Messrs. Mellen, Moseley and Gillett allege conspiracy to induce the investment committees of the two banks to lend a total of $45,000 to the corporation. The notes securing the loans were endorsed by the Hampden Investment company, organized by Mr. Gillett to finance the construction of the railroad, which cost approximately $4,000,000.

The investment committee of the East Cambridge Savings bank is indicted on three counts of conspiracy to lend sums of $20,000, $16,000 and $5,000 to the Hampden Railroad company. Similar indictments were returned against the investment committee of the Cambridge Savings bank, the amounts named being $25,000, $22,500 and $20,250.

Frederick S. Moseley was indicted also on six counts involving the alleged larceny of sums amounting to $112,500 from the banks, and Mr. Mellen was indicted as an accessory, before the fact on five of these counts.

Ten other counts allege that Mr. Mellen, Moseley and Gillett, "conspired to steal and did steal," various amounts involved in the transactions with the two banks. Members of the Moseley brokerage firm were indicted on eight counts charging conspiracy to steal.

District Attorney Corcoran said that the actual amount loaned by the two banks to the Hampden railroad corporation was only $45,000 but as each of the notes had been renewed several times, a separate indictment had been returned for each renewal.

Stockbridge, Mass., June 30.—"I cannot conceive how anyone can say that I had any connection with this matter," said Charles S. Mellen at his home last night. "But you know its easy enough to indict a man for almost anything. Somebody has made some sort of a statement to the jurors about me. I know nothing at all of this affair."
