OPENING TODAY OF CAMP GROVE

Confidently Believed that Celebration Will Mean Permanent Location of Camp At Asheville.

ONE OF BIG EVENTS IN CITY'S HISTORY

Camp Is One of Four Such Camps in U. S.—Site Was Selected by Captain Van Horn.

Asheville this afternoon celebrates one of the biggest events in her history—the formal opening of Camp Grove, the United States military training camp located on the slopes of Sunset mountain to the north of Grove Park inn. It is the hope, and confident belief, of all Asheville people vitally interested in the future of the city that this formal opening will likewise mean the permanent location of the camp on its present site. Impressive ceremonies have been arranged for the event and a spectacular parade will immediately precede the exercises at the camp. The parade will start from the Battery Park hotel at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, passing through the business center of the city, and indications are that thousands of people will witness the spectacle and will subsequently attend the exercises at the camp, since a very cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Camp Grove is one of four such camps in the United States this year. There is one in California, one in Vermont and another on the Great Lakes. The site here was selected by Capt. Robert Van Horn of General Leonard Wood's staff, his recommendation being made after an inspection of possible sites in practically every state in the south and southwest. He considered this an ideal location for the training of young men in the science of modern war tactics, discipline, being possessed of a salubrious, healthy environment and a topography that is unequalled in the south for military maneuvers.

Last year there were only two such camps in the country, one of these being at Gettysburg. There were only 125 students in attendance there, but the fact that the camp was located immediately after the great rebellion of the blue and grey, when the eyes of the entire community were turned upon the historic spot, the camp was really an experiment then, but when the war department decided to make it permanent Asheville was selected. Already there are over 150 students enrolled from all sections of the south and east and the attendance is expected to go well above the 200 mark. Capt. Preston Brown of the Seventeenth United States Infantry, in charge of the camp, and the staff of officers assisting him are all delighted with Asheville and the location of the camp, and are likewise sanguine over the success of the institution that appears certain for the opening season here.

The camp will remain here through August 7, and a program of instruction has been arranged that thoroughly covers the field of military instruction for a short term. Maneuvers will be arranged at various points and marches will be made to many places in the section.

To aid in the instruction of the students enrolled at the camp, the Fifth United States cavalry troop K is here from Fort Meyer, Va. The presence of the First Coast Artillery band of 35 pieces, which arrived last week from Fort Moultrie near Charleston will add much to the enjoyment of the students, townspeople and visitors. A program of concerts has been arranged by Capt. Brown for the band to appear at various places in the city during their stay here, and several of these concerts have already been enjoyed. This feature alone adds greatly to the life of the city, while the presence of the army officers and students will enhance the gaiety of the summer season to a great extent.

For the formal opening of the camp this afternoon, troop K of the Fifth United States cavalry and cavalry troop B of the North Carolina National guard were to muster on Pack Square at 3:30 o'clock and proceed to the Battery Park hotel to escort Governor Locke Craig, the members of his military staff and several prominent Asheville men and visitors to Camp Grove, Governor Craig, together with Col. S. Westray Battle, Major James L. Alexander and Capt. James H. Wood, his staff officers, mounted, ride at the head of the parade, preceded by four mounted policemen to clear the streets in carriages following ride prominent Asheville men and visitors. In the first of these were to be Mayor J. E. Harkin, President F. M. Weaver of the board of trade, H. W. Plummer and Col. Sanford H. Cohen of the Greater Western North Carolina association and Secretary N. Buckner of the board of trade. In the near members of the Asheville board of aldermen, followed by the chairman and members of the board of commissioners of Buncombe county. In the last carriage Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, Judge Henry B. Stevens, George S. Powell and E. W. Grove. Moving pictures of the parade will be taken as it leaves the hotel and again en route to the camp. At Grove Park inn other pictures will be taken, which has been put in order for the opening. A stand on the local theater from this stand Governor Craig will address the students and others present. There will also be other short addresses. Moving pictures will also be made of this scene.

Mr. Johnson of New York and Mr. Plaisance of Charlotte are here to make moving pictures of the event, the former representing the Pathe Film company, which will incorporate the Asheville picture in its daily. The film taken by Mr. Plaisance will possibly be shown in one of the local theaters tomorrow or Wednesday, and will later have other Asheville pictures added to it for a complete reel to be shown over the country.

It was hoped that all Asheville people and visitors here who can will be at the opening at the camp this afternoon, and after the exercises arranged there will be a concert of several hours by the Artillery band and all present will be given an invitation to inspect the camp.

Relating to the formation of the parade and other arrangements incident to the opening ceremonies, Capt. Preston Brown, in charge of the camp, issued the following general order late Saturday afternoon, the only change in which is that Governor Craig and his staff officers will be mounted instead of riding in carriages:

1. His excellency, the governor of North Carolina, will visit this camp, officially, July 6, 1914 at 4:15 p. m.
2. Troop B, North Carolina cavalry, Captain Robert K. Reynolds, commanding, massed in Pack square, will be reported to Captain Clarence R. Day, 5th cavalry, at 3:45 p. m.
3. Troop K, Fifth cavalry, Captain Clarence R. Day, Fifth cavalry commanding, will unite with Troop B, North Carolina cavalry on Pack square at 3:45 p. m. The provisional squadron, forming the escort of honor, will be in position at the Battery Park hotel at 4 p. m. and conduct his excellency, the governor to this camp.
4. The first band, coast artillery corps, battalion of students and a provisional battalion and band from the infantry of the North Carolina National guard will be massed in front of the Grove Park inn at 4 p. m. and await orders.
5. When the escort of honor reaches the south exit of the lane leading to the Grove Park inn, carriages will effect a temporary halt. The escort will proceed to the Grove Park inn, where the command will be arranged from left to right as follows: First band, C. A. C.; battalion of infantry, North Carolina National guard; Troop K, Fifth cavalry; Troop B, North Carolina cavalry; battalion of students.
6. At a given signal the carriages of his excellency, the governor, and the distinguished citizens, accompanying him, will advance forty paces in front of the line of troops until the leading carriage is opposite the position of the commanding officer, arms will then be presented, the first band, C. A. C. playing.
7. The entire command, as an escort of honor, marching by the left flank, will then proceed to camp.
8. Arriving in camp, line will be formed as indicated by the commanding officer. As the carriage of his excellency, the governor, passes in front of this line he will be received with the honors due a general.
9. First Lieutenant Joseph P. Ware, Fifth Infantry, will report to his excellency, the governor as special aide de camp.
10. Uniform, field service—march.

DEATH OF M. L. CLARDY IS RESULT OF FALL

St. Louis, Mo., July 6.—The death of Martin L. Clardy, vice-president and general solicitor of the Missouri Pacific railroad and former congressman, which occurred last night, was caused by a fall against a radiator, it was learned today. Mr. Clardy, though 71 years old, was in comparatively good health. He was a native of Missouri and served as an officer in the Confederate army.

BAILEY INQUEST RESUMED TODAY

Assistant Prosecutor Produces Box of Cartridges Found In Carmen Home, Scene Of the Tragedy.

OFFICERS STILL INSIST WOMAN FIRED SHOT

In Spite of Carmen's Assertion That Man Fired Three Shots at Him Last Night.

Freeport, N. Y., July 6.—The inquest into the death of Mrs. Louise Bailey, wife of a New York manufacturer, who was shot and killed last Tuesday night in consultation with Dr. Edwin Carman, a prominent Freeport physician, in his office, was resumed today. Assistant District Attorney Weeks presented an unopened box of 38 calibre revolver cartridges which he said he found in the attic of the Carman home. Dr. Carman, said Weeks, told him that he did not know how the cartridges came to be there. A 38 calibre bullet killed Mrs. Bailey. Celia Clemen, a negroes employed by the Carmans as a maid, testified today that while at dinner Tuesday night Mrs. Carman complained of a headache and said she was going up stairs. The witness saw her leave the room and heard footsteps she believed were those of Mrs. Carman on the stairs.

She admitted having talking with George Levy, Mrs. Carman's attorney, the morning after the murder.

"Do you know what perjury means?" asked the district attorney.

The witness answered that she did. The attorney asked several times if she had not previously told him a different story. The witness did not remember.

Her memory was faulty concerning things Levy had talked about but she was sure Mrs. Carman had never spoken to her about the shooting. The witness admitted that she had signed a paper for Mr. Levy without reading it or without having it read to her.

Freeport, N. Y., July 6.—Despite assertions of Dr. Edwin Carman that several shots were fired at him last night by a man on a bicycle near Rockville center, District Attorney Smith and Sheriff Stephen Pettit, today declared they were firm in the belief that it was a woman who shot and killed Mrs. Louise Bailey in Dr. Carman's office last Tuesday night. Mr. Smith said he expected an arrest would be made soon.

Dr. Carman, in whose office Mrs. Louise Bailey was murdered last Tuesday evening, was shot at three times last night as he drove in his automobile through the town of Baldwin, near here. None of the bullets struck him. The doctor was on his way home from Rockville center, where he had been to attend a patient.

Dr. Carman told the police the story of the attack on him. He had been out making professional calls and passed through Rockville center on his way home. There he met Garland Gaden, an actor, and invited him to ride home with him.

"Gaden accepted my invitation," said Dr. Carman, "and got into the car. We stopped in a store and as we again got in the car, I noticed a man on a bicycle near the curb. We drove off without paying particular attention to the man.

"When about a mile and a half out of town I heard a report and thought one of the tires had exploded. My friend got out of one side of the machine and I got out the other. As soon as I put my foot on the ground, I heard another shot and when I looked around I saw the man I had seen when we came out of the store standing beside his bicycle with a revolver in his hand. Gaden shouted: 'My God, Carman, he's trying to kill you.'

"We both jumped into the car, there was another report and a bullet went singing by my head. Gaden and I leaned far over in our seats to be out of range of bullets and I opened the throttle as far as it would go."

Dr. Carman, on his arrival in Freeport, hurried to police headquarters and told his story. Sheriff Pettit quickly sped to the scene of the shooting in a high powered automobile, closely followed by a posse. At midnight an automobile full of detectives and policemen went to the scene and other detectives were rushed off to the nearby towns of Baldwin, Rockville center, and Lynbrook to hunt for the man.

BRYANS TAKE A HOME HERE

Secretary of State and Family Will Spend Summer Season In Asheville on Slopes of Sunset Mountain.

AS SUMMER RESIDENCE MAY BE PERMANENT

House Belonging to Grove Park Is Already Prepared For Occupancy—Mr. Bryan Delighted With It.

Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan has taken a summer home in Asheville for the present season, and it is probable that this city will become a permanent summer residence for the distinguished statesman and his family. The house taken for the present season is owned by the E. W. Grove Park company and is situated on the drive leading from Asheville to Grove Park inn, being on the east side of the drive about half way between the inn and the turn of the drive at the car tracks.

Mr. Bryan was a visitor in the city yesterday, a guest at Grove Park inn, having arrived Saturday night after filling several chautauqua engagements in the state during the day, and yesterday he inspected his summer residence. It has already been fitted up for his occupancy and he expressed himself as being delighted with the place and especially with the magnificent view which it commands.

Mr. Bryan will be a visitor here again this week, having a chautauqua engagement here Saturday night, and will spend the week-end at the inn. It is expected that his family will arrive in about two weeks to open their summer home and will remain here until late in the autumn. He will come down for week-end trips until he can take his summer vacation and then will spend his entire time here for a while. Just when he will secure this vacation he is not yet able to tell, owing to the uncertainty of the Mexican situation. Had it not been for this situation and the present session of congress, the secretary and his family would already have been here for the summer.

Asheville has always occupied a very warm spot in Mr. Bryan's heart and he has had visitors for the past two years of having a summer home here. These visitors were soon realized after Mrs. Bryan paid her first visit to this city and it has been known for some time that the secretary of state and his family would come here for the summer months, although announcement has been withheld until the present for various reasons.

HUFF COMMENDED BY SEC. DANIELS

The Punishment of Lieut-Commander, Ordered by Court Martial, Is Reduced.

Norfolk, Va., July 6.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels, in passing upon the verdict of the court-martial in the case of Lieutenant Commander Charles P. Huff, commends him for zeal in the performance of his duty as United States ordnance inspector at the Newport News ship yard, reduces his loss of numbers from five to three and rules that the publication of the court's findings shall be the only reprimand.

Commander Huff made an attack on J. Philip Kieselcker in a hotel at Newport News. Kieselcker is connected with the shipbuilding company. An attempt was made to connect the assault with Commander Huff's relations as ordnance inspector, but this was not sustained.

SEEKING TO PRESERVE POLAND'S LANGUAGE

Washington, July 6.—Seeking to preserve the language and literature of Poland from extermination under the rule of Germany and Russia, 500 Poles gathered here today for the second annual convention of the Polish national council of America. Thaddeus Scienczek, president of the council, and Stanislaus Wenckowski, chief of its publicity bureau, came from Poland to attend the convention.

WESTINGHOUSE CO. TO REPLACE STRIKERS

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 6.—Officers were opened here today by representatives of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company whose employees are on strike, to fill the 10,000 positions left open. The officers said they expected to break the strike this week. Officers of the state constabulary were still on duty today and scores of pickets watched every entrance to the factories.

POLICE SEEKING YOUNG MURPHY

Believe He Knows Real Story Of What Occurred in Tenement Wrecked by Dynamite Explosion.

IN GROUP OF FREE SPEECH ADVOCATES

Might Be Induced to Explain Why Bomb Making Material Was Found in The Berger Flat.

New York, July 6.—Michael Murphy, 19 years old, the only member of the group of free speech advocates, who escaped with his life from the fatal explosion on Saturday morning that wrecked the tenement at 1626 Lexington avenue, is being sought by every policeman and detective in New York today as the one person most likely to know the real story of what occurred in the little flat. Murphy disappeared after being in the hands of the police before they were aware of the victims of the explosion. He lived a nearby police station, was given clothes to replace his own which were torn to bits and then dropped out of sight. It is believed Murphy might be induced to explain why alarm clocks and other things used in the making of bombs were kept in the Berger apartments, Louise Berger, step-sister of Carl Hansen, one of the dead men who lived in the flat where the explosion occurred, remains firm in her story that she knew nothing about what happened prior to the explosion and denied that she knew explosives were kept in her rooms. Miss Berger, Alexander Kerkman and other leaders of the free speech movement, with which Carson, Hansen and Berger, the victims of the explosion, were identified, told the police they believed the men were killed by a bomb sent to Carson by an enemy. They declared the three men were martyrs to a cause and as such they proposed to honor them in death with a public funeral service in Union square.

John J. Eitor, an industrial worker of the World organizer, today declared that Carson had never been a member of the I. W. W., and that organization did not approve of his methods of verbal attacks on John D. Rockefeller, Jr., at Tarrytown.
