

HUERTA IS FLEEING FROM MEXICO CITY

Dictator Quits Capital Following His Resignation

GOVERNMENT LEFT TO PRES. CARBAJAL

Committee Goes to Try to Arrange For Constitutionalists' Peaceful Entry Into Capital—New Cabinet May Be Formed Today—Refuges to Return to the Interior to Resume Business.

Mexico City, July 16.—The long expected resignation of Victoriano Huerta, as president of Mexico, presented to Congress late yesterday, and his accession to the presidency of Francisco Carbajal has been received quietly by the populace, except for the demonstration in favor of President Carbajal, when he was leaving the chamber of deputies building...

Huerta remained in the capital some hours after his resignation but is now in flight, probably to Puerto Mexico, to join his family and friends who left for that port a day earlier.

General Aurelio Blanquet, minister of war, and a strong partisan, went with Huerta when he left the city last night, as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carbajal. The latter replied he could do all in his power for the country's benefit.

The resignation which went to Congress late yesterday was accepted by a vote of 121 to 17, after a brief discussion. The message conveying his resignation also contained bitter reference to the United States government...

A feature of the discussion in the chamber while the resignation of Huerta was pending, was the speech by Deputy Muscuqui Planco. He made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics.

It was reported that the constitutionalist force occupying Acapulco and those operating in the vicinity are short of ammunition.

COLONEL BOYDEN GIVEN SURPRISE

Nomination was Sent to Senate Yesterday as Postmaster At Salisbury.

Gazette-News Bureau, Wyatt Building, Washington, July 16.

The president sent to the senate yesterday the nomination of Col. A. H. Boyden to be postmaster of Salisbury, succeeding James H. Ramsey, who has resigned to go into business for himself.

No word of Ramsey's resignation was given out for publication here until yesterday and few, if any, outside of the postoffice department, Senator Overman and the president, knew of Mr. Ramsey's resignation until Colonel Boyden's nomination was sent to the senate.

It is believed here that the appointment of Colonel Boyden is the most popular one ever made by Senator Overman.

It is understood that Colonel Boyden did not ask for the Salisbury postmastership. Indeed it is doubted if he has yet told Senator Overman that he would accept the place.

Representative Page appeared before the judiciary committee yesterday to urge that session of the Federal court be held at Laurinburg. It is believed that his request will be granted.

Salisbury Surprised. Special to The Gazette-News.

Salisbury, July 16.—The resignation of Postmaster James H. Ramsey at this time was a complete surprise here. The appointment of Colonel A. H. Boyden as his successor was no surprise at all.

Reports from the interior recently have indicated a gradual resumption of work in the various mining companies and officials of several companies here have received word that their plants are nearly in full operation.

White House Officials Say He Will Be Confirmed—Fight Continues.

Washington, July 16.—There was no let-up today in President Wilson's fight on behalf of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, for appointment to the federal reserve board.

WILL CONTINUE WAITING POLICY

If Carranza and Carbajal Can Agree, President Wilson Will Recognize the Resultant Government.

HOPEFUL OF PARLEYS BETWEEN FACTIONS

Convinced that Rebels Will Be Temperate on Entering Mexico City—London Press Opinions.

Washington, July 16.—The United States today instructed John R. Silliman, American vice-consul at Saltillo, to inform General Carranza that if he arrives at a peaceful agreement with the Carbajal government for the transfer of power at Mexico City, recognition will be accorded the resultant administration.

This determination was reached by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan after the views of the South American mediators was laid before them.

The expectation of the administration is that arrangements will be made for peaceful entry of the constitutionalists into Mexico City in case Carranza and his generals finally refuse to accept President Carbajal, pending the holding of an election.

The president is said to have no objection to Carbajal, except on the score that he derived his power from Huerta and is willing to accept him if the constitutionalists will agree, as provisional president, until elections are held.

White House officials were, convinced today that the constitutionalists would be temperate in their acts when they enter Mexico City.

Washington, July 15.—Huerta's meteoric career in Mexican politics, at an end, President Wilson and his advisors today were concerned with the outcome of the mission of three federal envoys who started from Mexico City for Calaya to arrange with the constitutionalists for peaceful entry into the capital.

While President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were silent after the announcement of Huerta's resignation, they were noticeably optimistic over prospects for early adjustment of the problem that has vexed two administrations and threatened to plunge the United States into a foreign war.

Carbajal, it was believed, hoped only for the declaration of general amnesty for the forces that have opposed the northern armies and certain property guarantees.

Other speakers on the program were H. F. Martin, Atlanta, Ga., on "building for profit"; Simon Straus, New York, on "office building bonds"; and Wilburton S. Jones, New York, on "workmen's compensation."

Washington, July 16.—The North Carolina council of state has addressed a letter to President Wilson urging the appointment of Chief Justice Walter Clark of this state to succeed Justice Horace H. Lurton.

Charges Made by R. R. Reynolds and His Manager Answered From Three Different Sources.

RESENTMENT SHOWN BY ALL IMPLICATED

Miss Cameron, Her Attorneys And Hotel Clerk Denounce The Charges of Mr. Reynolds.

Following the open charge made in The Gazette-News Monday afternoon by Robert R. Reynolds, that the suit instituted against the former by Miss L. K. Cameron of the Suyaeta Park hotel, Waynesville, for a delegation hotel bill amounting to over $500, was instigated by Congressman James M. Gudger, jr., and was a "hold-up game" and a "piece of dirty politics," flat denials are being made on every hand that such is the case.

Statements are now made public by the law firm of Hannah, Leatherwood & Davis, the attorneys who filed the suit for Miss Cameron in Waynesville; Miss Cameron, proprietress of Suyaeta Park hotel; and William Schaufele, jr., chief clerk at the hotel, all of whom were implicated directly or indirectly in the charges made by Mr. Reynolds and his manager.

In the statement issued to The Gazette-News by the law firm bringing the suit, the attorneys resent the "insinuation" made in the Reynolds interview to the effect that they were parties to a "hold-up game" to secure something for nothing.
