Gazette-News Bureau Wyatt Building, Washington, July 20. Senator Overman sent to the White House Saturday the letters and telegrams from North Carolinians indorsing Judge Walter Clark for the Supreme court bench to succeed the inte Justice Lurion. The junior senator will call at the White House probably Thursday when he will per-sonally deliver the petitions to the president. Senator Overman, however, has not stated whether he will indorse Judge Clark. A man close to the president said today that the president will not appoint a man over 65 years of ago.

Considerable surprise was ex-pressed here that Walter Clark, jr., should come to Washington in the in-terest of his father. It is considered extremely unfortunate that the young man made the visit.

Paid In Full. "I was so disappointed that I was the other day when you called,

Miss Percival." "So was J. I felt sure I'd find you, conne as I turned the corner I saw you go in."-Boston Transcript.
