CRUISER SINKS GERMAN LINER

Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, Palatial Steamer of the Lloyd Line, Sunk by High Flier.

HAD BEEN CONVERTED INTO ARMORED CRUISER

Reported to Have Been Seeking Merchantmen and Interfering With Traffic of Allied Nations.

London, August 28.—The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse has been sunk off the west coast of Africa by the British cruiser High Flier.

The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse was one of the palatial steamers of the North German Lloyd line. At the outbreak of the war she was converted into an armed cruiser and since has been reported active in searching for British merchantmen.

Winston Spencer Churchill first lord of the admiralty announced the sinking of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, in the house of lords yesterday. He said: "The admiralty has just received intelligence that the German armed cruiser Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse of 14,000 tons and armed with ten four-inch guns has been sunk by the H. M. S. High Flier off the west coast of Africa."

"This is the vessel which has been interfering with traffic between this country and the cape and is one of the very few German armed cruisers which succeeded in getting to sea. The survivors were landed before the vessel sank. The High Flier had one killed and five wounded."

FOUR LIVES LOST WHEN VESSEL STRIKES MINE

London, August 28.—Thirteen survivors of a Danish trawler which was sunk by a floating mine in the North sea, have been landed at Shields. Four of the crew lost their lives.

The fisherman was on her way to Iceland when at 10 o'clock Wednesday night she on board felt a terrific explosion. Flames shot up around the bows of the vessel and she began to sink rapidly. A small boat was launched but the vessel foundered before four men in the fore-cabin could be rescued.

The chief officer, who was on watch, said the concussion hurled him against the wheelhouse. He was successful in getting two injured men out of the fore-cabin but four others must have been killed in their sleep.

BIG STATE PARK ON MT. MITCHELL

Bill Now Being Drawn in the Rough to Be Presented Later.

That the next legislature of North Carolina will be called upon to pass the bill necessary to acquire land for the purpose of conserving Mt. Mitchell for a state park purpose, along the lines of the preserves of the United States government, now seems to be an assured fact.

It was stated yesterday from sources that should be in a position to know, that Governor Locke Craig and other state officials are greatly interested in the park movement and that the chief executive of North Carolina has already expressed a willingness to see that the bill providing for the Mt. Mitchell state park, is properly introduced and pushed before the law-makers at their next meeting.

Already, experts are at work very quietly securing the necessary data to be incorporated in the bill.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Teaspoonful of Salts If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative passages clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

Next Sunday is hospital day. Please provide for the poor of Asheville and Buncombe county.

ADDITIONAL SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

Beautiful Home Wedding. Miss Dorothy Julia Scharlie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scharlie was united in marriage Wednesday afternoon with Edmund Sumner Whitten of New York at the home of her parents on Orange street. Rev. Dr. R. F. Campbell officiated and the ceremony was witnessed by relatives and a few close friends only. The living room where the ceremony took place was beautifully decorated in white and green, cut flowers mingling with festoons of clematis in an artistic effect. The bride who entered on the arm of her mother who also gave her in marriage was met in the doorway of the room by the groom and the two standing there under a shower of white clematis formed an exquisite tableau effect. The bride was gown in blue cloth and carried bride's roses. No attendants took part in the wedding but the immediate family of the bride were grouped near her during the ceremony. Just previous to the entry of Miss Scharlie, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Stikeleather and Miss Hattie Scott sang "Faithful and True." The wedding march was played by Miss Linda Scharlie. Following the ceremony there was a wedding reception for those present. Refreshments consisting of salads, iced bon-bons and wedding cake were served. The dining room was attractively decorated in pink and green and the bride's table was especially prettily arranged with a center piece of roses, white clematis and fern and lighted with softly shaded pink candles. The young ladies serving refreshments wore pleasing costumes of pink and green. These young ladies were: Miss Shuford, Miss Glennie Tomlinson, Miss Anna Rankin, Miss Nancy Carter and Miss Mary Shuford. Miss Ethel Ray served punch from an alcove. Mrs. W. L. The Little Pig Won a Prize.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Pig Who Wanted To Be Clean

THE children hadn't been told an animal story for some time, and daddy thought it was high time to tell one.

"How about a story of some little baby pigs?" asked daddy.

"We would love to hear a story about some pigs," said Evelyn.

"We haven't heard a story about pigs for ever and ever so long."

"Now, that is true," said Jack. "Do tell us one tonight."

"The pig family that I am going to tell you about were having the best time you can possibly imagine, as they loved having day after day of warmth and sunshine. So they were perfectly happy. They would lie for hours in the most comfortable place they could find and never budge until they felt hungry."

"But one little pig became quite intimate with a goat that resided in a field near by.

"The goat's family were not so lazy as the little pig's family were, and at first the goat's family didn't want their favorite child to have anything to do with the pig, as they thought it would encourage him to laziness, and that they never wanted him to be.

"But after awhile they saw that this little pig really did not like being so lazy as his family, and then they didn't object to the friendship.

"As for the pig's family, they didn't care what happened so long as they were not disturbed themselves.

"Among other things that the little pig liked about his friends was that without being overenthusiastic they were not quite so fond of dirt as his family. Of course, you see, how different he was from his family, as he didn't like mud nearly so much as they did, nor did he think lying in it was at all an idea of bliss.

"So he became just fussy enough about his personal appearance to still look exactly like a pig. But he saw that his feet were moderately clean and that his face was washed ever so often.

"Sometimes he would tell his family of the joys of being clean and explain to them that they would find they would be much cooler if they took nice cool baths every afternoon. But as he saw he only annoyed them he soon stopped.

"In a week there was to be a county fair, and all the animals were going to be exhibited by their owners. There was a great deal of talking among the animals as to who would win the prizes, and once more the pig family didn't take the slightest interest in the fair.

"But they did feel very much ashamed when the clean little pig was the only one of all their family to win a prize."

THE PRESENT.

We should be blessed if we lived in the present always and took advantage of every accident that befell us, like the grass which confesses the influence of the slightest dew that falls on it, and did not spend our time in stoning for neglect of past opportunities, which we call doing our duty.—Thoreau.

HUMAN WISDOM.

Human wisdom makes as full use of her talent when she exercises it in rescinding from the number and sweetness of those pleasures that are naturally our due as she employs it favorably and well in artificially disguising and tricking out the life of life to alleviate the sense of them.—Montaigne.
