French Opinion

Paris, Sept. 16.—Although without official advices, military critics here were convinced at another giant battle has been raging since Sunday on the line from Crayonne to the west of l'Aigle in Campagne.

WILLIAM N. HACKNEY

Funeral of a Pioneer Citizen Will Be Held on Thursday Morning.
Funeral services over the remains of William N. Hackney, aged 82, who died yesterday at the Biltmore hospital, following an illness of two weeks duration, will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the residence.

As to Battle

Soissons, France, Tuesday, Sept. 15.—(By way of Paris, Sept. 16.)—The German right wing in its retreat left Soissons yesterday (Monday) simultaneously with leaving the southern bank of the river Soisson. The retreat northward continued Monday night. The French, in their pursuit, crossed the river. The French artillery is today heavily in action on the other bank of the Aisne.

Strengthen Brussels

London, Sept. 16.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says that the paper learns from Ghent that the Germans are strengthening Brussels. They have placed guns on the boulevards and front of the North and South stations. At Etterbeek, near Brussels, it is reported that fighting took place between Prussian and Bavarian soldiers, thirty of which were killed.

Insurance in Various Forms way is one of the most active members of the organization, spoke in strong opposition to the question of requiring the various insurance companies to make their investments in states from which they derive their revenue.

Wood's Seeds

Kentucky Blue Grass
is one of the richest and most nutritious of pasturage grasses, and it should be largely used in all pasturage mixtures, except on very light or sandy soils.

Five states are now represented with an attendance of almost 200. The set program of the convention for tomorrow follows:
Thursday Morning, 10 O'clock.
"Workmen's Compensation Results in Massachusetts, and Suggestions Drawn Therefrom," F. H. Hardison, Massachusetts.
Symposium of Experience in other States, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Wisconsin.
Discussion of papers.
Thursday Evening, 8:30 O'clock.
"Sphere of Activity of an Insurance Department," Robert J. Merrill of New Hampshire; Charles Johnson of Pennsylvania and John S. Darst, of West Virginia.
Discussion of papers.
Executive session.
The final meeting of the commissioners will be held on Friday, May 15, at 10 o'clock. The majority of the visitors, however, will remain here for the week longer while others will stay for a week or more making side trips to the many points of interest in the Land of the Sky.
