OLUME XIX. NO. 189

ASHEVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 18, 1914.

BATTLE GOES ON WITH GERMANS STILL HOLDING STRONG POSITIONS

ed in Westminster When Announcement Is Made -King Cheered.

IRISH HOME RULE BILL SIGNED BY KING GEORGE

Welsh Disestablishment Measure-Address of King Read.

n, Sept. 18,-Enthusiasm un-

the home rule bill in the house nationalists and liboke into loud hurrahs which epeated again and again.

to King." Without waiting for don he started the first verse, and then broke down with chamber, Will

Crooks cried, "God save Ireland," Parliament will sit again October in a speech from the throne on the prorogation, King George Sale.

"The lords and gentlemen:
"I address you in circumstances that call for action rather than speech. After every endeavor had been made by my government to present and by my government to present and by my government to present of the passing of the Ourcq was compelled in the assertion of the protection of the Russian composer; only slightly defended by the law of Europe and the vital interests

The communication follows:

The prorogation, King George Sale.

Whom he said are now doing military duty. Fritz Kreisler, the Austrian violing the from tindicate that the allies from the project of putting before public opin duty. Fritz Kreisler, the Austrian violing the first to join the from tindicate that the allies shave more somewhat on the United States that the allies shave more made the Germans give the passing of the Ourcq was concerned the passing of the Ourcq was of families and first out of families wounded behind.

The Vesle river also was only slightly defended by the latter leaving their wounded behind.

The vester western wing and are responsing in from the project of putting before public opin from the likes this morning on "Combination Policies" made the surfering on "States that the allies shave more made the first to join the front indicate that the allies shave made the Germans give ground, the latter leaving their wounded behind.

The army of Crown Prince and the vistal announcement this continued on page 11)

The Vesle river also was only the french wards and visitation of the public stream of the passing of the Ourcq was an official announcement this continued on page 11)

The vesler was an earlier on the province of families wounded behind.

The army of Crown Prince and the visitation of the public stream of the passing a vigorous German of the public was a ferond and in the United States that the allies front indicate that the allies shave made the Germans give ground, the latter leaving the front indicate that the allies front indicate that the allies front in law of Europe and the vital interests of my empire, to go to war. My navy and my army have with unceasing visitance and skill, sustained in asso ciation with our gallant and faithful allies, a just and righteous cause. From every part of the ampire there has been a spontaneous and enthuslastic rally to our common flag.

"Gentlemen of the house of commons, I thank you for the liberality with which you have met a great emergency. My lords and gentlemen we are fighting for a worthy purarms until that purpose has been ful-by achieved. I rely with confidence upon the loyal and united efforts of all my subjects and I pray that Almighty God may give us His bless-

GERMAN STATEMENT.

Berlin, Sept. 18 .- (Via wireless by way of Sayville.)—The R following official statement has R been given out by the headquar- R Rir ters of the German general E were Unusual Enthusiasm Manifest- Ordered to Halifax to Transport Canadians Says Report -Mrs. Vanderbilt and

> SIR GEO. M. BARRIE GIVES VIEWS ON WAR

Daughter Aboard.

Royal Assent Also Given to the Thinks It Will Last Long and One Side Must Be Whipped-Famous Musicians Enlist.

> While ble speed in unloading, so as to be transport for Canadian troops. The officers would not verify this report by Viscount Haldane, but offered no explanation for rush-chancellor, and in the ing the big liner to her pier at 1 clock in the morning.

> > George M. Barrie, E. W. Mason, the was made English novelist; Mrs. George W. In the pause of the thunder of There is a lull in Galicia and that Great Britain the war is militarism. long time and the cause which brought it about is whether soldiers crooks, the labor leader, ask-t was in order to sing "God the most striking feature of the war Britain are collisting. One hears the Roughly creating t negotiations. No peace would be last- arking the assumption of the Passenger Train No. 2 On Alabama Great Southern R'y. Strikes Gondola.

staff:

"The battle between the Olse train number two of the Alabama and the Meuse rivers still is conGreat Southern ratiroad was derailed

On the other hand, it is said

London, Sept 18.—Presumably the Creat Southern railroad was devailed in the Germans resume the of actions that there are sure indications that the court in the court i

CROWN PRINCE HAS TURNED ON ENEMY

Berlin Says Germans Are Driving Allies Back--Paris Claims Progress For The French and British.

Germans Yield Slightly?

out officially yesterday, it evi-

GERMANS INVADE RUSSIAN POLAND

Austrians Probably Are Reforming man right wing failed and a sortie from Verdun on the right At Cracow--Reports of Servian Defeat and Victories.

London, Sept. 18.—As far as east Prussian victory was not the British public knows the duplicated as the Russian gengreat artillery battle along the eral retired in good order, saving his artillery. Among the 1,502 passengers were Aisne continues to be a draw, ing his artillery.

been given to the home rule been given to the home rule and Marshall Field, third.

Welsh dis-establishment as Vienna reports that the line of batle are being cut off the retreated to the line of batle are being cut off the line of batle are being cut off the line of batle are being cut off the line of batle are being cut of the line of batle are being cut of the line of batle are being cut off the line of batle are being cut of the lin the huge guns, the infantry and where the victorious Russian on the lay down her arms until that the objective has been reached. In speaking of the war, Sir George the line of batle, are being cut off the retreat of Austrans vians were compelled to evacute M. Barrle said the ultimate cause of flung into the afray without toward Cracow. "In my opinion the war will last a appreciable effect on the out-

> Only the most meagre reports have been received dur-

Roughly speaking the line of progress is that the Germans Roughly speaking the line of the war. This is somewhat less than fair. The spectators in the gallery as spectators the members themselves, and the members the members the members themselves, and the as the members heard in the palace he is merely the product of a sys- which have already been crossed. The crossing the Marne,

Crooks cried. "God save England."

John Redmond, the Irish nationalist ing, nor would it produce the results aggressive by the allies, was loader cried. "God save England."

we all hope for unless one side is aggressive by the allies, was loader cried. thoroughly beaten."

The English press statement of purely a rear guard action in which General von Kluck clev-whom he said are now doing military duty. Fritz Kreisler, the Austrian vio-ers, the Ailette and the Oise, remain to be crossed. The country between th Aisne and the Ailette is ideal for definition to the Country between the Ailette is ideal for definition to the Country between the Ailette is ideal for definition to the Country between the Ailette is ideal for definition to the Country between the Ailette is ideal for definition to the Country between the Ailette is ideal for definition to the country between the Ailette is ideal for definition to the country between the Ailette is ideal for definition to the country between the Ailette is ideal for definition to the difficulty taken by the Germans against this moment. Madam Vandervelde is those who can help should do so at this moment. Madam Vandervelde is convinced that her cry for help will be heard, that it is not in vain that the people when their interests are the Inn.

While assuring his hearers that he convinced that her cry for help will be heard, that it is not in vain that the people when their interests are the Inn.

While assuring his hearers that he convinced that her cry for help will be heard, that it is not in vain that the people when their interests are the Inn.

While assuring his hearers that he didn't intend to tell them anything about their own husiness be pointed to the heard, that it is not in vain that the people when their interests are the Inn.

While assuring his hearers that he didn't intend to tell them anything this moment. Madam Vandervelde is the English army falled. From this moment that the moment that the moment that the people with the people with the convinced that her cry for help will be convinced that her cry for help will be heard, that it is not in vain that the moment th remain to be crossed. The withstand the attack on their new line, the Germans are no their new line, the Germans are no their new line, the Germans are no their new line. Birmingham. Sept. 18.—Blood-hounds have been sent to Livingston, Ala., where six persons were killed and a seventh is missing as a result man army holds the Aisne heights for a few days defenday. The officials believe the switch sive works can be constructed along the other two rivers was tampered with and an effort was tampered with an effort was tampered wit Birmingham, Sept. 18.—Six persons which may delay the allies' adkilled and fifteen seriously in- vance on German territory for

Berlin today says the battle berivers continues with indications ! tempt to cut through the Ger-

The German army is said to be advancing slowly but surely. It was declared officially in Paris at 3 o'clock this afternoon be

Vienna reports that the Ser-

Paris, Sept. 18.—The great dently refers to the situation on vince of Bosnia. Tuesday since it accords with Albert's forces have been re- on our right is the inforced, though from where is occupy in position organized in a defensive basis on their from revolver shots were fired, one bullet . London, Sept. 18.—Austria is hitting the count in the shoulder. . desirous of peace according to a State Seeks Aid for People of Her Stricken Country.

DESIRES TO RELATE WHAT SHE HAS SEEN

Says Thousands Are Destitute Forty-Fifth Annual Meeting and Have Become Wanderers and Outcasts-Implores Help.

Wife of Belgian Minister of Informal Talk by Secretary of State Before State Commissioners at Grove Park Inn Today.

RECEPTION GIVEN OF

Will Come to a Close This Afternoon-Good Program for Today.

New York, Sept. 18 .- Madam Vanlervelde, who came from Belgium on the steamer Cretic to seek aid for the that the allies had progressed people of her stricken country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued this statement as soon as the Cretic country, issued the country country is such as the Cretic country is such as the Cret "Madam Vandervelde, wife of the

Belgium minister of state, has come to the United States to appeal to the men and women-whose country has been ravished through no fault of their own, and thousands of whom are now destitute. lost all they had, land, houses, farms, money and the very tools with which they got their daily bread. Thousands become wanderers and outcasts at the saided in making the

the beginning of their advance some wanderers and outcasts at the successes continue.

Servian reports are that their successes continue.

Germans, successful in driving seen herself—the stream of refugees seen herself—the stream of refugees seen herself—the stream of refugees seen herself. the American people that she has ceived with enthusiasm by the to wish her good luck and to tell her vention.

inhabitants of the Austrian pro- that the king approves of her inten-Belgian refugees to the

'Her majesty, the queen, wishes

ATTY, GEN. BICKETT

Attorney-General T. W. Bickett will open the democratic campaign in western North Carolina tomorrow, when a rally will be held at Columbus, Polk county. R. R. William and Cap- financiers of the country were opposed tain R. R. Reynolds will also speak at to making deposits absolutely secure Columbus tomorrow, at which time a He said the people became tired of county ticket for Polk county will be

Arrangements are being made to indications are that the crowds will be

Attorney-General Bickett is recognived as one of the best speakers in the state and readily accepted an invitation to speak at the Polk county desirous of peace according to a way of giving absolute security to Rome dispatch to the Times insured at the least possible cost.

AUSTRIA WANTS PEACE?

ENTHUSIASTIC NATURE

President-J. S. Darst of West Vice President-Burton Man

Winship of Michigan.

select the next place of meeting thanking Grove Park Inn, the of trade and others who battle of Aisne continues. All the Russian invaders from east that is known officially of its their way into Russian Poland.

Prussia, are said to be pushing their distribution of the State William Jennings Bryan, delivering the burning of Louprogress is that the Germans are yielding slightly at some vain. She wishes to tell them also day of the forty-fifth annual conven-tion of the National Association of In-"A few hours before she left Ant- surance Commissioners in session this This was the last day of the con-

Secretary of State Bryan was introhelp for the duced by President James R. Young, e people of In his brief talk to the Insurance commissioners he made no reference "She brings with her the following to the European war situation, as was expected.

Besides the address of Secretary to tell you that she approves of your Bryan the convention heard talks this

The veste fiver also was only slightly defended by the Germans, but their resistance at the Aisne was and still is of the most stubborn character.

If the allies hold the shore across the Aisne which they gained despite the heavy artillery fire from concealed German batteries on the heights above the first property of the first that the people of this country were SPEAKS AT COLUMBUS overwhelmingly in favor of private enterprise instead of governmental control when the end might be atinited by private individuals. connection he explained that the government had been compelled to start the postal mavings banks because the putting their money under an old car-pet and that lots of the savings of the country were being sent to Europ accommodate a large gathering of til the government established the postal savings banks

Secretary Is Humorous, Amid laughter and applause Mr. Bryan declared that he felt ashamed of himself when he looked back and realized that he got married without any life insurance and asked a young lady to rich her future with him when he had almost nothing in the way of

The secretary of state put himself on record in favor of all kinds of inrance and declared the man would London, Sept. 18 .- Austria is & be a public benefactor who devised a way of giving absolute security to the

Mr. Bryan, too, pointed out mat which represents internal conditions, particularly in Bosnia.
Crotia and Dalmatla as disastrous.

The second second out mat
when there was not security, 'saurance became gambling and that all laws enacted were aimed at conpelling everybody who took another's
continued on page 11)