FINE POULTRY IS TO BE DISPLAYED

Local Fanciers Hold Meeting and Decide Upon Their First Plans.

At the meeting held Tuesday night by members of the Asheville Poultry & Pet Stock association at the City Hall it was decided that the association would co-operate with the Western North Carolina Fair association at the fair to be held here in October and give an exhibition of poultry. The meeting was largely attended and much enthusiasm was manifested by those present over the prospects of being able to give an exhibition this fall.

LARGE NUMBER OF MEN ENTOMBED BY EXPLOSION

western North Carolina in the poultry exhibition to be given in connection with the fair and it is believed that these behind the movement that the largest exhibition of poultry ever given at the fair will be the result of the co-operation between the officials of the two associations.

Knoxville, Sept. 17.—The federal mine rescue station was called on here today to send relief to Rockport, Ky., where it was reported a mine explosion had occurred. It was stated that a large number of men are entombed. Details are lacking. Mine rescue helmets and other equipment was forwarded.

CARL RAY'S PUZZLES TOO MUCH FOR TARS

Twins Great Twirler Lets Norfolk Down With Only Three Hits.

Special to The Gazette-News. Winston-Salem, Sept. 18.—In a drizzling rain the Twins won the last local game from the Virginia Champs by a 9 to 2 score Wednesday afternoon. Carl Ray went back in the box with a one day's rest and was even more effective than in Monday's game. He allowed three hits, one of which was the rankest kind of a scratch, and struck out eight batters. He was a trifle wild, walking six men, but he always tightened in the pinches and was never in danger of losing.

APOLOGIES MADE BY SPRING-RICE

JAIL "CHICKENS" LEAVE WITHOUT A FAREWELL

Two Negro "Birds" Take Their Leave From the County Jail. Two of County Jailor Dick Jordan's "chickens" flew the coop Wednesday afternoon, for when Mr. Jordan counted the jail-birds that night, prior to locking up the house he found that Mary Baker and Louise Redman, colored, longtime occupants of quarters in the county jail were not among the flock. It was found upon investigation that Louise and Mary, who had been made trustees, decided that they wanted to take a stroll and no sooner thought than acted for they climbed over the high iron railings that surrounded the jail yard and walked off, without leaving any notice as their future whereabouts.

DOWNTOWN ACCIDENT CAUSES EXCITEMENT

A team of mules belonging to the Asheville Dray, Fuel & Construction company at 2:15 o'clock yesterday, just above the postoffice at the intersection of Patton avenue and Haywood street, collided with a Riverside park street car. The team of mules was standing still when the car approached making the trip to the park, but just as the car came even one of the mules lunged into it and was thrown to the pavement and the driver of the team was thrown to the sidewalk, but escaped with very slight bruises. The tongue of the wagon was snapped off and one of the front wheels torn off.
