THE N. C.-TENN. BOUNDARY CASE IN SUPREME COURT

Attorney General Bickett Argues Basing State's Claim on Marked Trees.

Washington, Sept. 22.—A trail of blazed hemlocks, hickories and oaks, declared to have been made nearly a century ago has been cited by the state of North Carolina, to prove to the Supreme court its claim to a large section of disputed timber land along the Tennessee line. The state's claim was set forth in a brief talk by Attorney General Thomas W. Bickett. The case will be argued orally in November.

When North Carolina ceded the territory now embraced in Tennessee in 1790 to the government, a commission was authorized to mark the boundary line. This it did in 1821, but a disagreement recently arose as to the line in the so-called "Slick Rock basin" and the "Tellico basin."

Attorney General Bickett, in his brief asserts that S. S. Gannett of the United States geological survey, and A. D. Burns of Knoxville, Tenn., recently traced the old boundary laid by the surveyor with "three hacks over a blaze on each fore and aft tree and three hacks over three hacks on each side line tree."

The line thus established, he said, establishes North Carolina's claim to the disputed timberland.

APPETITE FOLLOWS GOOD DIGESTION

Nearly everyone indulges their appetite and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.

The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gentle yet positive in action, and quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and in thousands of homes it is the indispensable family remedy. For a free trial bottle write Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

CLERK ERWIN TOLD TO HOLD CLEOPHUS ALLEN

Postoffice Officials Ask for the Detention of Alleged Insane Prisoner.

Clerk of Superior court, Marcus Erwin, has just lately received a letter from Postoffice Inspector B. B. Webb, from Asheville, ordering him to hold Cleophus Allen, now in the Buncombe county jail on charges of insanity, for the United States officers, as a warrant had been sworn out against Allen, charging him, he says, with violating section 481 of the postal laws and regulations, and section 212 of the penal code of the United States Postoffice department. Inspector Allen stated in the letter that he would arrive here the latter part of this week at which time the government officials would take Allen in charge.

Allen was taken in custody here several days ago by the county authorities on charges of insanity. The information being furnished by Inspector Webb, Postmaster Owen Gudger and Deputy United States Marshal J. Y. Jordan. It is understood that an application to the state asylum for the insane has been turned down, as they held that Allen was incurable.

At the sheriff's office today it was stated that Allen had refused to accept any mail addressed to him that the jail attendants would take down to the jail, saying that he would not take it as it came through the post-office and he would not have it as the "official gang" was after him.

INDICATIONS ALL IS NOT WELL IN MEXICO

Some Observers Think Villa Will Attempt to Act Independently.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Although Monday's official reports indicated that the friction between Generals Obregon and Villa were of an insignificant character there was a tone in the official advices from Mexico that reached here today, which indicated that all was not well.

Some observers believe that Villa may attempt to quell the disturbances independent of Carranza. As yet, however, nothing of a definite nature has reached officials on which facts can be based. The outcome of the national convention on October 1, is awaited anxiously. It is realized both here and in Mexico that the Carranza and Villa factions will contest for the political control of the nation.

It is doubtful whether the administrative quest, which must be adjusted at Vera Cruz can be arranged after the troops are recalled as Carranza will have temporarily retired as first chief in favor of Fernando Iglesias Calderon who will be designated provisional president.

The state department has asked Carranza to guarantee the safety of priests and nuns gathered at Vera Cruz seeking a means to leave the country. Consul Canada reported that about 220 are destitute.

COMPANY OPENS NEW YORK OFFICE

Accounting Machine Concern to do Business in Metropolitan—Local Capital.

Announcement is made from the offices of the Mays Accounting Machine company in the American National bank building that the New York offices of the company will be opened in the Singer building about October 1. C. M. Stricker, secretary-treasurer of the company will leave here in a few days and take charge of the New York office.

The Mays Accounting Machine corporation is now being organized as a subsidiary of the company with a capitalization of $2,500,000, principally controlled by Asheville men. The present company has had offices here for about one year and has been developing the calculating machine of which a working model has been completed.

Dr. R. P. Moale is president of the company; Baxter Shemwell, first vice president; M. V. Moore, second vice president; F. M. Weaver, third vice president; and C. M. Stricker secretary and treasurer. The board of directors is composed of all the officers and J. M. Chiles, J. L. Smathers, Joseph Longinotti, Gaston Meares, James F. Mays, F. W. Thomas, F. Stickleather.

The machine differs radically from any other machine now in use, being built on the rocker shaft principle. It has no lever work while in operation and all that is necessary is to press the keys on it. It adds, multiplies, subtracts, and divides with the greatest simplicity and the method of handling it is very simple.

The keyboard is very similar to any adding machine but has three sets of dials at the foot of which shows the totals when the machine is manipulated. It is expected that the model will be used as a basis for making dozens of other models in different sizes to be used in any kind of business. There is an attachment on the machine which can be put to any make of typewriter and used.

SUBMARINES SINK BRITISH WARSHIPS IN THE NORTH SEA

The Aboukir, Hogue and Cressy Are Torpedoed—Many of the Crews Were Saved—Trawlers Assisted in the Work of Rescue.

London, Sept. 23.—The British warships Cressy, Aboukir and Hogue have been sunk in the North sea by submarines, according to announcement by the official bureau yesterday.

The announcement says a great many of the crew were saved by H. M. S. Loastat and by a flotilla of torpedo boat destroyers. Trawlers and their boats also aided in the work of rescue.

The Aboukir was torpedoed first. The Hogue and the Cressy drew in close to her and were standing by to save her crew when they also were torpedoed.

The Cressy, Captain Robert W. Johnson; the Aboukir, Captain John E. Drummond, and the Hogue, Captain Wilmot S. Nicholson, were sister ships. They were armored cruisers of a comparatively obsolete type and were built 14 years ago. The lists of the casualties among their crews will be published as soon as they are known.

The loss of life probably will be heavy.

Neither the time nor the scene of the disaster is given in the official report.

The Aboukir, Hogue and Cressy had a displacement of 4400 tons. Each was 440 feet long and 50 feet wide, drew 20 feet of water and had a complement of 770 men including officers.

Reliability

is what a doctor must be assured of in recommending a food or drink. He must know that it is honest, efficient, pure and wholesome.

In cases of nervousness, heart flutter, headache, biliousness, indigestion, etc., where the patient is a coffee drinker, most doctors order: "Quit coffee and use Postum."

Doctors recommend Postum because they know that it is a pure food-drink—absolutely free from the drug, caffeine, which makes coffee injurious to most users.

It is significant that thousands of physicians not only recommend, but themselves use —its worth having been fully demonstrated, not only in the home, but in Sanitariums, Hospitals and Colleges.

POSTUM

Postum now comes in two forms:

Regular Postum—must be well boiled—15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—soluble—no boiling—made in the cup with hot water, instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are delicious—cost per cup about the same—sold by Grocers everywhere.

"There's a Reason" for Postum
