NIGHT SCHOOL BEGINS WINTER TERM SOON

Excellent Corps of Teachers Has Been Secured by the Y. M. C. A.

Plans are maturing for the formal opening of the night school of the local Y. M. C. A., on October 5. Indications point towards a large enrollment this fall and winter and a very successful term for the school. The faculty of the night school will be composed of the following:

- Common grades—S. J. Morgan of the West Asheville public schools. Bookkeeping—D. V. Burke of the National Biscuit company. Shorthand and typewriting—C. O. Wells of the Asheville High school. Telegraphy—A. K. Akers, manager of the local Postal Telegraph company offices. English for foreigners—Robert Hoffman, an expert. German—Robert Goldstein, a local attorney at law. Practically all subjects are to be taught at the night school. Full information with reference to the same may be obtained from any of the officers of the local Y. M. C. A., or by telephoning to No. 789.

WEST ASHEVILLE BOARD HOLDS ITS MEETING

Water and Sewer System Is Now Nearing Completion—Routine Business.

Announcement was made at the regular weekly meeting of the board of aldermen of West Asheville, held last night, that the water and sewer systems now being constructed there will be practically completed by the last of next week.
