NEGROES TO BE TRIED ON CHARGES OF ARSON

Nine Defendants Are to Have Hearing in Superior Court Soon.

Monday, September 28, has been set as the date for the trial of the cases against the nine colored men of this city who were arrested several weeks ago on charges of having burned Hopkins chapel A. M. E. Zion church several years ago.

Glenn & Sales, Fortune & Roberts and Bernard & Johnston of this city have been employed to assist Solicitor R. R. Reynolds in the prosecution of the cases.

The arrest of the negroes here several weeks ago, after Deputy Insurance Commissioner Frank Jordan had worked on the cases for many months, was perhaps the largest sensation that has occurred in negro circles in this city in many years.

The cases will be hard fought and many interesting developments promise to be turned up during the course of the trials.

TRUE BILL HAS BEEN RETURNED

Seth Whitaker Charged by Grand Jury With Killing James H. Butler.

The grand jury, in a body, came into Superior court yesterday and returned a true bill against Seth Whitaker, charging him with killing James H. Butler at the latter's home No. 61 Tiernan street on August 17. No date has been set for the trial of the charges against Whitaker.

Whitaker is accused of killing Butler while they were engaged in an argument at Butler's home. Whitaker escaped and no trace of him was found until he appeared at the county jail on the morning of August 21 and surrendered.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict finding that Butler came to his death by gunshot wounds fired from a gun in the hands of Whitaker. According to the county authorities, a letter was written to John Lyda at Swannanoa township, several days after the killing, telling him that if his nephew, Whitaker, came to his house to notify the officers. It was stated that Whitaker arrived the next day at the home of Mr. Lyda and after a talk decided to surrender. The two then walked to Asheville and arrived here about 6 o'clock, at which Whitaker gave himself up to the county authorities.

ADDITIONAL SOCIAL AND PERSONALS.

Wiley-Westall Wedding.

Miss Mary Mitchell Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wiley was united in marriage Tuesday at 8:30 o'clock with James Westall of Asheville at the home of the bride's parents on Cumberland avenue. Rev. D. R. F. Campbell officiating. The marriage came as an entire surprise to the parents of Miss Wiley who had been preparing for the return of their daughter to Queens college in Charlotte which she attended last year. In the interval Mr. Westall and Miss Wiley decided to be married at the time set for Miss Wiley's departure for school. The young couple had been engaged for some time and the wedding had long been expected by their many friends but no date had been announced. The wedding was a very quiet affair witnessed only by members of both families in Asheville at the time. The bride was gowned in a traveling suit of blue cloth and wore a velvet hat trimmed in pink wings. Mr. and Mrs. Westall left on an evening train for Washington on their wedding trip and will visit Mr. Westall's sisters at Randolph Macon college in Greensboro. On their return they will be at home to their friends in Asheville, making this city their home. The bride is a beautiful and accomplished young woman enjoying much popularity here and in her college circles. Mr. Westall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Westall, prominent residents of this city and is a young man of fine culture and education.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble. Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick, headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

CAPT. SAWYER ACCEPTS TABLET FOR HOSPITAL

Impressive Services Are Held When Memorial Is Given at Morganton.

Special to The Gazette-News.

Statesville, Sept. 24.—R. R. Clark, who is a member of the board of directors of the State Hospital at Morganton, has returned from Morganton, where he attended the impressive exercises held at the hospital in connection with the dedication of the bronze tablet to the memory of the late Dr. P. L. Murphy, who organized the hospital and was for 25 years its superintendent.

The dedication exercises were held in the large hall of the second floor of the central or administration building in view of the tablet, which occupies a position in the wall at the head of the stairway. An audience which included a number of distinguished physicians and other citizens attended the exercises.

Capt. J. P. Sawyer of Asheville, who has been a member of the board of directors ever since its organization, with the exception of four years, accepted the tablet on behalf of the board. He said that for 25 years Doctor Murphy unselfishly gave his energies to the institution established for the relief and comfort of the mentally and physically afflicted. Briefly sketching the career of Doctor Murphy, who was born in Sampson county, this state, in 1848, and who prior to his election as superintendent of the hospital served in a similar institution in Virginia. Captain Sawyer spoke of his association with him as a member of the board of directors and paid high tribute to his professional skill and executive ability. He was the moving spirit in all the deliberations of the board and it was his remarkable foresight which gave birth to the suggestion of larger and more commodious buildings, and his indomitable will and energy which carried to successful completion the plans he conceived.

NEGRO CHARGED WITH BIG THEFT

Dooley Alleged to Have Taken $300 on Trial in Superior Court.

Special to The Gazette-News.

When Superior court recessed for noon yesterday the case against James Dooley, colored, charged with larceny and receiving was being tried. All of the evidence had been taken and the arguments were presented in the afternoon. Dooley is charged with stealing about $300 from the safe of the Allison Drug store on Patton avenue, while working as a delivery boy there and later buying a motorcycle with the money. The large motorcycle was presented as evidence in the court today. Dooley was first tried in Police court where probable cause was found and he was held for Superior court.

Mosey Mills was found not guilty by a jury of charges of retailing.

T. N. Wilburn, charged with keeping whiskey on hand for sale, pleading nolo contendere and he was let off with the payment of the costs and to give a bond of $200 to show his good behavior for one year.

Ernest Williams was given 60 days on the roads on charges of gambling and L. P. Madden was given a total of 90 days on two charges of gambling and judgment was suspended in a case of a disorderly nature against him. Both are negroes.

William Hughey pleaded guilty to embezzlement and was given 90 days on the roads. Judge Cline and Solicitor Reynolds announced that cases in which the defendants are now in jail or have been brought in from the chain gangs will be tried this afternoon, in order to clear off all such cases before several cases which are likely to take up considerable time of the court are called.
