

Health First

In buying food articles we must consider several things—economy, results, convenience, reliability; but the most important is Health.

Health means everything. If one gets cheated in buying dresses, shoes or bonnets it is provoking, but the harm is chiefly loss of money. In buying food articles, if imitations or poor stuffs are supplied, there is a loss of money and probably an injury to health also; and good health is beyond price.

Remember these facts when buying baking powder.

DRY FORCES RAID FEDERAL TERRITORY

R. L. Davis Captures Some Brandy and Some Men; Expects to Take More.

PROHIBITIONIST STRIKES WHERE HE SEES BOOZE

Advised by Government Not to Be Hasty; Disregards Advice—Other State News.

(By W. T. Bost.)

Raleigh, Oct. 14.—The prohibitionists have gone into federal territory, captured some hundreds of gallons from brandy distilleries in Nash, spotted more manufactories, arrested a man and put it up to the government.

Superintendent R. L. Davis, of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon league, returned yesterday from the first invasion of federal territory. Whether he has done it successfully or not, he does not say. He merely knows that Sheriff Johnson has taken some brandy and has been asked to take more; that he has taken a man and been requested to take several more who are charged with violation of the state prohibition law.

Meanwhile, the government will send its gauger down there to take stock it is said. The department of internal revenue here advised Mr. Davis to make no trouble until he found out whether there was any brandy that had been stamped. If the government had received its tax, then Mr. Davis was welcome to seize all the men and whiskey that he found running at large. Until then it was doubtful whether he had any rights down there or not.

But Mr. Davis's worst enemy would hardly say that the league leader would back off from Uncle Sam. Preacher Davis doesn't tackle liquor with such complacency. It is as natural for him to hit booze wherever he finds it as it was for the countryman who slew the side show's pet boar constrictor on the ground, that he "hit um when he seed um."

Wants to Know.

The preacher superintendent wants to know the attitude of the government. Heretofore he stood off momentarily believing that the claim of ambiguity in the state prohibition law was worth investigating and that the holding of the Nash recorder might be inquired into. But he says he finds that the government has given protection to the distillers if it protects them until its tax of $1.10 is paid and that appears to be the government's claim—there shall be no seizure of brandy until the tax is paid.

Mr. Davis did not know today whether the attitude of the government was stamped or not, he thinks not. But his orders are that all whiskey found in such quantities is against the law and he calls upon all officers to hit it when they see it.

Robbers Get Long Terms.

Judge H. W. Whedbee has sentenced the assaultants and robbers of Isaac Duboise, who was picked up nearly dead ten days ago near Knightdale, to terms ranging from seven to two years.

Duboise had attended a show at Knightdale and was walking home when Alfred Jones, white, and four or five negroes enticed him into a grape thicket where they bludgeoned him and took his $8. One officer almost without assistance, took the five and brought them to Raleigh, Duboise accompanying them. They put up scarcely any defense and Judge Whedbee gave Jones seven years, two of the negroes two, one three and one five years.

Cobb Here Tonight.

Chief of Police C. M. Walters has come home with Harry Cobb, alias Shaw and Wells, charged with forgery in Raleigh.

Cobb's trail was never lost long at a time when he gave Chief Walters the slip in Washington. His girl here, with whom he lived while nobody was after him, had never been sent away from custody because it was feared that if she ever left Raleigh, she would rejoin her infatuated fellow and the two would go further away next time. She will be used as witness against him this week.

More Railroad Orders.

The corporation commission has made another order not dissimilar to that in the Coast Line case, the purpose being to prevent the Southern from constructing the Justice act as the Coast Line has done.

The purpose of the former order was to require the Coast line to assume the burden of routing shipments instead of putting it upon the shipper. The same is true in the Southern's case. It appears that all roads have read the Justice act alike and instructions, if not written to agents in the same language indicate high harmony in the legal departments of the carriers.

Long Road for Whiskey Case.

In the Supreme court yesterday the Seaboard and the state were the litigants in a whiskey case that is headed straight to the national Supreme court.

The anti-saloon league had requested through its agents, Rev. R. L. Davis and Rev. S. J. Betts, an examination of the books that showed the whiskey receipts. The Seaboard refused but the Southern and the Norfolk Southern granted it. The league carried the case to the courts of Judge W. M. Bond who read the law with the defense and threw the case out. The state appealed and took the matter up yesterday. The state expects to test this to a finish as does the defense.

THE STATE EXHIBIT IN HORTICULTURAL

R. G. Hill and W. N. Hutt in Charge of Interesting Exhibit at the Fair.

The educational exhibit by the horticultural division of the North Carolina department of agriculture at Raleigh is something entirely new for western North Carolina and it is therefore proving to be a mecca for fair visitors here.

R. G. Hill and W. N. Hutt, experts from the state department of agriculture, are at the exhibit at all times answering questions. Mr. Hutt yesterday visited the big apple orchard of John A. Nichols on Elk mountain and he expressed himself as being well pleased with the apple growing industry there. It is the intention of the state experts from Raleigh to come to western North Carolina next spring and give practical demonstrations in orchards and elsewhere for the benefit of fruit growers of this immediate section. Considerable time will be spent in this work.

The exhibit at the fair here includes a practical display of healthy and unhealthy fruit tree roots, and the causes for the same. The experts are ready at all times to tell the fruit grower how to remedy all defects. There are life demonstrations so to speak, of the right and the wrong way to cultivate fruit trees from planting time until the tree reaches old age. There are samples of nursery stock that should be bought; also of the kind that should not. Grafting and budding are explained; also packing and fruit picking tools and appliances of a modern nature. There are interesting charts and photographs on fruit growing, while the methods of canning fruits and vegetables in the way they should be, are thoroughly explained by the experts in an interesting way.

This is one of the most attractive displays on the grounds.

Tokio, Oct. 14.—It was declared officially in Tokio today that the American consul at Tsing-Tau, W. R. Peck, and a number of German and Chinese women and children are to leave Tsing-Tau tomorrow. This move is in fulfillment of the arrangement recently concluded for removal of non-combatants from the German position in Kiao Chow. An engagement between a German and a Japanese aeroplane took place
