NAVAL DESERTER IS UNDER ARREST

Man Taken in Custody Saturday Tells Strange Story of Travels Over World.

James Hodges, a self-confessed deserter from the United States navy was arrested Saturday by detectives employed by the Southern Railway company, while they were searching for "hoboes" in the local railroad yards. He is now held in the county jail, pending word from the naval authorities at Norfolk, to which place he will be returned.

According to the men who made the arrest, Hodges was hid away in a coal car in the local yards and was at first thought to be a "hobo" until one of the men asked him a question about the army then he told them that he had deserted from Norfolk and since then had been wandering over the country.

Hodges told a remarkable story of his life to the officers who arrested him and if true it would make a thrilling chapter to one of Richard Harding Davis' soldiers of fortune stories. He said that he is a native of Mt. Airy, this state, and that he first enlisted in the army and saw service in the Spanish-American war; was in the famous charge up San Juan Hill, near Santiago, where he was desperately wounded. Here he exhibited scars to prove his story. Later, he said that he joined the navy and was on the trip around the world, made by the fleet several years ago, and only recently was with the American fleet at Vera Cruz, although he did not land on Mexican soil, returning to the United States, Hodges stated that he got in some trouble, "the usual trouble," as he put it, at Norfolk and thought it was best that he escape rather than be tried by a court martial.

It is expected that he will be taken to Norfolk in the next few days, where he will face the charges that are against him.

AMERICAN ROADS CONGRESS MEETS

Fourth Annual Session Convenes in Atlanta—700 Delegates Present.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 10.—The fourth American Road congress convened yesterday for a six days session with about 700 delegates, representing 47 affiliated organizations in attendance. The delegates were welcomed to the state and city by Governor John M. Slaton and Mayor James G. Woodward. The response on behalf of the congress was made by its president, Austin B. Fletcher, state highway engineer of California, who presided.

A review of the work accomplished the last year by United States office of public roads was given by the director, Logan Page, who also is president of the American-Highway association. Mr. Page stated that through the government's efforts 18,000 miles of hard surfaced roads were built in 1914. He estimated that the aggregate expenditure for this work this year would reach $225,000,000. Mr. Page predicted the recent organization of the women of the country in the good roads movement would produce important results.

Yesterday's program called for addresses on good roads by A. W. Campbell, deputy minister of railroads and canals of Canada; Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, and Robert P. Hooper, Philadelphia. National legislation in the interest of good roads was the subject for the afternoon session. Among those on the program for this discussion were Senator J. H. Bankhead, Alabama; and D. W. Shackelford and W. P. Borland, members of congress from Missouri. Mr. Shackelford is chairman of the house committee on roads.

A REBELLION. Food Demanded.

The human body will stand a lot of abuse but sometimes it will surely rebel and demand proper food in place of the pasty, starchy, greasy stuffs on which it has been made sick.

Then is the time to try Grape-Nuts, the most scientific and perfect food in the world.

A lady of Washington writes: "Three years ago I was very ill with catarrh of the stomach and was given up to die by one doctor. I laid in bed four months and my stomach was so weak that I could not keep down medicine or hardly any kind of food and was so weak and emaciated after four months of this starvation that my daughter could easily lift me from bed and put me in my chair."

"But weak as my stomach was, it accepted, relished and digested Grape-Nuts without any difficulty the first time that wonderful food was tried. I am now strong and in better health than for a great many years and am gradually growing still stronger. I rely on Grape-Nuts for much of the nourishment that I get. The results have certainly been wonderful in my case and prove that no stomach is so weak it will not digest Grape-Nuts."

"My baby got fat from feeding on Grape-Nuts. I was afraid I would have to stop giving the food to him, but I guess it is a healthy fat for his health is just perfect." Name given by Weston Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Look in plan for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville." There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

CRIMINAL MATTERS IN SUPERIOR COURT

Several Causes Were Disposed of Today Before Judge E. B. Cline, Presiding.

Superior court for the trial of criminal cases convened here yesterday, for a term of one week, with Judge E. B. Cline of Hickory presiding. This will be the last term of criminal court for this year and there will be but one more term of court for civil cases, to convene here at November 30 for three weeks.

After the grand jury had been sworn in and Judge Cline had delivered his charge the following cases were disposed of:

HENRY SEIGEL FACING GRAND LARCENY CHARGE

Bankrupt Merchant Appears in Court for Trial—A Change of Venue.

Geneseo, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Henry Siegel, bankrupt banker and head of a New York department store that bore his name, appeared in the Supreme court here yesterday to stand trial for grand larceny.

The alleged offense was committed in New York but Siegel succeeded in securing a change of venue so that he might be tried away from the host of New York creditors.

Arthur C. Train, assistant district attorney, and a corps of assistants brought into court a great quantity of documents and books taken from the office of the Siegel store and the private bank conducted in connection with it. Siegel is to be tried on an indictment charging him with the theft of less than $700.

Frank E. Vogel, Siegel's associate in business, was to have been tried with him, but Vogel died suddenly in New York a few weeks ago.

CORN CROP THIS YEAR IS PROBABLY THE MOST VALUABLE EVER RAISED

Washington, Nov. 10.—This year's corn crop is, perhaps, the most valuable ever grown, owing to its increased price on account of the European war. The department of agriculture has announced in its preliminary estimate, that the crop would amount to 2,785,692,000 bushels, and that on November 1, farmers were being paid 69.7 cents a bushel. The value of the crop therefore, based on November 1, figures, is $1,855,567,324.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With it to Restore Color, Gloss, Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, removes every bit of dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound," this avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wavy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyle's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by repeating all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

CANDIDATES WILL GET BUSY TODAY

Last Day for Telling About Their Expenses in Running for Office.

Yesterday, the last day on which the candidates who participated in last Tuesday's election, can file their expense reports, was a very busy one for the clerks in the office of the clerk of Superior court, for up to noon eight candidates had filed reports today.

The state law under which comes the filing of reports by the candidates specifies that all candidates must file the reports on or before five days after the election is held, and as one day was Sunday, today is the last day of the five days allowed.

The following filed reports yesterday: J. M. Brookshire, $10; M. A. Cressman, F. M. Lindsey and N. A. Reynolds, reported no expense. W. E. Johnson reported $155; D. W. Harrison $25.65; Robert Greenwood reported nothing spent and H. L. Nettles $55.

NEW "FLIM-FLAM" GAME IS WORKED

It was left to Chester Robinson, colored, to pull a new game for the police to unravel here, that is the police state that Chester pulled it; while he maintains his innocence. According to the police Chester secured a one dollar bill—from whence they do not claim to know—and, seeking out J. H. Cox and Claud Williams, colored, he tore the bill in two pieces and folded each piece as though it were the entire dollar bill and then asked the above named negroes to change a dollar bill for him. Trusting in him, they claim, they at once proceeded to do so and put the folded half bill in their pockets, without suspecting anything. Later on they discovered that they had been swindled and appealed to the police. In consequence of these appeals Chester was arrested on charges of false pretense and arraigned in Police court today, where probable cause being found he was bound over to Superior court under a bond of $500.

EARLY MORNING FIRES DID LITTLE DAMAGE

At 10:00 o'clock yesterday a still alarm was turned in from No. 18 Pearl street, where a small fire was discovered under a range in the kitchen. Small damage was done here.
