Concord, N. H., Nov. 25,-Forty-five the part of many citizens who believed that President Pierce showed too ac-tive sympathy with the south in the brane Anys immediately preceding the war of the states frustrated several previous attempts to provide memorial. Last year the legislature appropriated $15,000 for the purpose.

Clarence E. Carr of Andover, a member of the commission appointed by Governor Samuel D. Felker to arrange for the erection of the memo rial, was chosen to preside at the ded-icatory exercises. The honor of unveiling the statue was given to Miss Susan H. Pierce of Hillsboro, a great grand-daughter of the former president. The program provided for addresses by Frank P. Carpenter of Manchester, chairman of the commission; former United States Senator William Chandler of Concord: Governor Feiker and Judge Edgar Aldrich of the United States district court.

The statue, designed by Augustus Lukeman of New York, is executed in bronze, on a granite base, with an inlaid bronze border of laurel leaves. It shows President Pierce in civilian garb with the exception of a military cloak, hinting at his service in the Breaking a Bad Habit. A customer had come to purchase beef roast. Now, it seems that Bill used to have a most annoying habit a heavy hand upon the scales. This high cost of living thing and all that were bad enough in all conscience, thought some of his patrons, but one of them finally broke Bill of this trick. As was stated, the customer was buying a beef roast, and Bill siyly was helping out the work of the scales with one pudgy fist when before a shopful of people the buyer said: "Take your hand off that scale, Bill.

Since then no one has had to chide Bill for a similar act.-Exchange
