City News

The banks of the city will observe next Tuesday as a holiday, it being Lee-Jackson day in North Carolina.

Rev. A. E. Brown will preach at both hours at the Blittmore Baptist church tomorrow. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

"The Successful Christian Life and How to Live It," will be the subject of the Sunday morning sermon of Rev. F. W. Stanton at the First Methodist Episcopal church. For the evening sermon, he announces as his subject, "The Lost Christ."

Hannibal Boone, aged 14, and Leonard McClain, aged 13, were brought here yesterday afternoon from Black Mountain and committed to the county jail for 30 days each, having recently been convicted before the mayor of Black Mountain on charges of beating their way on freight trains.

Forty recruits for the different branches of the United States army left here last night for Columbia, S. C., where they will receive preliminary training before being assigned to the posts where they will serve. All of the recruits were from the Charlotte district, which comprises parts of North and South Carolina.

Only routine business was brought before the adjourned session of the board of aldermen of West Asheville, which was held last night. It was the first meeting of the board for two weeks, no quorum being present for the last two meetings. The next meeting of the board will be held next Tuesday night.

NEW CHARTER WANTED HERE

The business of the meeting progressed rapidly, and as soon as Mr. Ramsey took his seat, Mr. Martin introduced his resolution. It was adopted without opposition, and then followed the question of ways and means of securing a charter. Many ideas were advanced, but there was absolutely no ill feeling among those making the suggestions. There were short talks by J. B. Anderson, who introduced a substitute for Mr. Rogers' motion, Judge Thomas A. Jones, A. S. Barnard, Zeb E. Curtis, George S. Powell, Congressman-elect James J. Britt, Col. V. S. Lusk, Judge J. D. Murphy and others. They simply had suggestions to make, however, and then gave their hearty endorsement to a commission form of government for Asheville, the main issue before the gathering. It was, perhaps, the most harmonious gathering ever held in this city; likewise the most unanimous in its general conviction upon the subject at issue.

While the committee of organization presidents was out to name a central committee, the gathering was regulated by a speech by Marcus Erwin. It was a real gem, embodying both wit and wisdom, and he strongly endorsed every progressive step in governmental affairs, from commission government to woman's suffrage. He said he could endorse anything he likes now since he is out of politics. He said that he believes in commission government; and that he wants a commission charter that will embody all the ideas that have proved successful elsewhere.

During this interim, those present were likewise enlightened by L. E. Rogers on the commission form of government as it is exemplified in Wilmington.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the next General Assembly of this state to amend the charter of the Town of West Asheville as contained in Chapter 80, of the Private Laws of 1913, Extra Session.

This the 31st day of Dec., 1914.
A. L. BRIGHT, Mayor. 277-261

BUILDERS OF STATE IN ANNUAL SESSION

Meeting in Durham This Week
—Will Come to Asheville
Next Year.

Special to The Gazette-News. Durham, Jan. 16.—The North Carolina Builders' exchange spent the greatest portion of yesterday in transacting the business of the session. The most important work of the morning session was the adoption of a new constitution and by-laws for the state association of builders. A committee was appointed at the last session of the association to draw up this new constitution. This committee was composed of J. L. McClamrock, P. McKensie, H. C. Federal, of Greensboro, and J. H. States, of Baltimore. A new constitution was needed in order to make it possible for the new building organizations in many localities of the state might become affiliated with the state organization. Only a few important changes were necessary but the convention at its last semi-annual meeting decided that it would be best to redraft the whole constitution, and this has been done. The paper was submitted to the builders this morning and was adopted by a unanimous vote of the exchange.

A committee was appointed to act jointly with the state architects for the purpose of drafting a resolution of proposed legislation to be presented to the present session of the general assembly. This committee will carry out a set of resolutions and acts of the exchange and get the bills in such shape that they may be sent to the legislature. The committee is composed of N. Underwood, of Durham; W. B. Barrow, of Raleigh; J. N. Longest and B. McKensie, of Greensboro, and H. C. Miller, of Baltimore.

Yesterday afternoon was devoted to a discussion of the lien law in North Carolina. This discussion was led by Philip Williams, an attorney of Winston.

The next meeting of the builders will be held in Asheville. This was decided at the last meeting of the exchange, which was held in Charlotte last June. It is customary for the association to name the place of both meetings at the mid-summer meeting.

The feature of the session on this evening was the banquet which was served in the dining room of the Marlborough hotel. There were also addresses by Mayor W. J. Brogden and James H. Southgate.

The following officers were elected for the coming term: President, John T. Salmon, Durham; first vice-president, J. W. Stout, Sanford; second vice-president, J. R. McClamrock, Greensboro; secretary, H. C. Federal, Greensboro; treasurer, L. D. Berry, Charlotte.

REPORTS ON THE DISASTER'S EXTENT

Official Figures Are Given Out
Showing Loss of Life From Earthquake Shock.

Avezzano, Italy, Jan. 16.—Official reports of the extent of the earthquake disaster are going forward to the authorities. The reports concern the following towns and villages:

Palermo—Completely destroyed, with the exception of one house; 1800 victims out of 5000 inhabitants.
San Pelfino—Almost totally destroyed; 600 victims out of 1600 population.
Scurocola—Completely destroyed; a number of victims not known.
Villalago—Twenty-five dead and 20 wounded.
Rajano—Four dead.

Fratturo, near Scanno—Two hundred dead and 60 wounded.
Popoli—Five dead and 10 wounded.
Pentina—Four dead and 11 wounded.
Barrea—Nine dead and 20 wounded.

Villetta—Varré—Three dead. The Duke of Abruzzi arrived here last night and inspected the rescue work. He expressed the intention of visiting all of the villages which suffered, some of which are still cut off from communication. News only reached here today that in the town of Pescasseroli many persons were buried in the wreckage. Up to the present, 15 bodies and 80 injured have been recovered there.

An unusual episode occurred Friday at Cappello. While the rescue work was proceeding, the soldiers had a strange crisis which led them to a woman who was buried under the debris with a new-born child. Both the woman and baby were rescued alive and uninjured.

The catastrophe at Pescara, southwest of Avezzano, is growing in gravity. The victims, according to reports, will now number 4,500. The whole village of Geojaccescia reported destroyed, but the number of victims is not known. At Collesano, there are 24 dead; and at Antelpejo, 40 were killed.
