THE DANGER OF THE "WASHWOMAN COIFFURE"

Do you know what dastardly plan is now on foot to destroy our crowning glory?

Simply this: Someone, (someone with no hair at all, probably) has invented the "Washwoman Coiffure," and is trying to wish it on us.

I talked to a scalp expert about it and she insists that it is ruinous to the hair and if women adopt it, they will eventually become as bald as the probable inventor. (I wonder that the inventor is a bald-headed male, over 60, which is a catty thing to say).

This is the way it is done: The hair is first combed and brushed until every particle of curl, or wave or softness has vanished, then it is screwed on the head in as tight a knot as can be made.

For evening, this knot is worn high on the head and for afternoon and informal occasions, it is worn on the neck.

In either way, the whole effect is like that of a washerwoman at her work.

The straining back and tight pinning breaks the hair off short and straightens it hopelessly. Then, too, the constant pulling is painful and the woman who wears it, wrinkles up her forehead, squints and frowns all sorts of tiny and big lines in her face.

I tried to get a photograph of this coiffure, but not a model or friend would pose for me. One friend, who is an extreme dresser and occasionally dresses her hair in this way, says she "refuses to be perpetuated in this ungodly style." She did, however, give me her photograph, with her usual coiffure, and I am using it today. Can you imagine her beautiful, luxuriant hair screwed into a hard knot of unbecomingness? Beautiful hair is such a wonderful thing to have. It should be worn as loosely from there went to England. Having no means, with thousands of other Belgians, they were entertained by charitable friends. No work was to be had there and seeing farms in eastern North Carolina advertised they decided to come to America and arrived here with only funds provided by the company advertising the land, although they had been rich in Belgium before the war began.

Miss Edith Arthur, her sister, Miss Margaret Arthur and their brother, Frank T. Arthur, have given up their cottage in Biltmore. Miss Edith Arthur will make her home with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Arthur at their cottage, and Miss Margaret Arthur has gone to join her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Arthur, at Fairview Park, Trinity, N. C. Mr. Arthur will reside at one of the apartments on the Plaza in Biltmore.

Dr. Carter, former president of Williams college and his daughter, Mrs. Ransom, who have been guests at the Manor will leave on Monday for their home in the east. Dr. Carter and Mrs. Ransom enjoy great social popularity in Asheville where they stop frequently en route from Florida. This week previous to the large dinner dance at the Manor, Dr. Carter and his daughter entertained with a delightful dinner party. Covers were laid for 10 and the occasion was one of the most enjoyable events of the evening.

Among the guests present were: Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Minor, Mr. and Mrs. S. Proleau Ravenel, Gen. and Mrs. Theodore F. Davidson, Miss Gilman of New York and Mr. McLeish of Scotland. Other notable dinner parties were given by Miss Lucy Minor, Mrs. Reuben Robertson and S. Herbert Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Ravenel of Biltmore will leave on Tuesday of next week for Baltimore and Philadelphia for a ten days' visit.

Miss Eva Horner is receiving delightful social attention during her visit in the eastern part of the state. The Raleigh News and Observer of Thursday says: "Mrs. Locke Craig entertained today with a bridge luncheon in honor of Miss Amy Winston's guests, Miss Eva Horner, of Asheville, and Miss McCarty, of Atlanta. Those who attended the luncheon were: Miss Eva Horner of Asheville; Miss Betty of Atlanta; Miss Amy Winston, Miss Betty John Haywood, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Ann McKimmon, Miss Bettie Russ, Miss Mary Grimes Cooper, Miss Gray of Carthage and Miss Kate Hale Silver."

Erwin-Jones Engagement. The engagement of Miss Bessie Smedes Erwin of Durham and Hamilton Chamberlain Jones of Charlotte has been announced during the week. The engagement is of interest throughout the state as this approaching marriage will unite two of the oldest and most prominent families of North Carolina.

The Asheville friends and admirers of Mrs. William Jennings Bryan will read with interest the following from the Washington Post: Mrs. J. Willard Ragsdale was hostess yesterday at a beautiful luncheon at her home in Connecticut avenue in compliment to Mrs. William Jennings Bryan. Pink roses and pink sweet peas formed the floral decoration of the luncheon table. Pink azaleas and pink geraniums decorated the rose drawing room in which the guests were received, and yellow tulips and jonquills gave a touch of spring to the yellow drawing room. The guests to meet Mrs. Bryan were Mrs. John K. Shields, Mrs. William A. Jones, Mrs. Robert Henry, Mrs. Walter Mc-

University of Pennsylvania which took place on March 19. Miss Huff for some time has been playing leading roles with the Lublin Film company and with the understanding that she might continue her engagement with the pictures if she desired.

Women's Clubs.

The meeting held yesterday at Grove Park Inn of the city Federation of Women's clubs, was both well attended and interesting. A large number of Asheville club women were present among whom were the presidents of the following clubs: Mrs. W. J. Cooke, of the Woman's club; Miss Grace Jones, of the Friday Book club; Mrs. E. P. Childs, of the Current Literature club; Mrs. W. E. Meacham, of the Saturday Music club; Mrs. Kinzie Bates, of the Civic Betterment league; Miss Linda Scharle, of the Travelers' club; Mrs. Huston, of the History club, and Miss Nan Erwin, of the Friendly Dozen club.

Mrs. L. A. Farinfort presided yesterday. Mrs. W. A. Newell spoke interestingly in regard to smaller clubs being made into one large organization, and her charming manner quite won those present. The idea of uniting Asheville clubs was thoroughly discussed, and in the future the individual clubs will consider this interesting step. After a business meeting the ladies were served with tea, and an enjoyable hour was spent.

Officers elected yesterday chosen of the many clubs of Asheville were: Mrs. W. S. Whiting was chosen president; Mrs. C. S. Bryant, first vice president; Mrs. Theodore S. Morrison, second vice president; Mrs. J. C. Campbell, secretary; Miss Elizabeth Ramsey, treasurer.

Robert R. Sellers of Rutherfordton has been spending part of the week in Raleigh.

A. L. Stanford of Hickory is spending several days in Raleigh.

Mrs. Locke Craig has issued invitations to a card party in honor of Mrs. M. V. Moore of Asheville.

Thomas Settle has spent part of this week in Greensboro.

St. Mary's Guild met this week with Mrs. Charles H. Cooke, sr., at her home on Pearson drive. The Easter offering at St. Mary's church was about $700.

Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moler of Berea, O., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Moler to James Irving Mason of Asheville.

The Children's Missionary society of Chestnut Street Methodist church, will give a Chinese wedding tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock at the church. The parents and friends of the children are welcome to attend. The collection tomorrow evening will go to the children's pledge.

David Baird leaves for California this morning and will be away indefinitely.

Miss Annie and Miss Inez Weaver will leave in a few days for New York and will take a boat there for the Panama canal zone. The Misses Weaver have secured government positions at Ancon where their aunt, Mrs. E. M. Goolsby and their sister, Mrs. Townsend reside. Miss Annie Weaver has visited in Ancon before.

J. P. Sawyer returned Friday to Chapel Hill after having spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sawyer, here.

David Elliott of Toronto is a guest

A BAD CASE AND ITS RELIEF

Lady Tells Details of ten Years of Suffering Which Now Lies Behind Her.

Wallace, Va.—Mrs. Mary Vest, of this town, says: "About ten years ago, I had very poor health, and for five years it steadily got worse. I could not stand on my feet. I got so I could only drag about in the room. Most of the time I was not able to do my work. I had terrible bearing-down pains, my back ached all the time and was very weak. I could scarcely carry anything and suffered agony when I lifted anything. The muscles in my abdomen were so weak I could scarcely lift myself up, straight, and I thought I would surely grow crooked. I had difficulty in walking, it was so painful. I suffered in hips and back and could hardly raise up at all. At times, I couldn't sit on the chair—would have to lie down. I was in such agony. I just sat around and cried.

At this time, about five years ago, I began to take Cardul, at my mother's insistence. After two or three weeks' use I saw an improvement. The pains got less gradually until they disappeared. In two months I could walk without pain and could do most of my work. For about three years my improvement was steady and continued until I had back my health and strength.

The cure has been permanent, for I have been in good health for the past two years, due to my having taken Cardul, which effected the cure."
