WILL MOVE OFFICES OF S. A. LYNCH ENTERPRISES

Will Move to 10 Pack Square—Emanuel Business College to Move.

The offices of the S. A. Lynch enterprises, which have been located on the second floor of The Gazette-News building for the past two years will be moved on May 20th to the building at No. 10 North Pack square. One-half of the ground floor of this building will be occupied by the offices and work will begin soon to have the space to be occupied fitted up for the offices.

The Emanuel Business college, which for several years has been located on the second floor of the Drummer building at the corner of Patton avenue and Church street, will move to the second floor of The Gazette-News building, which has been leased by the college for a term of years.

The college was first established about fifteen years ago and for 12 years was conducted as a school of shorthand, the full commercial courses being added to the school about three years ago. The crowded conditions of the present quarters, due to the rapid growth of the college make it necessary to seek larger quarters.

A. A. Paul, business manager of the college stated this morning that the college desired a location that was central and still would not be in the noisiest section of the city and The Gazette-News building was finally selected as the place for the new home of the school.

The school started with an enrollment of seven students and now has approximately 150, with the following faculty: R. A. Schmadler, in charge of the commercial department; Miss Fannie Burke Hunt, typewriter department; Mrs. A. A. Paul, principal and teacher of English and A. A. Paul, business manager.

The entire second floor of The Gazette-News building will be used by the college and several improvements will be made, partitions torn away making some of the rooms larger and full equipment for a modern and up-to-date college will be installed.

Mr. Paul, the business manager will occupy the office now used as a private office by S. A. Lynch, where he will be in close touch with the business end of the college and will practice his law profession.

ENTIRE HERD OF PURE BRED CATTLE IS SOLD

Greatest Livestock Event in History of State, Says R. S. Curtis.

Describing the cattle sale conducted at Riverside park Wednesday by the American Shorthorn Breeders' association as "the greatest livestock event in the history of the state," R. S. Curtis of the North Carolina experiment station estimates the value to the western counties of the cattle purchased at $35,000 a year.

Of the 55 pure bred shorthorns sold yesterday, which was the entire herd offered here for sale, Buncombe county purchasing 15; Madison 13; Haywood nine; Yancey six; Richmond four; Moore four; Avery two and Jackson two. With the exception of eight cattle sold which will be shipped today to eastern Carolina the remainder of the 55 will be on farms within a radius of 100 miles of Asheville. T. L. Gwyn of Haywood county, R. A. Derby of Jackson Springs and J. R. Page of Aberdeen were the heaviest purchasers. The average price paid for the cattle was $120 per head. Some of the animals bringing $200.

T. W. Harding, secretary of the association, stated that he was well pleased with the success of the sale. Mr. Harding said that while the cattle would have brought more money in sections of the country where the Shorthorns are already better known the association feels that in bringing the sale here it is doing "missionary work" that will be of untold benefit to the cattle raising industry of the state. Mr. Harding said that the success of the sale was largely due to the Asheville papers; the board of trade; Mr. Curtis and Mr. Heiler, of the state's experiment station; and Farm Demonstrators E. D. Weaver of Buncombe; J. R. Sams of Madison; F. E. Patton of Yancey; T. L. Brown of Haywood and District Manager E. S. Millsaps.

PLAINTIFF RESTS CASE, GILBERT VS. HOPKINS

Large Number of Witnesses Probable for Defense—Criminal Docket Finished.

The cases of six defendants convicted of violations of the internal revenue laws were disposed of at the beginning of Wednesday session of the United States District court and the remainder of the time was spent in hearing evidence in the Gilbert-Hopkins case, which was begun Wednesday.

W. M. Harris and S. H. Harris, convicted of distilling, were each sentenced to one year and a day in the Atlanta federal prison. In the case of Dillie Wilson, found guilty on a similar charge, prayer for judgment was continued. Thomas Bradshaw and Jesse Walker, convicted on charges of removing whiskey on which no tax had been paid, were each given three months in prison. Bert Mashburn was sentenced to one month in prison for his part in the same transaction.

There are now ten federal prisoners to be taken to Atlanta. Eight of them are violators of the revenue laws; the other two are Thomas Satter, convicted of the Candler postoffice robbery, and J. L. Case, found guilty of counterfeiting. M. D. Justice, deputy marshal, with one or more other deputies, will take the prisoners to Atlanta probably tomorrow.

The plaintiffs in the Gilbert-Hopkins case rested their case in the morning and the defense began the introduction of witnesses. The principal issue involved in the suit, as outlined this morning before the court by counsel for the plaintiffs, is whether the defendants have had possession of the 51 tracts of the land in question long enough to overthrow the claims of the plaintiffs to the titles. The plaintiffs introduced the original grant to Lyman Gilbert under which his heirs, the plaintiffs, claim right to recover possession. It is probable that the defendants will offer testimony by many witnesses to substantiate their claims to the property and it is thought that the case may continue for two weeks or a month. It is stated that the number of tracts involved and the nature of the case makes the proceeding practically 51 separate law suits.

Wednesday afternoon arguments were heard in regard to the issues to be submitted to the jury in this case and the plaintiffs asked until this morning to present the issues for trial.
