Letter of "European Spy" Received In Asheville

Indicates He Is Nearing City in Some Manner Known Only to Himself—Is Anticipating His Stay Here With a Great Deal of Pleasure—To Be on Job Every Minute.

The following letter has just been received from the famous "European Spy":

"Dear Gazette-News: I am anticipating with a great deal of pleasure my coming visit to Asheville. I have heard much of Asheville and her cordial manner toward the stranger within her gates. The only bad feature connected with my stay in such a charming city is the necessity for concealing my identity, even for a limited period. It is a hard matter to lodge and avoid the very people one would like to come in contact with but such is the fate of one who chooses the career of a 'Spy.' Please say for me that I will be on the job every minute of my stay in Asheville and I have some stunts up my sleeve calculated to create comment.

"Yours very truly,
"The Spy."

Just curb your patience a little longer in regard to the "Man of Mystery" as the above letter indicates that he is nearing Asheville in some manner known only to himself. He may be riding or he may be afoot. He may come between darkness and dawn or in the broad open daylight. He may come unmasked or he may be disguised. No one can tell but himself. The workings of his mind are queer in the extreme. He is a creature of impulse and full of surprises, even to himself. Whatever he does will be the unexpected. If you hope to catch him you will match your wits against a shrewd one and should you succeed all the more credit will be yours in addition to the big reward you will receive.

Watch closely for him. The time is near.

LARGE ADDITIONS TO THE BAPTIST CHURCHES

Revival Spirit Abroad in the Land Says Statistical Secretary.

That between 14,000 and 16,000 additions to the Baptist churches of the state will be the result of the year's efforts is the opinion of Prof. E. L. Middleton, statistical secretary of the state convention, if the present revival spirit continues.

Prof. Middleton says the revival wave is sweeping the denomination and that success is evident in all quarters. He is of the opinion that if the same split is manifested in the country churches during the late summer months as has already been manifested in the city churches, the number of baptisms will be surprising.

The country churches are in the midst of the revival season, which will continue through September.

Prof. Middleton attributes the success of the revivals to the great war, which, he believes, has brought the people of this land face to face with a realization of the fact that a grave situation is upon the earth.

STATE VETERANS MAY NOT MEET

Reunion at Richmond and No Invitation Given Are the Causes.

Prospects of a reunion of veterans in North Carolina have about been abandoned this summer, several reasons being assigned for this course, and unless the executive committee of the North Carolina Veterans' association shall issue a statement soon regarding the state reunion, it will evidently be passed up for this year.

One of the prime reasons understood to have thwarted the 1915 gathering is the fact that the general reunion of veterans of the south was held in Richmond, just over the line from North Carolina, and all of the North Carolina veterans who could make the trip, went to the Virginia city.

"No invitation has yet been given for the annual reunion of the confederate veterans of this state," says the Chatham Record, "and it seems to be doubtful about any such invitation being given. These reunions have been held in nearly all the large cities of the state, and more than once in none of them. They have been held at Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Raleigh and Wilmington, where the veterans were treated in the most hospitable manner."

Thus far the progressive city of Durham has failed to extend such an invitation, although General Carr of that city, has more than once offered to contribute $500 himself if the public spirited citizens of Durham would contribute the remainder of the amount that might be necessary. Thus far they have not responded to his generous offer, but we cannot think their failure to do so has proceeded from any want of respect and love for the veterans.

"The confederate veterans will soon all pass away and then be only a blessed memory. Every year the 'thin gray line' is becoming thinner and it will not be long before the last survivor of the men who fought and bled with Lee and Jackson will have crossed 'over the river' and joined their immortal leaders. The people of the south should be reminded of this sad fact occasionally 'Lest we forget, lest we forget.'"

MEMBER OF CHAPMAN PARTY COMPOSES SONG

The following is a song which was composed and set to music by Mr. Henry Barracough of the Chapman-Alexander party while at o'mtreat last week. Mr. Albert Brown, the soloist rendered it with great expression and before the song was two days old it had won the hearts of the people of Montreal.

This song was suggested by a sermon of Dr. Chapman's on the text, Psalms, 45:8, "All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad." In the development of his sermon Dr. Chapman likened myrrh to the beauty of Christ, aloes to His suffering, and cassia to His healing powers.

"Ivory Palaces."

My Lord has garments so wondrous fine
And myrrh their texture fills.
Its fragrance reached to this heart of mine
When joy my being thrills.

Chorus:
Out of the ivory palaces,
Into the world of woe,
Only His great eternal love
Made my Savior go.

His life had also its sorrow sore
For aloes had a part,
And when I think of the cross He bore
My eyes with teardrops start.

The garments too were in cassia dipped,
With healing in a touch,
Each time my feet in some sin have slipped
He took me from its clutch.

In garments glorious He will come
To open wide the door,
And I shall enter my Heavenly home
To dwell for evermore.

POPULAR CONFEDERATE SERGEANT

Says "I Can Eat Better and Sleep Better Than For Years."

Great Endorsement of Tanlac.

One sensational statement after another is being made in connection with Tanlac, the new preparation that is accomplishing such great results in Asheville and vicinity, people in all walks of life are now using the premier medicine and their praise is sure a great endorsement of the good it is accomplishing, among the large number who have recently given in their name telling of good results is that of Edward Benfield, the well and popular Confederate sergeant whose address is Dixie, Route 13, Charlotte. He says: I have been in a bad condition from nervous trouble for some time, and I could not sleep well, was restless, and would get up of mornings feeling as tired as when I went to bed, my appetite was very poor, and things did not agree with me, I began to read in the papers of what good results were being obtained from Tanlac in Charlotte, so I decided to give it a trial. I am certainly glad I made that decision as the medicine has improved my appetite, I sleep fine, and when I get up of mornings I feel like doing something. That tired feeling has entirely disappeared. I can cheerfully recommend Tanlac to any of my old comrades. Mr. Benfield was a sergeant in Co. H, 35, N. C., and is well and favorably known all over the state. Mr. Payne, who is personally meeting the public at Smith's drug store and explaining Tanlac, says: I have statements from many in Asheville, who have suffered as this man, and have obtained just as quick and satisfactory results. Tanlac is a great tonic and appetizer, and should be in every home, in cases of Catarrh, Indigestion and many other ailments for which it is recommended. Advt.-11

CREAMERIES PRODUCE 150,000 POUNDS BUTTER

Dairy Work Is Growing Over the Entire State—Some Facts.

North Carolina creameries produced during the month of June one hundred and fifty thousand pounds of butter, representing about three hundred tons of cream, says a Raleigh paper.

The farmers are receiving about thirty cents a pound for their butter, so the above amount of butter represents $4,500 in good, genuine, American money. If the farmers grew $45,000 worth of cotton, this crop would have removed seven times the amount of fertility that was removed last month by the butter that was made in the state.

The creamery work is growing over the entire state. The Monroe creamery has more than doubled its output since the first of April. The Mooresville creamery has jumped from 11,000 pounds of butter in March to 25,000 pounds in June, and Iredell county has about thirty-five more acres in its borders for the purpose of feeding cattle during the winter.

Cheese will soon have to be considered as one of North Carolina's products also, for Grassy Creek is producing 150 pounds per day and the nearby factory at Cove Creek is putting out 100 pounds each day. This means more fertility for the land and more money in the bank. The farmers near these different enterprises are beginning to wake up and take advantage of the opportunities for

DEPUTY JORDAN MAKES INSPECTION AT NEWTON

Newton, July 28.—F. M. Jordan, deputy fire insurance commissioner, with headquarters at Asheville, was here Monday to inspect the town with a view of finding how much trash and waste there might be which would cause fires, and found only seven buildings, out of 41 inspected, where conditions were not good. He declared that in this respect, he doubted if a town in the state of the size of Newton could make as good a showing. Since his last visit many buildings have been attended to, and the town now lacks but little of being 100 per cent fine in regard to fire waste.

BOARD OF TRADE MAKES FINAL PLANS FOR TRIP

100 Members Expected to Visit Hot Springs on Thursday Afternoon.

At an enthusiastic committee meeting yesterday of officers and members of the local board of trade final arrangements were discussed for the visit of the members of the board to Hot Springs on Thursday afternoon. The management of the Hot Springs hotel will entertain the Asheville men at dinner and in the afternoon there will be a pageant performance under the direction of Dr. William Hastings.

Morris Lipinsky reported at yesterday's meeting that the Southern Railway company has announced that if 100 persons purchase tickets for the trip the round fare will be only $1. The party will leave Asheville at 3:55 o'clock in the afternoon, have about five hours stay in Hot Springs and returning leave there at 9:20 o'clock.

The board sent out yesterday a statement urging as many members as possibly can to notify the office of the board of trade this afternoon of their acceptance of the invitation. "This is necessary in order that the management of the hotel may know how many guests they will have at dinner."

It is one of the policies of the board of trade to endeavor to become better acquainted with the neighboring towns of the mountain resort region and the Hot Springs journey is looked forward to with much pleasure by the members.
