Pelton with J. M. Donald as first assistant; No. 4, Henry T. Sharpe and No. 5, Marcus Erwin and D. T. Jarrett as first assistant.

DETAILS FOR MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS ARE ARRANGED

More Than 5,000 Teachers Have Volunteered Services for Teaching Schools.

Over five thousand white teachers in the public schools of North Carolina have volunteered for the moonlight school work to be undertaken by the state department of education in conjunction with forces of community service some time during the fall. By degrees the plans for the campaign have been evolved, until the state department of education is now almost ready to bring before the public a series of twelve lessons in reading, writing and arithmetic for the instruction of white adult illiterates in the state.

BIG SEWING MACHINE SALE NEXT MONDAY

On next Monday, September 13, the Standard Sewing Machine company will conduct a sale at the Dunham Music house, on Pack square. At this sale only a limited number of machines will be sold, it is stated, and a demonstrator will be present who will fully explain the new hygiene straight standard rotary models, each of which is fitted with the new chain stitch attachment.

TWO 'STILLS AND MAN CAPTURED BY OFFICERS

Officer Cobe Seizes One of the Largest Plants Found in State.

Members of the raiding force of the internal revenue service located at Asheville today report the capture yesterday of two plants for the manufacture of blockade whiskey and the arrest of one of the operators. Officer J. F. Cobe captured within three miles of Old Fort the largest copper distillery found within the state during recent years. The still had a capacity of 160 gallons and was made of the finest copper. About 1,000 gallons of beer and a quantity of mash were also found at this place.

You do not know how good flour can be until you try Lassen's Perfection. And it is cheapest in the end, because it goes farther. Also it is equally good for every purpose. 179-6t.

DEFINITE ACTION TODAY IN REGARD TO HOME

City and County Boards to Meet Again This Afternoon to Settle Matters.

At the joint session of the city and county commissioners, which was held in the Superior court room this morning for the purpose of taking up the proposition of building a rescue home for women, several persons discussed the matter, but no definite action was taken. It was announced following the talks made that the boards would hold another joint session this afternoon, at which time it was promised that an answer as to what would be done would be given.

DR. COSTELLO SUES THE RALEIGH BASEBALL CLUB

Alleges He Is Due $50 For Treating Player, Who Was Hurt Here.

A suit for the recovery of $50 alleged to be due for professional services which he rendered Outfielder Farmer of the Raleigh Baseball team, was instituted here this morning by Dr. J. M. Costello against Earl Mack, manager of the team. A hearing is set for this afternoon before Magistrate B. L. Lyda. Several weeks ago Farmer, while playing in the outfield for the Raleigh club, during one of the games here, was struck by a batted ball he was attempting to catch and seriously injured about the mouth and nose. He was taken to the private sanitarium, operated on by Dr. Costello and given treatment for several days. The plaintiff contends that he has repeatedly requested his money from the Raleigh club and that each time he is told that they will pay it soon.

DATE IS ANNOUNCED FOR CHARLESTON TRIP

Southern Railway Fixes September 21 as Time For Annual Outing.

After receiving numerous inquiries as to the Charleston excursion, Division Passenger Agent James H. Wood of the Southern Railway company announced this morning that a special train of Pullman cars and day coaches will leave Asheville for the South Carolina city on Tuesday, Sept. 21. The tickets will allow the western North Carolina tourists to remain for a week at the popular coast resort instead of five days, which was the time limit last year. This will allow those who take advantage of the special rate for the visit plenty of time to see all the historic points of interest and to enjoy the excellent surf bathing facilities.

BANK SELLS CARTER PROPERTY ON MONTFORD

Gay Green Purchaser of Attractive Residence From American National Bank.

A trade was closed this week by the terms of which Gay Green purchased from the American National bank the dwelling house and lot at the corner of Montford avenue and Wanta street, the consideration being at some figure under $13,500. The property is that formerly owned by John H. Carter, for several years president of the American National bank, and is considered one of the most attractive residence locations in the city. The house has two stories and contains ten rooms. The lot fronts for 100 feet on Montford avenue and has a depth of 200 feet. It is understood that Mr. Green bought the place as an investment and as it is located in the heart of the Montford residence section it is considered a bargain at the price mentioned above.

THE GREATEST Sewing Machine Sale

Ever conducted in Western North Carolina will be conducted at

DUNHAM'S MUSIC HOUSE

Beginning Next Monday, the 13th

Sale will begin at 10 o'clock. There will be a limited number of the late improved Standard Sewing Machines sold during this demonstration. We will have on demonstration the new Hygienic Sit-Straight Standard Rotary Model. Each is fitted with the new Chain Stitch Attachment. It makes two machines in one—both lock and chain stitch. These machines are "the last word" in sewing machine construction. Nothing so good—nothing as good at any price.

These machines are recommended by the best doctors on account of the sitting position which does away with backaches and eye strain.

We want every lady in reach to see this new creation.

MONDAY MORNING WE WILL PLACE A HANDSOME GOLD WATCH (20 year case) IN THE WINDOW, which will be given away absolutely free. We will explain the proposition at the store. In the same window we will show one of the light machines running by a breeze from an electric fan. We will not mention terms here but we will make them easy when you call. Do not forget. We will close sale as soon as we close out the limited number.

Do Not Forget the Date—Monday, the 13th Remember, the Watch is FREE
