ONLY 6 MORE SHOPPING DAYS UNTIL CHRISTMA

-combine beauty and utility to an extraordinary degree, and are ideal Christmas gifts.

I Let us show you the advantages of Globe-Wernicke Construction and prove the economy of these Bookcases.

Wisit our Special Christmas Exhibit—the Big Holiday Event you have seen announced in the magazines, and solve the gift problem.

Rogers Book Store

39 Patton Ave.

Phone 254

Asheville

HORSE AND BUGGY M.T. RHINEHART DIED YESTERDAY HELD BY COURT

Floyd Brown, Owner, Must Well Known Pharmacist Suc-Appear in Superior Court -Two Held Under Bonds.

The horse and buggy, in which Milt over to Mr. Brown by the court, with part of the state. instructions that he must appear at the next term of court as witness in

At preliminary hearings before Magistrate Lyda yesterday afternoon Hamlin and Roberts were held to Superior court under bonds of $500 and kinson of Waynesville.

The body respectively services of the service of the services of the servic $200 respectively, which they made. Craggy station last Monday afternoon and was met by a delegation of Wayby Deputy Sheriff C. G. Lanning and nesville Masons, The Masonic lodge City Detective Fred Jones, when six at Waynesville will have charge of gallons of liquor also fell into the the funeral services this afternoon. hands of the officers.

ROTARIANS STILL AFTER THE CAMP

Think There is Still Some Chance of Securing Camp for Asheville.

The Asheville Rotary club will be represented at the annual meeting of the Southern Rotary clubs, which will he held at New Orleans January 12-13 yet. by E. E. Galer, secretary of the local club. Secretary Galer was selected as LEADER KITCHIN a delegate at the meeting of the local club held yesterday at the Langren hotel.

A committee, of which Dr. J. M.

Lynch was made chairman, was appointed by President Lee to investigate when it is intended to indicate to any their reports that the citizen's military camp, which it was thought might by his colleagues, gave the Indian come to Asheville, had been given to Georgia. The secretary was instruct.

(Continued From Page One).

Today is the last of the school year 1915, for a number of the schools and colleges in Asheville besides the Asheville public schools. Appropriate exercises are being conducted today at the Asheville School for Girls, at the Asheville School for Girls, at the Normal and Industrial college and in the south. committee, of which Dr. J. M. ed to take the matter up with Con- second to none seen in Washington in the Home school. grossman J. L. Britt at once and report at the next meeting.

In order that new life might put into the meetings and that stunts out of the ordinary could be put, on a special committee, of which Curtis Bynum was made chairman, was appointed to arrange a program of entertainment for the next weekly meethotel next Thursday afternoon

新聞新聞的問題的問題的問題的問題的問題的

Boy's F.ayer Service.
he regular weakly meeting of the Bible class at the Y. M. C. A. be held this evening. From 6:19 6:20 o'clock prayer service will be a and from 6:39 to 6:59 supper be served. Bey. W. M. Woodall the the leader tonight.

cumbs to Long Illness-Funeral at Waynesville.

Hamlin and Merritt Roberts were rid- Wednesday morning at Morganton afing when captured by officers on ter an illness of several months, aged charges of violating the anti-jug law, 49 years, Mr. Rhinehart had been a will be used in the case against the resident of Asheville for several years.

Selected at a Meeting of Joint have tires 6 inches wide. Then, again, have tires 6 inches wide. Then, again, have tires 6 inches wide. an order made by Magistrate B. L. store. A Knight of Pythias and also Lyda yesterday. The horse and a member of Mount Hermon lodge buggy are owned by Floyd Brown of Wasons and the Junior Order Uni-West Asheville who came into court ted American Mechanics, the deceased and claimed the property, but denied was known to a wide circle of friends that he knew of any of the transac- and acquaintances in this city. Havtions which are charged against Rob- ing conducted pharmacies in Wayrts and Hamlin.

The horse and buggy were turned well known by many people in this

Brown claimed that he place there this afternoon. hired the horse and buggy but did not know where the men were going or who lives in Waynesville; two know where the men were going or who lives in Waynesville; two brothers, D. F. Rhinehart of Waynesville and R. M. Rhinehart of Den-

The body was accompanied to Way The defendants were captured near ledge, No. 118, Masons, of Asheville nesville by the master of Mt. Hermon

CANTON MERCHANT

M. M. Wells, aged 46, a merchant of Canton, died at his home there yesterday at 1 o'clock. The deceased had been ill for about three weeks. He was a native of western North Carolina and had many friends throughout this section,

The deceased was a brother of Mrs. J. R. Treadway of this city and is also survived by several other sisters. The funeral services and interment will take place in Canton, although the A Number of Schools and Coldetails have not been announced as

FLOORED CRITIC

(Continued From Page One).

Willi-Paw, what do dark horses feed on? Paw-Straw votes, my son-

Be Buried Near Weaverville, at Old Home.

home No. 147 Charlotte street follow- press on road maintenance. ing a stroke of apoplexy, will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Weaverville. The services will be roads is not only a serious question in conducted by Rev. P. H. Mears, pastor of the First Christian church of trying to solve it. In West Virginia, this city and will be held in the lumber wagons are doing a great deal Methodist church at Weaverville. In- of damage to the public roads and terment will follow at the old home the county engineers are now putting place of the deceased, about two and in force an act recently passed at the a half miles northwest of Weaver-

Apparently enjoying good health, the deceased was at his place of business yesterday, although when he reached home last night he complained of a dizziness and soon at 1915: Where it is required that personnel of the second extraordinary session of fices. Placards in show windows were objected to and it was decided to refer all requests the second extraordinary session of fices. Placards in show windows were objected to and it was decided to refer all requests to the legislature of this state, enacted in the second extraordinary session of fices. plained of a dizziness and soon retired. Later his wife was attracted by a heavy breathing and called Drs. Reeves and Carl V. Reynolds, but the deceased was unconscious when they arrived and died

Dick Weaver, a native of the Weaverville section, was one of the best known men in this city, having been engaged in the livery business here since 1894 when he and E. C. Chambers formed a partnership. A tel was opened they took over the imprisonment, or both, automobile business of the hotel and "This action of the Mr. Weaver had an office in the hoa prominent figure at the annual several fraternal orders of this city do to roads, is by far the more pracand at one time was exalted ruler of tical and effective one, the local lodge of Elks.

He was 46 years of age, is survived by a widow, three children, two it is the users of the road that should sisters and four brothers and sever- pay the greater part of the cost of the al relatives in the Weaverville sec-

W.H. LORD TO BE SCHOOL ARCHITECT

Committee, Held at City Hall Yesterday.

Following several weeks of discus-Asheville, St. Louis, Atlanta, Winston-exterminate the "wheel tax." Mr. Rhinehart was a native of heard, the joint committee for the Waynesville and the funeral will take high school, at a meeting at the City work a hardship on any one and the hall veyterday afternoon at 5 closely hall yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock awarded the contract for drawing tain the roads." the plans for the building to William H. Lord, of this city.

Mr. Lord met this morning with members of the joint committee and discussed various details of the plans members of the joint committee and draw for the new building Several matters pertaining to the new high school were gone over and Mr. Lord was assured the members of the committee would accord him the clos est co-operation in his work.

It was necessary to take several ballots at the meeting yesterday af-ternoon before any decision was was reached as to an architect. The following firms received votes from home No. 41 Clyde street, will be held members of the committee: Smith this afternoon. The interment will and Carrier and W. J. East of this follow at Riverside cemetery. DIES AT HIS HOME city; Northrup and Phillips of Win-ston and William Ittner of St. Louis, having been employed by the street department as an engineman for many been selected the vote was made unanimous by the committee,

FOR VACATION

leges Are Today Conducting Closing Exercises.

A Small Percentage.
City Man-How many servants do fon keep? Suburbanite - About one sut of twelve.-Buffalo Express.

SERVICES OVER MR. ROAD MAINTENANCE ADVERTISING LAW WEAVER SUNDAY BY DR. J.H. PRATT

Prominent Business Man Will The Road Situation In North Merchants Take No Action on Carolina Is Gone Into by the Secretary.

Funeral services over the body of Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geo-Dick Weaver, one of Asheville's best logist, and secretary of the North Carknown business men, who died sud- olina Good Roads association, has predenly at 1 o'clock this morning at his pared an interesting article for the

The article is as follows: "The maintenance of our public extraordinary session of the last legis-sons, firms, etc., making continuous use of any piece of the country road, or driving thereon any wagon, etc., and by such use are causing more than the usual wear, such persons, etc., may be compelled to put thereon a section man or men to keep or assist in keeping said road in such repair as the court may order,

"Any person disobeying or refusing such orders shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon convicfew years ago when the Langren ho- tion thereof fined not to exceed $50 or

"This action of the West Virginia legislature is a move in the right ditel. He was an expert horseman and rection, but I am still of the opinion that the "wheel tax" method of fur shows which were held in Asheville a nishing a maintenance fund and of few years ago. He was a member of controlling the damage that vehicles "We tax all the people of the counties for the construction of roads, but maintenance of these roads and this will be accomplished by the "wheel tax," all the revenue therefrom being used for road maintenance and for no other purpose. "Vehicles will pay a "wheel tax" ac-said vehicle can do to the road. Thus a wagon capable of carrying 4,000 schools; President J. I. Foust of the though the hour has not been an-pounds and with wheels having tires State Normal college at Greensbore; nounced in keeping with the desired inches to 21/2 inches in width would if the front wheel of such wagon did not have the same tread as the rear wheels, the tax would be still lower. hold, the higher, proportionately, will superintendent of the Old Fort schools. tire, the "wheel tax" will be propor- the citizens of the town voted bonds Christian, Mass., where the president tionately lower. With automobiles the on, during which time architects of horsepower and weight of machine will house revenue derived from it will main

Funeral services over the body o J. I. Pressley, aged 63, who died Wednesday night at 9:30 o'clock at his and several children.

ADDITIONAL SOCIAL

***************

has been announced. The wedding was a run-away affair and came as a great surprise to the friends of the bride and groom. The ceremony oc-curred in Hendersonville on the afternoon of Saturday, December 11, at the home of Mrs. W. F. Dotson on Anderson avenue. The contracting parties from Spartanburg and Rev. K. W. Cawthorn, paster of the First joined in a demonstration that was second to none seen in Washington in any years, at the next meeting.

The secretary was instruct, the meeting of the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the next meeting.

The secretary was instruct, the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the next meeting.

The secretary was instruct, the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the next meeting.

The secretary was instruct to care the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the next meeting.

The secretary was instruct to care the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the next meeting.

The secretary was instruct.

The secretary was instruct to care the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the second to none seen in Washington in the seen at the second to none seen in Washington in the seed to the second to none seen in Washington in the seed to the second to none seen in Washington in the seed to the second to none seen in Washington in the seed to the second to none seen in Washington in the seed to the second to none seen in Washington in the seed of the second to none seen in Washington in the seed of the second to none seen in Washington in the seed the second to none seen in Washington in the seed they are the seed of the second to none seen in Washington in the seed of the seed o

Only One "HROMO QUININE"
To get the genuine, call for full name,
LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE, Look

WAS DISCUSSED

Bill to Regulate National Advertising.

Stevens' Maintenance bill to fix uniform prices for nationally advertised three times a night. This is the time pressure. goods received thorough discussion at goods received thorough discussion at the meeting of the Merchants' association the meeting of the Merchants' association last night in the association hall on Broadway. No action was hall on Broadway. No action was sidered again at a meeting to be called later.

Closing hours for the holiday shopping period were decided upon as follows: Beginning Monday the stores will remain open until 9 o'clock in the evening until Wednesday; after that date the merchants will keep open as long as they desire.

objected to and it was suggested that space inside the stores be given for these cards.

of trade in an effort to have the civllian's military camp located

SCHOOL BUILDING

Leading Educators Will Attend Exercises at Old Fort —Splendid Structure.

Prominent state and county educators will meet at Old Fort this afternoon to attend the exercises in dedica- the application the president's age was tion of the new high school building given at fifty-nine years and Mrs. at that place. State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner; D. F. Giles, superintendording to the amount of damage that ent of school of Wake county, formerly head of the McDowell County Superintendent W. H. Hipps of of the couple to have the affair strictly Buncombe and Harry Howell, superin. a private one. It has not been disexpected to be present at the ceremonies and delivered addresses.

of about $29,000, is considered one of made to avoid publicity. The gen-The heavier the load the wagon will the finest in the state. N. F. Stepp is cral impression among friends, howbe the "wheel tax" and the wider the In an election held some months ago spent somewhere in the south. Pass for the construction of the new school has spent some of his vacation time,

J. E. Bourne of Raleigh Passed Through Asheville on Way to the Show.

The annual Seed Corn show in Madison county is being held today at prices were somewhat irregular. Marshall, T. E. Browne of Raleigh, in charge of the corn club work in the state, passed through Ashevilla yesterday afternoon en route to Marshall to attend the exhibition,

Under the leadership of John R. Sams of Mars Hill the agricultural interests of Madison, with a fertile soil as a foundation, have made great strides. Mr. Browne will return to Asheville this evening to be present at the corn event here tomorrow.

The marriage of Miss Eva Edwards and N. B. Horton of Spartanburg has been announced. The MRS. LANGHORNE BROOKS

Plaintiff One of Famous Langhorne Sisters of Virginia-Allowance Continued.

Charlottesville, Va., Dec. 17.—Mis. Phyllis Brooks, one of the famous

be glad if she left him.

According to dispatches from London, published last spring. Mrs. Brooks, who was then visiting her sister, Mrs. William Waldorf Astor, in London, was beneficiary under wills of two English army officers, Captain Ksoryflie, her son, urg. Fia.

Hon. William Reginald Wyndham, of the Grenadier guards, and Captain The Grenadier guards, and Captain The Whom died last winter from wounds received on hattlefields in France.

Besides Mrs. Astor, Mrs. Brooks has (we other married sisters, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, of New York; and Mrs. Paul Phipps, of Vancouver.

WHY "ANURIC"

Is An Insurance Against Sudden Death Sufferers from Backache, Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble

Before an Insurance company will erful agent in dissolving unitake a risk on your life the examining hot water melts sugar, best physician will test the urine and reabsolutely harmless and is with other property. physician will test the urine and re-port whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-theroughly cleansing them. By clog, you sugger from backaged twinges many times more active than and pains of lumbago, rheumatism clears the heart valves of an and gout. The urine is often cloudy, substances which may close full of sediment; channels often get checks the degeneration of the sore and sleep is disturbed two or vessels, as well as regulating the state of the second s you should consult some physician of surance and life-saver for all his large trial package of his new discov- in 50-cent packages ery-"Anuric." Write him your symptoms and send a sample of urine for test. Experience has taught Dr. Pierce that "Anuric" is the most pow-clears the heart valves of any

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for liver and bowels have been favor known for nearly 50 years.

MARRIAGE LICENSE OF PRESIDENT IS ISSUED

President L. B. Rogers was ap-ointed to act with the local board Document Obtained by Chief Usher Hoover and Then Delivered to the President.

> Washington, Dec. 17 .- President Wilson's marriage license was issued yesterday at the local municipal bureau. It disclosed for the first time that the ceremony Saturday night will be performed by a clergyman of Mrs. Galt's faith, the Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's Episcopal church. The president himself is a Presbyterian, and an elder in his

> The license was issued to Chief Usher Hoover, of the white hous staff, who went to the bureau, made out the necessary forms and paid the regular fee. Afterward he delivered the document to the president. In Galt's as forty-three.

The wedding ceremony will be performed at Mrs. Galt's home Saturday night, probably about 9 o'clock, alnounced, in keeping with the desire tendent of the Asheville schools, are closed where the bride and groom will go on their honeymoon journey or when they will leave the capital. The new structure, erected at a cost All their plans have been carefully ever, is that the honeymoon will be has been among the likely places men-

It seems to be settled that the wed ding journey will not be made on the presidential yacht Mayflower as was once contemplated. It was decided that such a trip would entail a cold CORN SHOW TODAY sea voyage of at least two days before the ship would get into pleasant weather south.

Financial

New York, Dec. 17.—The stock market manifested a decided tend-ency at the opening today to make up some of the ground lost in yesterday's late selling movement, although

Baldwin Locomotive rose three points to 116, and Studebaker, Crucible Steel, Texas company and Mexi-can Petroleum were higher by one to three points, United States Steel, Anaconda and other speculative favorites improved.

Initial dealings in steel comprised individual lots of 1,500 to 2,500 shares.
Anglo-French bonds advanced to 25% and later yielded a half.

NEW YORK COTTON.

New York, Dec. 17.—Cotton futures opened steady: December 12 offered;
January 11.89; March 12.16; May 12.42; July 12.54; October 12.18.

CARLESSNESS IN B

Communities is in Dwell Greater Suburban Proport A fire loss of $3 per year for man, woman and child in the D States, as against 33 cents per in European countries, was dist the chief reason why greater should be taken to prevent fru an address by Fire Marshal Ge W. Elliott, before a meeting of Union Fire Association of Lower ion in Fire Association Hall, C

"Despite all efforts to fight fire it has started, America is h $250,000,000 worth of physical a erty every year, or $3 per o he said. "The three dollars repr the price paid for carele every man, woman and child is United States."

PRIMARY SCHOOL EX

Our feeling is that the most able, efficient and satisfactory me of exit from a primary school b ing are stairways enclosed where sible. Stairways to be used ab exclusively by small children sh of course, be adapted to their st The Ohio State building cods quires that in primary schools the of steps shall not exceed six in and he width of tread shall be less than eleven inches. This p tion would give an easy and safe ho ing for both ascent and des Winders in such stairways should prohibited, and hand-rails sh provided on each side. School be ings should be provided with at least two such means of exit. In our jul ment the ordinary fire escape the not be permitted.-Ira H. Wooden

LAND AND LOAN ASSOCIA TIONS.

Ambassador Herrick says: "A mo gage on the farm will cease to be object of dread."

By means of a system of a loans, America can with truth a "The American Home, the Sales of American Liberties," and friends of the city as well as on t farm, will be able to permanently nance their own real estate los The farmer can pay his annuity for the earnings of the soft and have fair balance for the comforts and h uries of life and contemplate with complainancy the leaving of the ter to his children, who could in the easy manner continue to pay the nuity until the debt was finally on

Chapel Hill, Dec. 17.—Dr. Jord Hyde Pratt, state geologist, has to Worcester, Mass., as the guest the chamber of commerce of We Chapel Hill, Dec. 17.-Dr. J

H. REDWOOD & CO.

For Christmas Gifts Buy Her a fine tailored Suit or a coat or both; you can get fine goods

At the least little outlay. Read this schedule, please: On Suits: $45 garments are $34....$23 are $19.50....$25 are $16.50....$26 are $13.50....$15 are $11....$12.50 are $9....$10 are $7.75.

On Coats: $33 garments are $21....$20 are $14....$18 are 11.75....$15 are $10....$12.50 are $8.75....$9.75 are $7.50.... 8 are $5.50....$6 are $4.75....$4.75 are $3.75.

Ladies' and Misses' Hats: $3 hats are $1.75....$1.65 are $1.25....$1.65 are $1.25....$1.25 are $2.00.

A Large Discount on Men's and Boys' Colored Suits and Overcoats

What better Christmas Gift for any one? You can now buy choice apparel at no net profit to us and is several instances at much less than the first cost to us