Williams, who devotes his entire time to the comfort of strangers, especially those who are lonely or distressed. Those who desire a visit from him are requested to notify him. His residence is 145 West Chestnut

Has "Watchful Waiting" Exhausted the Nation's Patience?

The temper of the American people which has been sorely tried by the continuous indignities and murders in Mexico has risen to white heat at the latest outrage resulting in the slaughter of nearly a score of peaceful and unarmed American citizens by Mexican bandits at Santa Ysabel on January 10th. In the United States Senate stormy speeches attacking the President's policy in Mexico have been uttered by Senators who have not heretofore been noted for belligerent utterances. Newspapers throughout the country, both Republican and Democratic, have made an emphatic demand for the safety of Americans in Mexico, even at the price of armed intervention.

What Do the People Want?

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for January 22d the leading magazine gives a complete survey of the Mexican situation and presents the gist of public opinion from every angle as printed in the newspaper press. At no time since the troubles in Mexico began has the outlook, as it concerns the American people, assumed so grave a character as at the present time. Thoughtful Americans, whatever their politics, will read this number of "The Digest" carefully, because from it they will secure an unbiased view of public feeling.

The Progressive Prodigal's Return

Other articles of great interest in this number are as follows:

Weary of the Husks, As Some Picture It, the Progressive Prodigal Has Arisen and Announced His Intention to Return to His Father, But There Is No Humility in His Action—No, Indeed!

FACTS—FACTS—FACTS

You Americans who know how to weigh the merits of a case and pass intelligent judgment—THE LITERARY DIGEST is for you. Here is a magazine that recognizes your ability to decide for yourself—whose editors offer you no biased opinions of their own—a source of all-sided information which will enable you to use your own power of decision. Every week the Press of the world is scoured for all the relating factors and opinions so that The Digest can present every subject from every angle. There is no personal "Pro" sentiments in its pages. The man will be disappointed who looks for partizanship slant in its editorial policy. This magazine is for him who asks for the facts and then decides for himself. Buy the Digest this week and see.

The Good Samaritan Mission was organized four years ago to employ a chaplain to give his entire time to the comfort of strangers. It has been maintained by the churches and secret orders and benevolent individuals. More than 50 ladies of the city are members of the auxiliary to the mission and are working hard to provide for its maintenance, and to aid in carrying on the work of its different departments.
Strangers in the city who wish a visit from the chaplain are requested to notify him by telephone or letter.
