

Week's Social Events In Western North Carolina

HENDERSONVILLE

Mrs. W. B. W. Howe and children returned from a visit to Florida.

P. E. Seagle of Raleigh is in the city on business this week.

J. M. Gilbert of Ottanola was in the city on Monday.

Miss Bertie West has returned from a visit of some length in Knoxville.

Miss S. V. McCullough has returned from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Duff of Clover, C., are guests of the Cedars.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Holmes of Atlanta are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Williams.

W. A. Garland of Spartanburg spent several days this week in the city on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Byram left this week for Charlotte after spending several weeks here.

The friends of Ben Few will be glad to learn that he is able to be out again.

P. E. Seagle of Raleigh delivered an address on Phonics to the grade school teachers on Tuesday afternoon.

T. W. Valentine made a very instructive talk to the high school pupils on Monday morning.

Miss Adele Woodall has returned from Philadelphia where she has been visiting her people.

Misses Mary and Virginia Brent Ewanks are visiting friends at Flat Rock this week.

Dr. W. B. W. Howe has returned from New Orleans, where he has been for the past six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bartlett of Virginia are the guests of Mrs. A. E. Sample.

Miss Agnes E. Van Kirk, the rectory assistant of St. James' parish, spent Thursday in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hines recently of Asheville, are now making their home in Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Valentine have been spending some time in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mack Rhodes have moved into the Caldwell house preparatory to remodeling their home at 422 1/2 5th avenue, west.

Miss Elizabeth Corriher recently returned from the mission field gave a return Tuesday afternoon at the First Baptist church.

On Thursday evening of next week there will be a choral recital in the school auditorium for the benefit of the Patton Memorial hospital.

Miss Julia Brookshire of Blountville is in Hendersonville, made two stops here on Tuesday with a motorcycle party en route to and from Tryon.

E. Alice and Y. Roulin, of Rouen, France, were registered at the Kentucky home last week. Their mission to America is to buy lumber for the French government.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church gave a silver tea at the residence of Mrs. W. Hicks Justus, from 2 to 5 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

The wedding tour of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Saylor, the latter of whom was Miss Patsy Palmer of this city includes a stop at Pinehurst and a visit to relatives in Richmond and Bedford City, Va. They will reach their home in North Dakota about the first of April.

Earl Hallman conducted high school chapel exercises on Friday morning. There were recitations by Misses Helen Carmichael and Dolly Pusey; piano solos by Misses Lenora Johnson and Gladys Waldrop; and readings by Misses Irene Caldwell and Nora Justice. Rev. W. F. Womble had charge of devotional exercises and an address on preparedness was delivered by Mr. Orr of Fruitland institute.

Dr. A. C. Tebeau, accompanied by Mrs. Tebeau, sang a solo at the chapel exercises of the pupils of Miss Stansel and Miss Patterson recently. Besides scriptural recitation and songs by the pupils there was a recitation and panegyric by Misses Sarah Valentine and Martha Dixon. Among the visitors were Mrs. A. Ficker, Miss Elsie Ficker and Miss Sarah Willis Wheelwright.

The Womens club of Hendersonville expect to have a dahlia show in August. Every woman in the county is cordially invited to take part in making this show of beautiful flowers a real success. There will be no charge for entering exhibits, but the club will have the right to sell the flowers after they have been exhibited. Numerous prizes will be given for collections, single flowers, colors, etc. Full particulars will be given later, but in the mean time let every woman in the county do what she can to make this the finest flower show ever given in western North Carolina.

STATESVILLE

S. H. Garrison went to Rock Hill, S. C., Wednesday to spend a few days with relatives.

Mrs. W. J. Kitchin and daughter of Columbus, Ind., are visiting at J. R. Abernethy's, in Cool Springs township.

Mrs. J. DeWitte Ramsey and little son, William Porter Ramsey, went to Russellville, Ky., Wednesday to spend a month with relatives.

Goe, Marsh, who spent several weeks in Florida, returned Wednesday to his home at Hixdenite.

R. H. Richert returned Wednesday from a lecturing tour for the Knights of Pythias.

E. R. Rankin of Tryon has joined Mrs. Rankin here.

Rothly Warren has returned from Virginia, where he was at work for the Du Pont company.

R. O. Self went to Webster Wednesday to spend a few days with home folks.

Mrs. T. D. Miller left last night for Camden, Ala., to visit her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Hunter.

M. L. Mauney is spending a week at Murphy.

Mrs. R. T. Joyce of Mount Olive, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. G. Gilmer for several days, left Thursday to visit friends in Concord.

Mrs. L. S. Raymer of Shiloh township left last night for Campobello, S. C., where she joins her son, R. A. Raymer, and family, and all leave Monday for a three-weeks' trip in Florida and Cuba.

Miss Blanche Dotson and Emmet Morrison were married Wednesday evening at 6:15 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Gorge W. Dotson, 338 west Front street. Dr. C. E. Raynal, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. As Miss Katie Lou Steele played the Lohengrin wedding march, Dr. Raynal took his position in front of an altar banked with green and white of many pretty potted plants and cut flowers, interspersed with candles. Then came the flower girl, little Blanche Gaither, niece of the bride, wearing a white net dress over pink silk with pink butterfly bow at back and hair-bow of same. She carried a basket of pink sweet peas. Next came the groom with his best man, W. H. Morrison. The bride entered with her brother, Gorge W. Dotson. She wore a blue cloth suit with taffeta trimmings, with hat, gloves and shoes of grey and coral of valley lilies and ferns. The ring service was used and "Hearts and Flowers" was softly played during the ceremony. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the party left the room. The gift room, where Mr. and Mrs. Morrison received the congratulations of their friends, was decorated in yellow and green. There were many gifts of cut glass, china, silver and linen. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Martha M. Dotson and the late Senator Jas. F. Dotson. The groom travels for the Frick company. The couple left on No. 12 for a northern bridal trip and on their return will be at home at Mrs. W. J. Poston's.

Mrs. G. E. Hughey entertained the G. G. club and a large number of friends Wednesday afternoon. Hearts was played at eight tables and the prize, a pot of pink hyacinths, was won by Mrs. A. P. Steele. Tomatoes with sandwiches and iced tea, followed by a mousse and cake, were served. The house was decorated with vases of jonquils.

Miss Bessie Simon entertained the Merry-Makers Monday afternoon. Progressive games were played and Miss Maude Guy won the prize. A salad cotrage and sweets were served.

Mrs. W. J. Morrison of Fallstown township gave a birthday dinner Wednesday and a large number of guests were present. Among those from town were H. P. Grier, Zeb. Long and J. M. Deaton.

Mrs. M. C. Wood was hostess to the Electric Book club Wednesday afternoon. It was announced at this meeting that the club president, Mrs. B. P. Long, assisted by other club ladies, would co-operate with Dr. Carpenter in the observance of Baby Week, or rather Baby Day, which day will be set apart some time in April, to discuss how baby life can be conserved and the general advancement of baby welfare. Demonstrations by nurses of proper diet for infants will be made, and advice and instruction in matters pertaining to the hygiene of motherhood will be discussed by physicians. Delegates were appointed to attend District Reciprocity day, which will be held in Salisbury April 7. Quite a number of the club members decided to attend. Mrs. Adams read a paper on Costa Rica, and the banana industry. Mrs. C. V. Henkel following with an entertaining paper on Havana. Mrs. Dorman Thompson, in her usual gracious and captivating way, sang "When Spring Comes to the Islands," by Herman Lehr. Mrs. William Wallace played beautifully Strauss' Transmerci. The discussion of Current Events was led by Mrs. Dorman Thompson. Guests of the club were Mesdames W. M. Barvinger, C. A. Turner and C. E. Raynal. A lunch of several courses was served by the hostess.

MARION

Mrs. C. L. Self has returned from a visit to relatives in Shelby.

S. B. Penick of New York city was here on business during the week.

Carroll Baldwin of New York city is a guest at the home of H. F. Little.

Mrs. B. L. Ashworth visited her sister, Mrs. A. D. Stoner, at Billmore last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Little of Spartanburg, S. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hugh F. Little.

Mrs. Sara L. Copeland and little daughter, Mary Virginia, are visiting relatives and friends in Raleigh.

Mrs. Annie Trexler and little son of Chattanooga, Tenn., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. B. M. Stepe.

Misses Nellie and Emma Sullivan of Rock Hill, S. C., spent the week end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Page.

Mrs. E. F. Greenlee and daughter, Miss Mary Gordon, have returned home after spending some time in Spartanburg, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Morris will soon move into their new home, now being built on the macadam road, near the Clinchfield mill.

The Ladies Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. Q. Gilkey.

D. D. King and Miss Jessie Pruett, both of Lenoir, were married at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday. Rev. L. D. Thompson officiating.

Ernest Stallworth, formerly assistant cashier of the Bank of Woodruff, Woodruff, S. C., has accepted the position of paymaster and credit clerk at the Marion Manufacturing company.

Mrs. C. E. Guy and baby of Newland are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Landis. They were accompanied by Mr. Guy, who was here over Sunday.

W. H. Wall and Miss Francis McCulloch were married recently at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McCulloch, the Rev. Wm. H. Moore officiating.

Mrs. Grover C. Greene and two little children left Friday to join her husband in Lenoir, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Greene is a daughter of Mrs. M. A. Clark of this place.

Mrs. A. L. Page has returned from Rock Hill, S. C., where she has been at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Etta Sullivan, who was recently burned very badly. Mrs. Sullivan is reported as recovering rapidly.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kirstein, Rev. S. T. Moore of Fairview, officiating, there was solemnized a beautiful wedding of great social interest to this section. The happy couple concerned were Miss Lydia Isabelle Kirstein of Flat Creek and Joe Garrison of Broad river. The parlor was beautifully decorated with evergreens. The bride's dress was a blue silk, daintily trimmed with white lace. Following the ceremony an elaborate dinner was served, after which the happy couple drove to the home of W. A. B. Garrison, father of the groom.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the entertainment of the Sans Souci club by Mrs. J. Q. Gilkey recently. Four tables were arranged in the hall and parlor for 108. Spring flowers and potted plants were attractively arranged throughout the house. St. Patrick was much in evidence, the score cards were dainty Irish maidens with appropriate quotations. At the conclusion of the game, the living room was thrown open and the hostess invited her guests to find their places at one long table by means of beautiful place cards. The table was lovely in snowy white trimmed in green. The center was alternating green Irish hats and miniature flags and shamrocks and pipes were additions to the already perfect table. An elegant course, luncheon was served, the St. Patrick idea being perfectly carried out in every detail.

HICKORY

F. A. Clinard of Happy Valley is the guest of his son, W. L. Clinard.

C. L. Proffitt, Caldwell farm demonstrator, was in the city Wednesday.

Dr. F. S. Steele went to Conover Tuesday.

Prof. C. M. Stanley is confined to his home with grip.

Donald Shuford, who is attending school at Patterson spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shuford.

Thomas Henderson has accepted a position with the Ed Mellon clothing store in Charlotte.

Miss Helen Troup of the Claremont faculty, spent the week end with relatives in Greensboro.

Miss Frances Geltner who has been spending a few days with her parents, has returned to St. Mary's.

Claude B. West of Durham is here spending a few days with his wife.

Mrs. A. K. Joy, who has been the guest of her brother, Arthur Ingold of Morganton, has returned home.

Misses Mattie Moya Adams and Huyla Hughes have returned to their homes, after a visit to Miss Kate Elliott. They were the recipients of much social attention while in this city.

Frank Reinhardt of Newton, was a Hickory visitor Monday.

G. H. Geltner has gone on a business trip to southern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sutherland, Mrs. F. B. Gwinn, Mrs. L. B. Gwinn and Misses Eva Penny and Alice Witherspoon were in Charlotte recently.

Mrs. G. R. Wootten, Mrs. S. H. Parabee, Mrs. P. A. Sigmund and Misses Mabel Miller and Lula Fry were in Charlotte recently.

J. H. C. Huitt of Catawba was a Hickory visitor Monday.

Misses Myrtle and Lottie Suttlemyer spent the week end in Conover with relatives.

Leslie Candler of Charlotte spent the week end here with his parents.

Mrs. J. W. Self has returned to her home in Lenoir after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Shuford at Conover.

Paul and Jake Allred, William Hamrick and Macy Hight have gone to Detroit, Mich.

Robert Read spent the week end in Statesville.

Miss Mae Rhodes of Lincolnton is the guest of Miss Ester Schultz at Lenoir college.

Miss Mary McRorie of Statesville spent the week end with her brother, W. E. McRorie.

Dr. J. J. Hicks has gone to visit his daughter, Mrs. A. D. McLendon at Dovesville, S. C.

Mrs. W. A. Hall and Master Bill, and Rufus Bryan spent Sunday in Happy Valley.

Miss Adelaide Johnson has returned home from an extended visit to Washington, D. C., and different points in Virginia. She was the recipient of much social attention during her visit.

Mrs. Geo. A. Hoy's and Mrs. T. L. Hennessy are the guest of Mrs. S. C. Cornwell.

Dr. O. L. Holler has returned from New York, where he spent some time studying clinics in the post graduate hospital of that city.

Ralph Little and children of Newton are the guests of Mrs. James C. Shuford.

Mrs. Richard Reithmuller of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mrs. Albert Abernethy.

Mrs. Annie Reud has returned from Baltimore and New York.

Mrs. J. V. Harper and Miss Katherine of Gastonia spent Monday here with Mrs. R. A. Grimes.

Mrs. Frank Cooper of Lincolnton will spend the week-end in Hickory the guest of Mrs. R. A. Grimes.

The Mission Study class of the Presbyterian church was entertained by Mrs. Lawrence Cline and Mrs. Prevost recently. The leaders were Mrs. Prince and Mrs. W. B. Ramsey. At this meeting the book which has been studied this year, "The King's Highway," was completed, and every one pronounced it a very interesting and instructive book, throwing side lights on the foreign mission question.

The Abel A. Shuford chapter of the U. D. C. will meet with Miss Ada Hehenick at the home of Mrs. R. A. Grimes Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Katherine Lperly delightfully entertained 22 of her little friends Tuesday afternoon to celebrate her sixth birthday. Cake and cream were served, and each guest was presented with a "sainty ton bon basket" filled with candy.

HICKORY

Miss Emma Carpenter left Monday for a visit to relatives and friends at Charlotte, High Point and Thomasville.

The Rutherfordton Chapter O. E. S. will install their officers-elect for next year next Monday at 8 o'clock.

Gorge Mills, who was summoned to to his home here on account of the death of his father, Col. John C. Mills returned to Annapolis Tuesday to resume his studies at the United States Naval academy.

C. R. Haynes and Charles H. Haynes of Cliffside and J. L. Morgan of Marion were here Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Norris left for Philadelphia Sunday, having been summoned to that city on account of the illness of their daughter, Miss Susan Norris, who is in school there. The young lady's many friends here wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. M. H. and Miss Martha Justice entertained delightfully at their home Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Kenneth Spencer Tanner, whose recent arrival in Rutherfordton as the attractive bride of the popular mill president has given much pleasure to a large circle of friends and relatives. Three tables of Bridges, were arranged for the guests, with dainty score cards, and the interesting game continued from 3 to 5. Mrs. Tanner won first prize, a beautiful hand embroidered bureau scarf, and Mrs. Mike Justice, Jr., won second, a lovely white and blue hand embroidered apron. An elegant salad course, followed by delicious Charlotte russe, wafers and cakes, was served immediately after the game and before leaving each guest was given pretty little souvenir baskets in white and pink filled with pink mints. The invited guests were: Mesdames Mitt Clarke, M. Levi, R. S. Eaves, York Coleman Lollie Hicks, Revelly, Earl W. Justice, J. L. Geer, M. L. Justice and Misses Madge Wilkins and Mary Dickerson. Mrs. Justice and Miss Martha were tailored gowns of brown chiffon with cream net accessories and Mrs. Tanner and Mrs. Mike Justice, Jr., were both gowned in dark blue taffeta with velvet and lace trimmings.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church met last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. C. F. Geer on North Main street. Mrs. Geer is always a good hostess and she kept up her reputation on this occasion. After the business session closed the usual social hour was spent in a very enjoyable way. Those present were: Mesdames J. D. Hull, R. R. Simmons, J. C. Cowan, J. L. Dobbins, Carrie Wilkins, Alice Falls, Albert Sherrill, C.

RUTHERFORDTON

D. Geer, Bonnie Wright, John Kistler, John Anderson, L. E. Powers and J. C. Carpenter.

The many friends here of Miss Sallie Beam and C. C. Clark will learn with interest of their marriage which took place at Columbia, S. C., recently. Immediately after the marriage the happy couple left for Tampa, Fla., and other points south to spend their honeymoon after which they will return to Rutherfordton. Both are quite popular and well known throughout western North Carolina.

The Senior Philathea class of the Methodist church gave a Saint Patrick's day social Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. F. Geer. All members of the Senior Philathea class of the Presbyterian church were guests of the Methodist class on this occasion.

*****
FRANKLIN
*****

G. F. Crisp of route four was in town recently.

Robert Hyatt of Otto was in Franklin recently.

Will Parrish of Otto was in town on business recently.

Ed Sanders of Gneiss, N. C., was in town recently.

Mrs. James Roper of Speedwell, N. C., visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Grbe arrived in the city recently from Hall county, Ga.

Rev. E. B. Bell and wife of Highlands were in the city Thursday.

Mrs. W. W. Jones returned home Saturday, after spending several months in Memphis, Tenn.

J. T. and C. B. Bryson of Cullasaja were in Franklin recently on business.

Mrs. W. J. Hudson returned home Saturday from a visit to relatives and friends in Demorest, Ga.

Register of Deeds Elmer Johnson moved his family into his new residence across the river last week.

Miss Lynn Johnston and Master Robert Johnston went to Asheville recently.

Rev. D. S. Richardson of route two was in town recently.

Mrs. Fannie Hopper was in Atlanta last week.

Arthur Waldrop of route on was in the city recently.

MURPHY

Mrs. A. S. Clarke of Copperhill is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Abernethy.

A. J. Williamson of Persimmon creek was here Tuesday.

Little Wayne Townsend of Copperhill spent last week with his grandfather, R. H. Sneed.

R. S. and J. W. Porter, prominent Andrews business men were here this week on business.

A. A. Fain, Cherokee county's efficient clerk of court, made a business trip to Asheville Tuesday.

Paul Sneed left recently for Copperhill where he has a position in the Tennessee Copper company's store.

Capt. and Mrs. M. A. Hyatt, who have been spending the winter with relatives at Miami, Fla., have returned.

Col. and Mrs. Wm. Buft of Blue Ridge were the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fain, for the week end.

J. H. McCall made a visit to Blairsville this week.

G. W. Candler went to Dilleboro Wednesday to visit his mother.

J. N. Moody and F. G. Whitaker will attend court at Robbinsville, which convenes Monday.

S. Casparis of Columbus, O., and Dr. Allard Memminger of Charleston, S. C., are visiting here recently.

Mrs. John Ross McClelland has returned from a visit with friends and relatives at Etowah, Tenn.

Friends of Mrs. J. M. Abernathy of Hangingdog will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

REMOVAL NOTICE

POND AND POND.

Detective Counsellors

From 31 American Nat. Bldg.

to

Rooms 12-13-14-15 Dhrumor Building.

Phone 2171.

A Message By Mail or By Telephone, Which?

"Every letter written in a business house costs somewhere between twenty and fifty cents. The stamp is the smallest item. Stationery, stenographer's time--all bring the actual cost of a letter higher than most people imagine."

Jas. H. Collins.

It is more Economical than Telephone

Not only does it actually cost less to telephone your message but you reach your man instantly, talk over your business personally, and get an immediate reply.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station.

ASHEVILLE TEL. & TEL. COMPANY

ARDEN NOTES.

Mrs. Clark of Richmond, Va., is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. William Pinner.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frances Lambert a son.

Mrs. Ernest Kammer entertained the Current Literary Book club Thursday afternoon.

Friends will be glad to learn that J. T. Adams is recovering from a severe attack of rheumatism and able to be up again.

Mrs. Ernest Medd is expected soon on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hickman.

Rev. Mr. Hill gave a most delightful talk Sunday afternoon at the Red Men's hall.