OFFERINGS AT THE LOCAL THEATERS

Managers of local theaters make the following announcements today:

COMING ATTRACTIONS.
At the Auditorium.
"Twin Beds," Saturday, March 25.
Margaret Illington in "The Lie," Monday, March 27.

"Twin Beds."
The advance seat sale opened today for "Twin Beds," the laugh festival by Salisbury Field and Margaret Mayo which held New York in thrall for 52 weeks, and been chosen by Selwyn & Company, as their attraction at the Auditorium on Saturday, when they will present this wholesome and indescribably amusing farce with a skillful company. A delicate story is told in "Twin Beds" of the dire calamity that befalls when six people, assorted in couples and housed on three floors of a fashionable big apartment building, have a neighborliness thrust upon them which fate never intended when they were born; and of the difficulties of acquiring peace and quiet in the home when nothing separates the home from every other home but a few inconspicuous feet of lather and plaster.

KATHARINE DALY.
In "Twin Beds" at the Auditorium Saturday.

"The Lie."
It is some time since theater-goers have seen a play by Henry Arthur Jones, the distinguished English playwright, and it is several years since the charming emotional actress, Miss Margaret Illington has been seen locally. Mr. Jones has had perhaps more plays produced in this country than any other author of foreign birth and this theatrical season, two of his plays are being presented with great success. Miss Margaret Illington is presenting for a second year "The Lie," and Otis Skinner "The Cook of the Walk." In the early autumn of 1914, Miss Illington produced "The Lie," at the Harris theater, New York city, and so great was the success of the star and play that they stayed the season out in that city. It is said that as "Ellnor Shale," Miss Illington has a part that excels anything she has yet given to the stage, and theater-goers remember her portrayals of Marsie in "The Thief," Maggie Schmitt in "Kindling" and Mary Turner in "Within the Law."

The story that Mr. Jones has told in his four act play, is all about one lie—one mean, cruel, traitorous lie. At least three lives are made miserable by its telling, including that of the liar, and other lives drawn in the whirlpool of wretchedness. The company to be seen in the support of Miss Illington is one of exceptional merit including such well known players as C. Aubrey Smith, G. W. Anson, Mercedes Desmore, Richard Hatteras and others of the New York cast. Miss Illington's coming engagement in "The Lie," is being looked forward to with much interest by theatergoers who like and enjoy the best of drama. Miss Illington and "The Lie," come to the Auditorium on Monday, March 27.

At The Galax.
"The Incurrible Dukane," a unique combination of tragedy, comedy and romance, by George C. Shedd, provides John Barrymore, the popular stage and film favorite, with one of the most unusual characterizations he has yet impersonated on the screen. The comedy of the subject is derived from a series of ludicrous misfortunes of which the young and incurrible Dukane is the constant victim; the tragedy emanates from the thrilling manner in which the young ne'er-do-well redeems himself, and saves the fortune and honor of his father; and the romance develops in the usual manner of youth. Charlie Chaplin in "Mabel's Married Life" and the latest Paramount Pictographs will also be shown today in connection with "The Incurrible Dukane." Today's Pictograph shows "Measuring Baby," "Are You in the Right Job?" and a political cartoon by Bray. Tomorrow Holbrook Blinn and Frances Nelson will be seen in the five-part drama, "The Family Cupboard." Pathe news will also be shown tomorrow.

Belgium Minstrels.
The Belgium Relief Minstrels, under the management of John Hawes, will appear at the Auditorium tonight in aid of the work of the North Carolina Commission for Relief in Belgium and it is expected that a large and representative audience will gather in the city's largest theater to witness the performance of the minstrels which have organized especially for the object of furthering the work of the commission.

The minstrels have already appeared in several towns and the advance notices indicate that an enjoyable entertainment is in store for all who attend the performance this evening. A corps of excellent singers and entertainers is with the company, it is stated, and included in the roster of the company are names of well known people of Asheville. The entire production is declared to be one of unusual merit and has won commendation in the cities where it has been presented. The performance will begin at 8:30 o'clock and the advance seat sale gives promise, according to the management, of a large attendance of Asheville people who are in hearty sympathy with the plan to help the needy Belgians.

At the Princess.
Beverly Bayne and Bryant Washburn will be seen in an amusing comedy drama called "One Girl in a Thousand," at the Princess today. In addition to this comedy drama a Universal weekly, "Fate Decides," a Rex drama and Alice Howell in the two reel L-Ko comedy called "Dad's Dollars and Dirty Doings," will be shown. Tomorrow the personally picked program will consist of "Cupid Trips His Lordship," a comedy, and "Blue Blood-Black Skins," a two part L-Ko comedy. "Shackles," a Nestor comedy drama, will complete the program.

At The Strand.
The big attraction at the Strand today is the Triangle production which was produced by Thomas H. Ince personally, "Peggy," starring the renowned actress Hattie Burke. This is the first screen appearance of this famous stage favorite and the fact that she takes the leading role in this unusual comedy-drama, which is in seven parts, is alone worth the seeing of "Peggy." It is claimed, supporting Miss Burke are a number of Triangle stars, among whom are, Charles Ray who won fame in the "Coward" when seen at the Strand sometime ago, and who plays the role of leading man in this seven part production. There is a beautiful story in "Peggy" and this dainty little star takes her role in a manner which the critics state unsurpassable. All the cities where "Peggy" has been shown have lauded this play and the newspapers have been generous in their press notices regarding the sensation of this filmplay. Due to the length of this production the management states that there will be no Keystone comedy today, and the management also announces that there will be no advance in prices. The Strand orchestra will play especially composed Triangle music at the afternoon and evening performances.

"LONESOME ISLAND" AT THE MAJESTIC

"The Lonesome Island," a new musical farce comedy production in one act, will be the offering presented for the last half of the week at the Majestic theater by the Harry Carr Musical Comedy company opening at the matinee this afternoon. "The Lonesome Island" is declared to be one of the most popular bills ever played by this company and commendatory notices from other cities are said to praise it very highly. Distinguishing this production it is stated will be an entire change of scenic effects, wardrobe, comedy, songs and jokes and the management promises that the amusing character of "The Lonesome Island," will please the patrons of the house during the closing performances of the week. Included in the roster of this company of clever entertainers are two comedians of ability as funmakers, a singing and dancing chorus of pretty girls and the Reed sisters, instrumentalists and vocalists. The company has already won great favor with the Majestic audiences and it is expected that "The Lonesome Island" will prove an attractive bill for the balance of the week. "The Lonesome Island" will be given at matinee today, tomorrow and Saturday with two shows each night at the usual hours.

Friction and Velocity.
When one solid body glides over the surface of another the coefficient of friction diminishes as the velocity increases and nearly vanishes when the velocity attains a certain critical value. This diminution of friction is due to the air which partially separates the two bodies at low relative velocities and separates them completely at the critical and all higher velocities.

HUMILITY.
Humility is a virtue all preach, none practice and yet everybody is content to hear. The master thinks it good doctrine for his servant, the laity for the clergy and the clergy for the laity.—Selden.

CAN'T FIND DANDRUFF?
Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Danderrine rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderrine at any drug store and save your hair. After a few applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any falling hair, and the scalp will never itch.

GROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED
Look, Mother! If tongue is coated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Every mother realizes after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit-laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know how a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."
