Tennent has played a consistent star game at right guard for three years, and has now been chosen to lead the team for the coming year, his last year at the university. The class of '17 is peculiarly gifted in the art of basketball, three of their members being on the varsity squad. The other members of the squad in the class of '17, are Johnson and Tandy.

Raby Tennent is a graduate of the local high school, and made quite an enviable record during his four years at the "Asheville High," making the track, football, basketball and baseball teams, during his four years at that school. "It is the aim of the board," stated Mr. Johnson, "to put in good order all of the roads in the county before the summer travel begins."

This work will require some time, and the expenditure of considerable money.

ROCHESTER MAN PRAISES ASHEVILLE

E. Boardman Likes Climate—Says the City Is Well Governed.

"Asheville has a wonderful climate, fine scenery, and it is not strange that it is popular with tourists," said E. Boardman of Rochester, N. Y., yesterday to a Times reporter.

Mr. Boardman has been for several years a traffic policeman in his home city, which now has a population of about 300,000. It may be surmised that some of the problems facing Mr. Boardman and his associates in Rochester are harder to solve than those confronting the men stationed at Pack square and at Patton avenue and Haywood street. The Rochester policeman says that after years of study and experiment the authorities now have travel and transportation matters well in hand.

The employees of the city of Rochester are under civil service, Mr. Boardman states; and policemen especially are carefully examined, physically and mentally.

Mr. Boardman expressed the opinion that Asheville is blessed with an efficient municipal government. With increase of motor traffic, he pointed out that additions to the number of the police force will probably be necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Boardman are spending some months here as guests at the Elton.

Dr. Campbell's address on "The Great Multitude" will begin immediately at the close of the supper and will last until 7:25 o'clock.

ASHEVILLE STORY IN LAUNDRY JOURNAL

In a current number of "The Laundryman's Guide" an entire page is devoted to Asheville, with a story written by N. Buckner. Several striking illustrations of some of the local scenery are included in the article, which deals with the Laundry Men's convention, which is to be held here June 5-8-7. Mr. Buckner says in part: "The fact that Messrs. Nicholas Brown and Greer, are getting their heads together in frequent meetings, indicates that some sort of special treatment is being arranged for the boys at this meeting that will either take the starch out of them, or put more in. In any event it is their intention that the Asheville meeting shall be spoken of as the best of any previous meeting anywhere, not only for the three states, but for all the states." The Laundry men from the two Carolinas and Georgia will attend the convention.

COLLECTOR WILL GO TO STOCK FARM

Tax Collector B. A. Patton, who knows something about farms as well as taxes, states that at the expiration of his present term of office he intends to devote his entire time to his stock farm which is located in Leicester township in this county. This is said to be one of the finest stock farms in this section of the state. Mr. Patton has in all about 200 acres of splendid mountain grazing lands upon which he intends to continue the stock raising business on a much larger scale.

Miss Mabel Hansard who has been visiting Mrs. W. W. Edwards, 123 Asheland avenue, has returned to her sister's home at Andrews.

NIGHT SCHOOL TO CLOSE ON FRIDAY

Successful Year Experienced Under Direction of R. O. Wells—Certificates.

After a very successful year the Y. M. C. A. night school, which has been conducted by R. O. Wells of the commercial department of the Asheville High school, will close Friday night, March 31, with final examinations in bookkeeping, typewriting, business English, arithmetic and spelling.

The students who pass the examinations with a creditable grade will be awarded certificates of honor by the educational department of the association. Twelve of these certificates were awarded last year and the association is hoping that equally as many can be awarded this year.

61 OF 63 WITH THE GOVERNOR

(Continued From Page One). Eight years ago and heard Craig speak when the ballot, fatal to his ambitions, had been counted. Mr. Synum was won by the courage of the defeated man. He couldn't help telling about it, and in his community the people were with the governor, W. M. Lawson, writing from Hot Springs, found sentiment the same.

"I was glad," writes Prof. N. Y. Gulley, "I congratulate you and the state upon the decision." Judge Robinson says the stoutest hearts grow faint when they are not helped from without sometimes. "The commutation of these poor wretches is heartily approved by our people," he writes.

Rev. Joel L. Snyder, pastor of the First Baptist church of Fayetteville, thinks it much better that the woman was not put to death and Rev. J. C. Burrus, ex-moderator of the Surry and Yadkin association (getting mighty close to Brother J. C. Stivers) says: "Justice is fully done."

Senator W. B. Snow writes in the heartiest approval of Governor Craig in refusing the rigorous application of "a man-made law" to a woman. Ex-Senator W. R. Odell of Concord, big business man, joins the many in approval of the action.

One Word Left Out. Governor Craig called attention to the fact that nearly all the papers have omitted from his reasons a word which gave some explanation of the masculine aversion to capital punishment when applied to woman: "The killing of this woman would send a shiver through North Carolina. Humanity does not apply to woman the inexorable law that it does to man. This may arise from misconceived sentimentality; it may arise from the deep and holy instincts of the race." The printed copy left out "holy." He did not pretend to say what it was. He knew that the Salisbury mob after taking the woman, one of the blackest of women who weighed 190 pounds from the jail, returned her because it was unwilling in its hideous orgy of torture and mutilation to execute a woman.
