

ALLIES HOLDING MOST OF GROUND GAINED TUESSDAY

Despite Muddy Flanders Field, the British Have Lost Only One Point—German Counter-Attacks Held Off by Big Guns—Crown Prince Trying to Push Back French at Verdun, But With Little Success.

Untimely bad weather on the Flanders front is limiting the activities of the belligerents. Notwithstanding the difficulties created by turning of the battle ground in a mud field, however, the allies have maintained themselves in the territory they gained in Tuesday's great drive.

fort to push back the French here, or possibly to regain the lost initiative in the region, may possibly be traced in anxiety in this respect on the part of the German high command.

Little Success. Small success, however, is attending the crown prince's efforts in this direction. He tried again last night near Hill 304, but General Petain's forces held their ground, driving the Germans out of such advanced trenches as they managed temporarily to penetrate.

As to Aerial Operations. London, Oct. 10.—An official statement on aerial operations issued tonight reads:

"On Tuesday there was little flying except on the battle front, where a great deal of work was done in spite of a strong gale and thick clouds. The enemy's new gun positions and other suitable targets were reported by airplanes to our artillery which dealt with them.

"Touch was kept with our infantry all day and the enemy's troops were harassed by machine gunfire at every opportunity. A ton of bombs was dropped on Staden during the day. At night two bombs were dropped on the Roulers, Courtrai, Menin and Ledegham stations. A direct hit was obtained on a hostile train causing a number of explosions.

"In the air fighting four German machines were brought down and two were driven out of control. Two of ours are missing."

This remarkable photograph shows an Italian airplane, a Nieuport Machi, circling about the high snow covered mountain, Dante di Pasubio, in chase of an Austrian airplane, which attempted a raid on the Italian position on the top of the mountain.

GERMANY HAS LONG BEEN AT BUSINESS

In 1909 Backed Irish-American Propaganda Against Celebration of 100 Years of Peace With England.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Germany financed Irish-American propaganda organizations in the United States as early as 1909 to combat the newly developed movement for celebration of 100 years of peace between America and Great Britain, President Wilson has learned from leaders in the centenary celebration.

John A. Stewart, of New York, chairman of the American branch of a centenary committee, who recently called at the White House with H. S. Perris, of London, a leader in the British phase of the movement, brought evidence that within five weeks after the announcement of the centenary plans early in 1909, German and Irish-American interest in the United States formed a number of associations and leagues to foster interest in German affairs.

Most of these organizations, Mr. Stewart informed the president, shortly became merged with the American Truth society, whose president, Jeremiah O'Leary, was mentioned in the secret message to Count von Bernstorff from the German government disclosed yesterday by Secretary Lansing. One of the activities of the organization was to erect elaborate monuments over the graves of prominent German-Americans, and to give publicity to historic roles played by Germans in the United States. Development of the British-American peace centenary movement was combated by the German propagandists in a multitude of ways, extending even to lobbying against bills in legislatures to promote success of the centenary celebration, planned for 1914 and disarranged by the war.

Mr. Stewart offered to place at the disposal of the president of the state department records of the British-American peace centenary committee indicating that German-Irish propaganda to exploit American public opinion came into existence at least eight years ago.

SOX WILL MAKE COUNTER ATTACK AGAINST GIANTS

'We Must Have Today's Game To Get Us Going,' Says Captain Herzog, and Joe Jackson Says He Realizes That New York is Different Team on Polo Grounds—Russell and Sallee Probable Pitchers.

The probable batting order for today's games is as follows:

- CHICAGO: J. Collins, 1f; McMullin, 3b; E. Collins, 2b; Jackson, rf; Felsch, cf; Gandil, 1b; Weaver, ss; Schalk, c; Russell, p. NEW YORK: Burns, 1f; Herzog, 2b; Kauff, cf; Zimmerman, 3b; Fletcher, ss; Robertson, rf; Harke, 1b; Hariden, c; Schupp, p. Umpires: Rigler, Evans, O'Loughlin and Klein.

Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 11.—The Chicago White Sox, thrown back by a stinging defeat at the hands of the New York Giants, will attempt a counter thrust today on the National league champions in the fourth game of world's series at the Polo grounds. The Giants, inspired by a victory over the American leaguers, planned to make it two straight today and even up the series.

"We need today's game to get us going," said Captain Charles Herzog, "and more too, the Sox are not so cocky now that they have had the harpoon thrown into them just when they felt so sure of a walk-over."

Joe Jackson, the heavy hitting right fielder of the Sox, remarked that the Giants looked much better than they did in Chicago.

"I told the boys when we were coming east that McGraw's men would play a harder game on the Polo grounds and they would see a different ball club," said Jackson today.

Probable Pitchers. The Giants' manager looked to Sallee or Schupp for the day's artillery work with Perritt held in reserve. Manager Rowland indicated that either Russell or Red Faber would go on the firing line for the Chicago men.

Clear Weather. A showery morning was followed by clearing weather. Over-hanging clouds gave way gradually before a fitful wind and the outlook deterred hundreds from making the trip to the ball yard. Some seven thousand fans stretched in a solid line away from the turnstiles, when they were opened at 11 o'clock. The playing meadows were fairly fast, the groundkeepers having blanketed the diamond and paths last night which shielded them from the rain.

New York Feeling Fit. The Sox's victory has greatly heartened the New York players at baseball sharpshooters would be surprised if they carry the fight right home to the White Sox and lengthen the series to seven games. The fact that they were able to get to the mastery pitching of Cleoite, Manager Rowland's best twirler, has done more to revive the waning hopes of the Giants than anything else that occurred on the Polo grounds yesterday. They admit Cleoite was not hit to any extent except in the fourth inning when Robertson's slashing triple, Holke's double and Burns' infield single netted two runs, but they feel the defeat will tend to shake Cleoite's confidence in his ability to hold the New Yorkers if he is again sent against them.

Anxious to Win Today. The Giants are more than anxious to take today's game. To win the fourth contest will put them on even terms with their western rivals and give them confidence for the games to come. With the series even it will become a battle of wits between the rival managers in maneuvering their pitchers. A slip in judgment in selecting the men may be fatal.

Russell vs. Sallee. Fans look for Manager Rowland to send either Red Russell or Faber into the box this afternoon. The Giants would like to see Faber pitch again. He won his game when all the Giants' pitchers were being hit hard, and New York followers feel he will not have an easy time in his next game. McGraw's choice probably will be Cleoite, declares himself just as sure of winning the series as he was when his team left Chicago. He had hoped, however, to win four straight games, he said.

As usual Manager McGraw had little to say. "I have a real ball club and before the series is over the White Sox will be aware of that fact," he told friends.

Big Hitters Not Showing Up. New York fans are disappointed at the showing so far made by Benny Kauff and Heine Zimmerman with the bat. Kauff in 12 turns at the bat in three games has not chalked up a hit. Zimmerman has also been at bat a dozen times in the three games and yesterday he made his first hit, a scratchy little infield single which he beat out by good sprinting. Both are dangerous men with the stick and their weakness is the surprise of the series.

The Giants' victory has roused the drooping spirits of the local rooters and today's crowd is expected to outnumber that which saw yesterday's game.

Fans in larger numbers were out early waiting for the gates to brush stadium to open. The victory and the possibilities of the day helped the long lines of men and boys to forget the cool weather.

Last For Gate Receipts. Today's game will be the last in which the players share in the receipts. Beginning with the fifth game all the receipts go to the two clubs with the exception of the ten per cent that goes to the national commission and a certain percentage to the two leagues. After today's game the scene shifts to Chicago where the fifth game will be played on Saturday. If a sixth necessary it will be played on the Polo grounds Monday.

SAY SOCIALISTS HAD NO PART IN MEETING

German Papers Condemn Attacks on Socialists Without Action.

Rotterdam, Oct. 11.—The statements of Vice-Admiral von Capelle, the German minister of marine, have turned the reichstag into a theater of the wildest scandal, says the Vorwaerts, discussing the exposure of mutinies within the German navy. The socialist newspaper adds that there is no shadow of proof that any deputies were guilty of illegal action in connection with the mutiny.

The Vossische Zeitung describes the attack on the independent socialists as a deplorable and illegal trip on the part of the government.

The Tagblatt contends that if the reichstag believes that the independent socialists are guilty they must be handed over to the court.

The Koelnische Zeitung expresses surprise that the government had such strong proofs of guilt against three persons suspected of treason if it did not ask the consent of the reichstag to take legal measures. No reichstag would have been able to refuse consent.

'UNPATRIOTIC' BISHOP ASKED TO RESIGN PLACE

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 11.—The Rev. Paul Jones, bishop of Salt Lake diocese of the Episcopal church, has been asked to resign his position. The demand was made by his council of advice, the vestrymen of St. Paul's church and the dean, wardens and vestrymen of St. Mark's cathedral parish last night.

In their conviction that Bishop Jones had forfeited his right to be leader of the diocese by his membership in associations and his membership in the national struggle for human rights and democracy, the vestrymen at two meetings went on record unanimously condemning him for the stand he has taken towards the government of the United States.

ARGENTINA CONCERNED OVER GERMAN INTRIGUES

Schemes To Embroil South America In War Have Been Revealed.

Buenos Aires, Oct. 11.—There is much concern among the people of Argentina over disclosures of German intrigues to bring about a conflict between Brazil, Argentina and Uruguay. The Argentine papers comment extensively on the disclosure that the German legation at Buenos Aires paid for the publication of a booklet by the editor of a newspaper in this city, predicting war between Brazil and Argentina.

Senior Carlos Rodriguez Larreta, the former Argentine minister of finance, declares in a published article today that a von Luxburg dispatch which has not yet been made public, refers to German intrigues in Argentina and southern Brazil. He says that the neutrality demonstration planned for next Friday is ill-timed, as it must stamp Argentina as pro-German at a time when sister republics are breaking with the common foe.

The government is expected to take measures to prevent the proposed neutrality demonstration next Friday, it being reported that the government has proof that the propaganda was supported financially by Germans.

Amsterdam, Oct. 11.—Those guilty of complicity in the plot to paralyze the German navy through mutinies should be handed with iron severity, says the Hhelnische Westfalische Zeitung, of Essen. It adds: "They are liable to the death penalty. Thank God, Liebknecht (the German socialist leader now in prison) was properly dealt with and in the present case there can only be similar action."

Fuel Administration Will Regulate Coal Distribution

Washington, Oct. 11.—Orders to insure an increased supply of coal cars and a steady, equitable flow of fuel to the railroads have been determined upon by the fuel administration. After a two weeks conference with coal operators, railroad representatives and others, the fuel administration today announced the first of a series of orders to distribute coal on a priority basis and regulate the movement of coal cars.

The order provides that the Pennsylvania railroad, serving about 700 mines, shall have its needs properly taken care of. Similar orders for other railroads will be issued, while orders for the distribution of commercial coal, giving preference to the government, domestic users, public utilities and all commercial organizations using coal in the order named will be given later.

Coal needed for the government must not be interfered with and the fuel administration intends to care fully for domestic users and may make special priority orders in special cases. Munitions plants and firms manufacturing necessities of life would come into the priority order class.

HANDWRITING EXPERTS TESTIFY IN KEET CASE

Marshfield, Mo., Oct. 11.—Handwriting experts were expected to complete the testimony for the prosecution here today in the trial of Claude J. Pierson, 20 years old, alleged leader of a band that kidnaped baby Lloyd Keet from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Holland Keet, at Springfield, Mo., on the night of May 30, last. It was believed that a comparison of the writing of the notes received by Mr. Keet during the period after the baby's abduction and before the body was found in a well on the deserted Crenshaw homestead and that of a note Pierson was tricked into writing while in the St. Louis jail, would be made.

Mr. Felsch Took Plenty of Time When He Broke the Giants' Hearts.

This is Mr. "Happy" Felsch, center fielder of the Chicago White Sox, in his great act of taking the heart out of the New York Giants in the first game at the world series in Chicago. In the fourth inning "Happy" caught one of the wide curves of "Slim" Sallee on the nose, and it sailed into the center-field bleachers for a homer, under the rules. He took his time ing round. At his left Sallee and Catcher McCarty are shown holding a conference over the hit. Also at the left is Gandil coming up for his time at bat, and at the right is Umpire O'Loughlin rubbing his head in perplexity. He, too, wondered how Felsch did it.
