

STANDING OF CANDIDATES IN DIVISION NO. 1 IN TIMES' GREAT CIRCULATION CAMPAIGN

INTEREST GROWS IN TIMES' CAMPAIGN

"Who Are the Active Candidates?" Is Absorbing Question—Many Saving Coupons From Paper

"Who are the active contestants" in The TIMES' Great Circulation Campaign is the absorbing question at this time. Everybody is voting, voting for some one who has been nominated.

Many of the ladies who have not given the campaign a thought have received votes. Many others have started their campaigns and will be actively engaged in collecting votes and organizing their plans to secure the necessary number of votes to be in the lead at the end of the campaign.

The readers of the paper are saving the coupons from the paper and many have paid their subscriptions and given the vote to some one. The vote credited to those who have been nominated in Division No. 1, is published in this morning's paper and show a decided interest in the very large number of ladies who have been designated to share in the distribution of the prizes and cash awards. The more who take part in the campaign the less the vote will be to secure the larger awards. Every one who takes part in the campaign secures something. The more votes secured the more remuneration received. Save all the votes and vote for some one. If the lady of your choice is not among the list make the nomination at once and get in the campaign. Nominate yourself or a friend and start to saving votes. It will pay.

BOY SCOUTS WILL NOT MEET UNTIL OCT. 23

There will be no meeting of Asheville Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, held this week, the regular meeting, scheduled for next Tuesday night, having been postponed until next week. Rev. J. B. Thrall, pastor of the First Congregational church and scoutmaster, is out of the city and will not return until the latter part of this week.

The meeting on Tuesday night, October 23, will be known as "Book Night" at which time it is hoped that every member of the troop will bring a book to be added to the library the scouts are raising.

PRIZES FOR DIVISION ONE.

Division Number One will comprise all of the territory in the city of Asheville, Biltmore, additions and suburbs of Asheville.
