KERENSKY ISSUING HIS ORDERS FROM MOSCOW, SAYS FINNISH BUREAU

Reports From Finnish Telegram Bureau and From Swedish News Agency Say Kerensky Is in Control of Practically All Russia-Newspapers Say Downfall of Bolsheviki Movement Is Imminent

London, Nov. 14.—The Finnish Telegram bureau says the whole of Russia except a small part of Petrograd is now in the hands of the provisional government.

Premier Kerensky is now in Petrograd and has taken virtually the entire city, the announcement of the Finnish Telegram bureau says.

The Finnish Telegram bureau says Moscow is the headquarters of the provisional government and that Premier Kerensky has issued orders from Moscow which have appeared in the Petrograd papers.

The anti-Bolsheviki papers of Petrograd as well as the Helsingfors newspapers have headlines announcing that the Bol- women here for the general convensheviki movement is nearing its downfall.

Austria Favors Just Peace Without Annexations or Indemnities

Amsterdam, Nov. 14 .-- Austrian newspapers print a statement from the Official News arency pointing out that neither Vienna nor Berlin has received an actual peace or armistice proposal from the Russian government and as long as the new rulers of Russia do not submit proposals the central powers dare do nothing in the matter, according to a dispatch from Vienna. Paris, Nov. 13.—The Painleve ministry was defeated by a direct vote in the chamber of deputles today and later resigned. This is the first time such action has been taken by the chamber since the beginning of the war, as up to the present it has been a point of honor with many deputles not to vote against the government but to express criticism by abstaining from recording their votes.

Strong dissatisfaction with the government's handling of the Bolo Pasha affair is believed to be the motive which changed the passive discontent to active opposition. Two other things thought to have had a part in the downfall of the Painleve cabinet were the premier's statement exongerating M. PAINLEVE CABINET, INVADERS CROSS PIAVE AT ZENSON; BITTER FIGHTING HELD THIS MORN

tion—Causes of Downfall Italians Successful in Counter Attacks Between Bishop Atkins Called Con-Asiago and Mont Cimone—Italian Defense Must Continue Strong to Hold Piave Position—Four Enemy Fronts

> Italian troops by strong counter attacks aided by the artillery have checked Austro-German efforts to capture the Asiago plateau and threaten the line of the river Piave. Near Bishop Goes Back To Old Zenson, on the river Piave about 20 miles northeast of Venice. the invaders have succeeded in crossing the river on boats but were repulsed in an attempt to debouch from the bridgehead they had constructed.

The fighting in the region about Asiago and between there and Monte Cimone is very bitter. The Austro-Germans attacked in force and gained some defenses only to be thrown back by the force of Italian counter attacks.

BERLIN CLAIMS SUCCESSES.

Berlin says Mont Longara has been captured but Rome reports officially that the position here has been held against Teuten efforts. At Canove, west of Asiago, an Italian counter thrust repelled the invaders and resulted in the liberation of Italian Between Mont Cimone and the Piave, Berlin claims the capture of Fonzaso, which probably was given up by the Italians in a retirement to straighten out their line. The Italians have occupied their new positions in this region and the Austro-Germans are in contact with them.

MAY BE SERIOUS MENACE.

The crossing of the Piave near Zenson may prove a more ous menace to the Piave line than the attempts in the Asiago on. The invaders tried to advance from the bridgehead from the invaders tried to advance from the bridgehead from the Jack to the river bank by the serious menace to the Piave line than the attempts in the Asiago region. The invaders tried to advance from the bridgehead they established but were driven back to the river bank by the and Italians. Further Teuton attempts to debouch may be expected appeal and his bond was fixed at $6 .- and unless the Italian defense continues strong the Piave position may become so weakened it will have to be given up.

Piave Line Holding.

Italian Headquarters in Italy. Nov. 13.—(Delayed)—(By The Associated Press.)—The Piave line still holds in the main against heavy and continuous artillery fire from the eastern bank and the efforts of the Austro-Germans to cross the stream. These efforts have not taken the proportions of a general movement but several battallons crossed the river on pontons near Zenson.

Chief attention is now directed to wards the eastern sector of the Trentino front where it runs across the Asiaco plateau to the upper Plave tions there which are either a diversion or a prelude to a heavy attack with the evident purpose of getting down into the valley toward Bassano and the plains below, thus separating the Italian army on the Trentino front toons near Zenson

The Italian artillery concentrated its fire on the raiding parties, either destroying them in midstream or pushing them back on the river bank.

Devotional Services.

With a quiet devotional service lead by Bishop Atkins, during which the first 18 verses of the 14th chapter of the Gospel by John, were read and briefly commented upon, the 28th ses-sion of the Western North Carolina annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, began its work in the main auditorium of the Central Methodist church this morn-ing.

Promptly on the second Bishop At-kins called the conference to order, after having remarked. "I have not missed a minute in twelve years." De-votional hymns, dear to the hearts of assembled Methodists, were sung with-out any organ accompaniment.

RUSSIAN TROOPS WHO OVERTHREW KERENSKY MARCHING IN DEFIANCE OF HIM

This important photograph shows hundreds of Russian troops, who overthrew Premier Kerensky, marching through the streets of Petrograd to a meeting at which the provisional government was denounced. It proves the strength of the opposition to his government even three weeks ago, and shows the soldiers did not care for the orders of the premier.
