

VILLE TIMES' correspondent; "they appear to be created by The Greensboro News one day and denied the next. It is a strange system."

Mr. Post denied he had authorized The Greensboro News' correspondent to make any denial of the rumor that Germans were to be armed and not know anybody else in the debe increased to prevent the German Germany, as they surely

News is assured, is working in thor-ough harmony with Food Administrator Hoover and has already issued orders putting into effect meatless days at Hot Springs. Wheatless days are already the rule because the Ger-mans prefer rye bread to wheat and are thereby conserving the wheat sup-

The department is making every efpartment who had given such authori- fort to put the camp on a just and y. He said he had never seen the correspondent in his life. Secretary Post gave downright de-that to the statement made by the Washington correspondent of The Greensboro News today that the num-ber of guards at Hot Springs are to be increased to prevent the German (Samber 1997). Germany as they surely will. Secretary Post gave downright de-treated as prisoners but at the same time it is intended to sive them hu-mane treatment such as the Ameri-Cans may expect to be meted out to Americans who become prisoners in the derman will.

will. There was an instant lated permanently to safeguard the essential interests of the great neigh-boring nations. Germany and Russia "I am profoundly satisfied that we shall be able to pursue this cours will total from $3,000,000 to $5. For the representation will show a tremendous book. The ing wave and then bolted.

The

There were many other instance where British gunners after firing point blank on the enemy, up to 300 yards range, escaped, then joined the infantry and by counter attacking aided in the recapture of their own guns.

There was apparently no fighting at Villers Guislain which was cut off by the German encircling move toward Gouzeaucourt at 7:80 o'clock this morning.

While a fight was ranging the Germans, supported by cavalry, crossed Conneged N. C. Dec. 1-Gaston R.

already in their seats. As the Chilean heiress sank wearily into her seat she swept the faces of the twelve men with a timid glance. "If there is any applause or any demonstration whatever the guilty parties will be jailed," warned Su-preme Court Justice Manning. He rose, solemnly, clad in his som-ber black rob.

ber black rob. The justice motioned to Mrs. De The justice motioned to Airs, be Saulles. Nervously clutching the edge of the table, she stood up. Her law-yer, Henry A. Uterhart, offered to as-sist her, but she stiffened, chin held high, and looked straight at Foreman

"What is your verdict?" asked Jusabsolute

"We must have both taxes and bonds. This is not a matter of policy but of necessity. Neither means of tistelf will raise enough money. We account the right of nations to de-termine their own destinies, is calcu-termine their own destinies, is calcu-termine their own destinies. are facing an example of taxation. Nothing will escape." Compilation of unofficial estimates of probable appropriations for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1919, gave rise to the belief tonight that they full agreement with our allies and take it, also, with the almost upan will total from $3,900,000,000 to $5.

we are confident none of them will try to escape. We intend to put 400 more German sailors there in a couple of weeks from the Philippines and then weeks from the Philippines and then a few addition must necessarily be made to the working force." The statement in The Greensboro News today that the Hot Springs camp had given the Washington ad-ministration no end of trouble was also denied by Mr. Post and several exhibits members cabinet members

Trouble Denying Rumors,

"Denying rumors and reports in The Greensboro News concerning the German camp has given us as much trouble as anything connected with the camp," said Mr. Post. "The Hot Springs camp has given us no more trouble than any local troubles."

 armany, as they surely will.
And of absolute was breaching in deep asynchronic for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the single of the sender for much additional his session. In the sender deep attempts and there for the sender for much additional his session. In the sender for much addition for the set of the work has the set of the work has the set of the sender for much addition for the set of the sender for the set of the "No orders have been issued for in-creasing the gunrd," said Mr. Post. "We have not the slightest fear that any of the Germans will run away. The camp is on the honor system and

Reaction Against Pro-Ger-

Extends Help To Rumania Washington, Dec. 1.—Russian and merican officials foresaw tenight the oubles." Washington, Dec. 1.—Russing turned from their notel carrying their baggage, ready to go home. Justice Manning met Mrs. De

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

There was an instant of absolute will show a distribution of this hour of utter contapts with hold sympathy from the Italian is said to have obtained from his ben-ing cavalry into action the enemy will show a tremendous boost.

(Continued on Page 2.) TWO SOLDIERS KILLED

ed to Asheville Saturday from Con-cord where she testified for the state in the case against Gaston B. Means, The development has been directly ed to Asheville Saturday from Con-opposite that of England and France where the freedom of thought and freedom of speech have been sup-pressed, partly by violent and brutal measures. In these countries which had been democracies things are tend-had been democracies things are tend-the base democracies things are tend-strain of the hard trip to Concord. K ...g. Despite her advanced age, Mrs. Robinson stood up well under the strain of the hard trip to Concord.

again gave evidence of taking advantage of the lesson he learned in the

MEANS' BANK ACCOUNT

Jumped Up To $105,000 In

One Day and Then

Back To $47

Haig's Statement.

London, Dec. 1 .- Violent German assaults over most of the great Cam-Blackwelder springs while with brai sector, where masses of the enemy

Judge Cline adjourned court early at times by the weight of their numbers pushed the British line back, were detailed by Field Marshal Haig

He said that British counter attacks had restored most of the ground lost in the initial force of the German way under party pressure but rather proceeding with clear perception of historical necessity. The development has been directly of the late Mrs. Robinson Returns. Mrs. Robinson, mother of the late Mrs. Maude A. King, return-of the late Mrs. Maude Schurder, free of the enemy succeeded forcing lines on a considerable front, taking a number of prisoners and some times reaching our guns," he asserted. "This afternoon, the enemy repeated his attacks in the neighborhood of

٤

