new theories. Very true. "Wisdom is justified of her children."

We do not vouch for the correctness of our exchange table this week.

The news from abroad says, that the British arms have been completely successful in Asia.

AN ENVIABLE CONDITION.—There is not a single distillery in the State of New Jersey!

Southern Ladies Book.—This excellent periodical of which we have had occasion to speak before, has been removed from Macon, to Savannah, Geo., and the name changed to the "Magnolia and Southern Monthly."

Some of the Tennessee papers speak of Hon. JOHN W. CROCKETT, of that State as a suitable person for Minister to Texas.

NEWS FROM OUR EXPLORING EXPEDITION.—Massacre of American Officers by the Sandwich Islanders.

They had just made their landing when the natives rushed upon them from an ambush, in great numbers.

Arrival of Gen. Harrison

The President elect of the United States reached this city on Tuesday by the morning train of cars from Baltimore, between 11 and 12 o'clock.

His arrival at the Rail Road Depot was announced by a gun from Capitol Hill, and notwithstanding a very heavy and unpleasant snow storm which began early in the morning and continued during the day, the avenues were filled with multitudes of citizens and strangers, who had assembled to behold and hail the man who has been chosen by the united voices of the people to preside over the affairs of the Republic.

He was then escorted by the Committee to his lodgings at Gadsby's Hotel, where he also received visits from a large number of his fellow-citizens, including many distinguished members of Congress.

Wednesday being the day appointed for the official examination of the votes for President and Vice President of the United States, the two Houses proceeded at twelve o'clock to the execution of the order in regard to it, adopted on the 2d inst.

A message having been received by the Senate, that the House of Representatives was ready to receive them, the Senators preceded by the Vice President, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the two Houses, the Secretary and his assistants, went to the Hall and took the seats provided for them on the right of the Chair.

MR. PETIGREW KILLED BY A NEGRO NEAR SPARTA, GEO.—The Augusta (Geo.) Constitutionalist contains the following account of a shocking murder which was perpetrated in the vicinity of Sparta, Hancock county, Geo., within one mile and a half of that village.

After supper, Mr. Robert Petigrew, the overseer of Maj. R. Mitchell, left home as he stated, to go to town for some tobacco, at 8 or 9 o'clock.

NEW INVENTION FOR RAILROADS.—The New York Commercial mentions a new invention now exhibiting in that city. It is designed for passing trains of cars down inclined plains on railroads, letting down heavy bodies, bales, &c., from the lots of the warehouses, &c.

A GOOD CHANCE FOR A SPECULATION.—The following advertisement under the head of "Wife Wanted," is in the Batesville, (Ark.) News:

Legislators—By Sam Slack

"Nothin' on this side of the water makes so big a fool of a man, Squire, he continues, as goin' to the house of representatives without bein' fit for it."

MR. J. A. BLAKE, President of the Central Democratic Tippecanoe Club, was then introduced to General HARRISON, and made him a brief and neat address on behalf of the Club, to which the General replied in appropriate terms.
