Wendal.

MUSCELLANY.

BY MISS SEDGEWICK.

Lucy Wendal! Who is she?'

her to think of ' turning to dust.'

which was sitting on the stoop every pleasan afternoon, according to the ancient Dutch custom, she never partook. She never went

"I am going round by Broad street to

'She is a pretty little Dutch girl, who

D. R. M'ANALLY & J. ROBERTS, EDITORS.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, BY J. H. CHRISTY & CO., Publishers of the Laws, Treaties, &c., of the U. S.

TERMS.

This paper is published weekly, at Two Dol-LARS AND FIFTY CENTS per annum, in advance; or THREE DOLLARS, if payment be delayed after the receipt of the 10th Number from the time of subteribing. DT These terms will, in all cases, be etrictly adhered to.

No subscription discontinued (except at the option of the publishers) until all arrearages are paid. IT ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted for One Dollar per square, for the first, and Twenty-five Cents for each subsequent insertion. A liberal deduction will be made from the regular prices for advertisers by the year.

BY AUTHORITY.

Laws of the United States,

Passed at the first Session of the 27th Congress.

[Public-No. 18.]

AN ACT to repeal a part of the sixth section of the act, entitled " An act to provide for the support of the Military Academy of the United States, for the year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, and for other purposes," passed July seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Repre-centatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That so much of the sixth action of an act entitled "An act to provide for the support of the Military Academy of the United States for the year eighteen hundred and thirty. cight, and for other purposes," as requires the Secretary of the Treasury to invest the annual interest accruing on the investment of the money arising from the bequest of the late James Smith son, of London, in the stocks of States, b , and the same is hereby, repealed. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall, until Congress shall appropriate said accruing interest to the purposes preion of knowledge among men, invest said accrang interest in any stock of the United States aring a rate of interest not less than five per centum per annum. Sec. 2. And be it further engeted, That all other funds held in trust by the United States, and the annual interest accroning thereon, when of otherwise required by treaty, shall in like manper be invested in stocks of the United States, winer a like vate of interest.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the three clerks authorized by the act of June twenty-third, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, " to r . gulate the deposites of the public money," be, and hereby are, directed to be retained and employed in the Treasury Department, as provided in said act, until the state of the public business becomes such that their services can conveniently be dispensed with.

Approved, September 11, 1841.

[Resolution -Public -No. 2.] RESOLUTION for the distribution of seven undred copies of the Digest of Patents. Remixed by the Senate and House of Repre-matives of the United States of America in angrees assembled, That the Commissioner of atents be directed to send to the Secretary of Male of each of the States of this Union, and of Territories of Florida, Wisconsin, and Iowa, the Digest of Patents published by the Commis-March third, one thousand eight hundred and thatt-nine; to be disposed of as the Legislature of each State and Territory may direct viz: To the State of Maine, twenty copies; to the State of N.w Hampshire, ten copies; to the State of Massachusetts, thirty copies; to the State of Rhode I land, four copies; to the State of Counecticut, twelve copies; to the State of Vermont, cleven copies; to the State of N. w York, ninety. cight comes; to the State of New Jersey, fifteen opies; to the State of Pennsylvania, sixty-nine opic; to the State of Vorginia, fifty copies; to the State of North Carolina, thirty-nine copies; to the State of South Carolina, twenty-four copies; to the state of G sorgia, twenty-eight copies; to the State K ntucky, thirty-one copies; to the State of Tencome, 'hirty three copies; to the State of Ohio, opies; to the State of Delaware, four copies; to or State of Maryland, ameteen copies; to the xly one copies; to the State of Lauisiana, fourn copies ; to the State of Indiana, twenty-eight mid; to the State Mississippi, fifteen copies; to State of Illinois, twenty-three copies; to the state of Alabama, twenty-four copies; to the State of Missouri, sixteen copies; to the State of Arkansas, five copies; to the State of Michigan, ne copies; to the Territory of Florida, three copies; to the Territory of Wisconsin, two copies; to the Territory of Iswa, three copies—being in the whole seven hundred copies; and that the remaining two hundred copies of raid Digest be left th the Librarian of Congress for future dispo-

Rewired, de. That the sum of five hundred twelve dollars and thirty eight cents be paid in the Patent Office fund to reimburse what is ue for publishing said Digest. Approved, September 1, 1841.

RESOLUTION .- PUBLIC -No. 3. RESOLUTION to provide for the distribution of the printed returns of the Sixth Census. Remired, de. That the aggregate returns of consus for the year eighteen hundred and forof the Secretary of State by the act entitled An act to provide for taking the sixth census, umcration of the inhabitants of the United "," shall be distributed and disposed of by rectary of State as follows: to the state of Maine, two hundred; to the state of New lumpshire, one hundred and fifteen; to the state Massachusetts, three hundred; to the state of Rhode Island, forty ; to the State of Connecticut, one hundred and twenty; to the State of Veront, one hundred and ten; to the State of New rk, nine hundred and eighty; to the State of Jersey, one hundred and fifty; to the State Pennsylvania, six hundred and ninety; to the ate of Delaware, forty; to the State of Mary. and, one hundred and ninety; to the state of North Carolina, ninety; to the state of South arolina, two hundred and forty; to the state of orgia, two bundred and eighty; to the state of antucky, three hundred and ten; to the state of ennessee, three hundred and thirty; to the state Ohio, six hundred and ten; to the state of issana, one hundred and forty; to the state of diana, two hundred and eighty; to the state of I imois, two hundred and thirty; to the state of Alabama, two hundred and forty; to the state of Missouri, one hundred and sixty; to the state of Arkansas, fifty; to the state of Michigan, ninety; Court, at office, the 4th M. inday in July, 1841. to the Territory of Fiorida, thirty; to the Territory of Wisconsin, twenty; to the Territory of Iowa, thirty; to each member of the present Congress, and the delegates from the Territories, the President and Vice President of the United States, to cach, five copies; being, in the whole, eight thou-sand five hundred and ien copies; and that the remaining copies be placed in the Library of Congress for future disposition.

Approved, September 1, 1841.

[RESOLUTION -- PUBLIC-No. 5.] JOINT RESOLUTION making it the duty of the Attorney General to examine into the titles of the lands or sites for the purpose of creeting thereon armories and other public works and buildings and for other purposes.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the United States to examine into the titles of all the lands or sites which have been purchased by the United States, for the purpose of erecting thereon armories, arsenals, forts, fortifications, navy yards, custom-houses, or other public buildings of any kind whatever, and report his opinion as to the validity of the title, in each case, to the President of the United States. 2. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of all the officers having any of the title-papers to the property aforesaid in their posession to furnish them forthwith to the Attorney General, to aid him in the investigation afor said.

3. Resolved That no public money shall be expended upon any site or land, hereafter to be pur-chased by the United States for the purposes afore. said, until the written opinion of the Attorney General shall be had in favor of the validity of the title; and also, the consent of the Legislature of the State in which the land or site may or shall. be given to said purchase.

4. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the District Attorneys of the United States, upon the application of the Attorney General, to furnish any assistance or information in their power in relation to the titles of the public property aforesaid, lying within their respective districts.

5. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretaries of the Executive Departments, upon the application of the Attorney General, to procure any additional evidence of title which he may deem necessary, and which may not be in the posession of the officers of Government; the expense of procuring which to be paid out of the appropriations made for the contingencies of the Departments, respectively.

6. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretaries of the Executive Departments, respec. A. D. 1841. tively, under whose direction any lands for purposes aforesaid may have been purchased, and over which the Unit d States do not possess jurisdiction, to apply to the Legislatures of the States n which the lands are situated for a cession of juradiction ; and, in case of refusal, to report the same to Congress at the commencement of the next session thereafter. Approved, Sept mber 11, 1841.

Stop the Villain!!! TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS REWARD!!!

N the 24th instant, JAMES H M CLOUD broke jail in this place, and made his eccape, being committed under a charge of breaking open a store. M Coud is about thirty years of age, near six feet high, sandy hair and heard rather red. JAS. M. SMITH. Asheville, N. C., Sept. 1, 1811.

Notice.

HE subscribers having qualified as Executors of the last Will and Testament of Jacob Sommey, dec as d, will sell on the 26th and 27th days of October next, on the premises, three miles from Henderson Court house, the following valua-

Six Hundred Acres of Land, with a comfortable dwelling house, and all other necessary out buildings.

Three Negroes.

Thirty two Shares of Turnpike Stock--Horses. Cattle, Waggon, Carriage, and an extensive se Copper, Tinner's, and Blacksmith's Tools-Ter Boxes Tim Plate, a quantity of Corn and Hay,-Household furniture-Copper Rivets and Copper Clippings-other articles not namerated.

Terms of sale, Twelve mouths credit, with note and approved securily.

P SUMMEY. JACOB RAMSOUR, Ex'rs.

N. B .- All persons indebted to the estate of Jacob Summey, dec'd, are requested to make immediate settlement, and any person having claims against said estate will present them, properly authenticated, and within the time prescribed by law for payment, otherwise this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery.

P. SUMMEY, Ex'rs. September 10, 1841.

EPSOM SALTS AND ALUM.

DR. JOHN MINGUS & CO. RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they are now prepared to work the PERMITS and they expect in a short time to be able to furnish the surrounding country with on the Smoky Mountain, near the Tennessee line,

Epsom Satts and Alum of the best quality, on the most advantageous

August 27, 1841.

Committed to Jail,

this place, on the 30th of August, a NEGRO MAN, who says his name is SHERIFF. Said negro is about five feet eight inches high; near 30 cars old; says he belongs to William Zigley, rawford county, Georgia. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take him away, or he will be disposed of as the law directs.

J. M. SMITH, Jailor. Asheville, Sept. 3, 1841.

State of North Carolina, CALDWELL COUNTY.

COURT OF PLEAS AND QUARTER SES-SIONS—JULY TERM, 1841.

WILLE GATHER,) Attachment levied on

D9. Solomon Loudermile.

ORDERED by Court, that publication be made for six weeks in the "Highland Messenger" for the defendant to appear at our next Court to be held for the county of Caldwell, at the place appointed by law for holding said Court, on the fourth Monday in October next, to plead or replesissippi, one hundred and fifty; to the state of vy, otherwise judgment pro confesso will be entered up against him, and the lands levied on con-demned to satisfy plaintiff's debt.

Witness, Elisita P. Miller, Clerk of our said E. P. MILLER, Ck. [Pr's fee, $5 50.]

CLOVER SEED! THE subscriber has for sale at his store a quan-Lity of first-rate clover seed.

Fifty thousand Acres of SWAMP LANDS FOR SALE!

THE President and Directors of the Literary Fund of North Carolina, to whose care and management was committed by law, an appropri-ation of $200,000, for making an experiment in draining and reclaiming the Swamp Lands belonging to the State, having succeeded in part, do not make known, that in pursuance of the authority vested in them by the General Assembly, a public sale of a portion of said Land, will take place on the premises, on the last day of Novemb r next.

The body of Land reclaimed, and now off red for sale, embraces about 59,000 acr s; is situate in the county of Hyde, and State of N rh Cam- ed with her grand parents, natives of this Ina, and divides the waters flowing I to the A'bemarle, from those that run into Pamile, Sound.

The drainage, conducted at different periods by two scientific Engineers, Me-srs. Chas. B. Shaw and Walter Gwynn, has been effected bytwo main drains, call d Pungo and Alligator Canals, togeher with sundry tributaries or lateral diches. Pungo canal is about 64 miles long, with an av crage width at bottom of 22 feet, depth of 6 feet and fall at bottom of 12 feet. Alligator Canal is about 6 miles long, with an average width at bottom of 30 feet, depth of 7, and tall of 10 f. ct.

These canals empty into the navigable waters of Pamlico Sound, and are accessible by vessels engaged in the coasting trade. A large por ior of this land abounds in juniper cypress, and other timber of the best kind. And her portion consists of prairie, covered with case and bamboo, and according to the report of the Engineers above named, the soil is of surpassing fertility.

The sale will be by Public Auction to the highest bidder, in quarter sections of 160 acres each will take place at Pungo canal on Toesday, the 30th day of November next, and will be conducted by the President and Directors of the Literary Fund A credit will be given to purchasers of one, two and three years, on bands with approved security, and titles withheld until the whole of the purchase money be baid. Given under my hand at the Executive Office, in the city of Raleigh, on the 33th day of August, JOHN M. MOREHEAD, Gov. of the State, and,

Ex officio, President of the Board. By order, P. REYNOLDS, Secretary.

WHOLESALE GROCERS, Charleston, S. C.

ormed.

EARRAR & MAYES RESPECTFULLY announce to their friends, to be satisfied with the quiet, unnoticed perturbated that their Stock is now complete—to which they have added a large and general assortment of COTTON BAGGING, BALE ROPE, and lotted to you; and not to waste your strength TWINE; and is off red for sale as usual.

Wanted, immediately, 20

1000 FEET of Yellow Pine PLANK,— well kindered, and delivered in Asheville. 500 ft 1 inch thick, 12 ft. long and 18 inches wide. 500 ft. 1 inch thick, 15 to 18 inches wide, and 12 ft. long. B sides, a large quantity of other sawn LUMBER-the particulars of which will be made known on application at this Office September 15, 1841.

State of North Carolina, BURKE COUNTY.

Court of Pleas & Quarter Sess., July Term, 1841 William M. Carson and Jonathan L Carson, administrators, with the will annexed, of John Carson, deceased, and George M. Carson, Joseph McD. Carson, Charles Carson, Rebecca Carson, Sidney S Erwin and wife Caroline, James Smith and wife Emily , James Carson , Samuel Carson , Sarah Robinson, Sarah Smith, Rebecca McEntire, James Wilson, Ruth Wilson, Mary Wilson and Matilda Wilson.

AN APPLICATION TO PROVE THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOHN CARSON IN DUI

T appearing to the satisfaction of the Court in this case, that the defendants, Sidney S. Er. vin, and wife Caroline, James Smith and wife Emily, James Carson, Samuel Carson, Sarah Rob-Sarah Smith, James Wilson, Ruth Wilson, Mary Wilson and Matilda Wilson, are non-residents, and live without the juri diction of this Court-It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, that publication be made for six weeks in the weekly Ruleigh Register, published at Raleigh North Carolina, and in the Highland Messenger. published at Asheville, North Carolina, summoning the said def indants to app ar at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Burke, at the court house in Marganton, on the 3d Monday after the 4th Monday in Septem. ber next, to see proceedings touching the probate of the last will and testament of John Carson, dec'd., in solemn form.

Witness, J. J. Enwin, Clerk of our said Court at office, on the 3d Monday in July, 1841, and in the 66th year of American Independ need J. J. ERWIN, Clerk. Teste.

A LIST OF LETTERS. REMAINING in the Post Office at Burnsville, which if not taken out in three months, will he sent to the General Post Office as dead letters : McCanlep Dr W W Allen Joseph Deweese Rev GarrettMcElroy Mrs M S Flemming Saml 2 McCourry Jas L Patterson Rev J H Gibbs Thomas Honeyout Jacob 2 Phillipps John Howard A G. Straley Dr J L

Hughs Wm Silver J cob H nsley Henry and Shewford Martin Polly Wils in Jesse

Horton MrsElizabeth J. A. WILSON, P. M.

Oct. 8, 1841.

The undersigned, AVING qualified as Administrators of the estate of BENJAMIN KING, decid., at July Session, 1841, of Henderson County Court. respectfully request all persons who are indebted to said estate to come forward and make payment. to raid estate to come forward and make payment.

And those having claims against the estate will present them, duly authenticated, as the law directs, or this notice will be plead in her of their recovery.

ELISHA, DANIEL & DANIEL & DOHN KING,

Was you a friend to Lucy Wendal, turning him from my door, I do not wonder ma am ?

1 should think it an boor to call myselt day night, three days after, John came so, but I could hardly claim that name .- home an altered man. He was as humble nd reply, but fumbled over some gloves given up Lucy, father,' he said, 'but I can-Lucy Wendal-A tale of real life. has happened to the poor girl." nquire of Ross, the glover, about little Lucy ived opposite to me in that bit of a dwelling 'Certainly I would.' that looks like a crack or a seam between 'Well, you know when Lucy Wendal the two houses on each side of it. She livcame to me, she was a little demure thing -not a beauty, but so comely and tidy, that city, and once proprietors of many a lot she was a pretty resting place for the eye within it; but they had been outbargained of old or young. She was as great a conand outwitted till they were reduced to this trust to the other girls in the work shop as little tenement, some twenty feet by fifteen. white to black. She just set quiet in one Their only surviving descendant was my corner, and minded her work and took no little friend Lucy, a pretty fair-skinned, part in their gabbling. You must know fair-haired, blue-eyed girl, of a most modest, quiet, engaging demeanor. For many from morning to night like forty thousand months after we moved to _____ street, I knew nothing of the family; but, from such chipney swallows. Lucy was very different. She made berself peat and trig in the observations as my eye could take, neatmorning and did not lose half an hour at ness was the ruling passion of the housefloon, when the 'prentice boys were com- letter. hold. Their only servant, Minerva-the ng to dinner, twitching out curl papers and goddess of wisdom should have known better-used to scrub the house weekly from garret to cellar; their only carpet was shook every Saturday, the steps were scoured in her actions, and this is what I call hastily to the further extremity of the shop; ed daily, and I never in my life saw the old woman without a dusting clath in her hand. Such a war of extermination did she carry never had a match for her since I first be. short of it." on against the intruding particles, that my gan business; but (you know, ma'am, friend E. used to say, it must be hard for there's always a but in this, life,) she gave me great offence. She crossed me where I Lucy had no visitors, no companions; could least bear it.' and the only indulgence of the old people, Not intentionally, I am sure Mr. Ross.

'You shall bear, ma'am. I have an only son John Ross-n fine, fresh looking, good-natured, industrious lad. I set my heart on out excepting on Sunday to church, and his marrying his cousin, Amy Bunce. She then she reminded me of one of those bright is the daughter of my youngest sister, and pretty flowers that hang on the crabbed had a pretty fortune in hand enough to set bare stem of the cactus. I pittled her, her John up in any business he fancied. There spring of lite seemed passing away so was no reason in the world why he should drearily. My pity was misplaced; and I not like Amy. I had kept my wishes to elt it to be so when I looked into her semyself, because I knew that young folk s ene and swe I countenance, and saw there love is like an unbroken colt, that will neithe inness of that happiness which certher mind spur nor bit. I never mis rusted inly flows from duties religiously perthat any thing was going wrong till one day I heard the girls making a great wonder. *It is a great matter, Grace, to-have your desires bounded within your station; in so king to do good, or obtain pleasures and when I asked what he wanted the money beyond your sphere. This is true wisdom for, he looked sheepish, and made no anand this was Lucy Wendal's. At last there came to their obscure family what comes to all-douth and its changes. The pretty orphan, induced me to go to the house. She received me gratefully, and es an old friend; for though we had never parents,' is the law both of Scripture and of you have a wife and two children." exchanged a word, there had been an innature. So I told John. I did not hint any suspicion about Lucy, but I told him this that and a mother-in-law and two apprenterchnige of kind looks and friendly nods -those little humanities that bind even strangers together. On inquiring into her affairs, I found that she was left almost penniless, but that a discreet and kind female fii ad had procured a place for her in R ss glove factory. Lary was skilled in down; but he saw I was determined, and "Softly, Sammy, I am older than you

I the art and craft of the needle. Ross. t seems, is a very thriving tradesman; and on the warm recommendation of Lucy's friends, he had promised to board her in his family, and allow her sufficient compensation for labor. 'In a few days she removed to her new home. It is now fifteen mouths since she left our street. She came once to tell me on her trying them on his hand. Hers, First—That you have saved too little she was perfectly satisfied with her place, and since then I have heard nothing of her. Do not look so reproving my lady Mentor. There been intending for some time to call at Ross' to make inquiries about her. My story has brought us a most to the shop; 'John Ross, glove manufacturer.' This must be the place. Stop one moment, Grace, and look through the window; that man no doubt is Ross himself. What a fine head! you might know such a man would succeed in the world. He would have been a resolute general, a safe statesman; but here he is, an honest, thriving glover, and that perhaps is just as well; nothing truer than the old couplet, " Honor and shame from no condition rise, Act well you partablere all the honor lies." The old man looks as though he might be a little tyranical, though. Heaven grant that poor Lucy may not have to suffer from that trait in his physiognomy." 'The only customer is coming out. Now reason and feeling as the stinging sense that 'I call, Mr. Ross, to inquire after a and John lost his temper; and poor Lucy not been thankful enough to God for his curse should be upon him.

" The next morning they had both clear.

ed out, and every body thought they had gone off to be married; and so I believed tracted man, and said he had been all day he accused me of cruelty, and then followed tween father and son; and it ended in my you turn away, but hear me out. Sotur.

we have a clear field, let us go in.' Mr. Ross, I believe? 'The same, ma'am.' young woman who came to live with you cried, and was too frightened to speak; benefits in times past. Sixthly-That you last Christmas.

living with me, ma'am.' The old man's humor required me to be explicit 'Her name, Mr. Ross, was Lucy Wendal.

' Ay, Lucy Wendal did come into the factory about that time

There was an expression in Ross' face at the mention of her name, that I did not seeking Lucy in vain-that the only friend clearly comprehend. It might betide good she had in the city knew nothing of her, and it might be tide evil of Lucy. 'I mere and when I answered, 'so much the better, ly wished to know, Mr. Ross, whether Lucy had given satisfaction, and whether she still high words, such as never should pass beremins with you?"

so, but I could hardly claim that name.—
She was my neighbor, and interested me as if he only had been wrong. He begged 'Here, Bill, stop! where are you going?'
by her correct deportment, and uncommon dutifulness to her old parents.' Ross made things but marrying Amy Brunce: "I have! What's your hurry then?" Cos I is."

that were lying on the counter, then tied not marry any body else.' I forgave him up the bundle, and laid it on the shelf. You -from the bottom of my heart I forgave seem, Mr. Ross, not disposed to answer him-and I longed to ask him to forgive my inquiries. I am afraid some misfortune me; but I had not come quite to that yet. lasked him what had brought him back Would you like to know, ma'am, what to duty. He put into my hands a letter he has happened to her?' He leaned his el- had received from Lucy. She had person bow on his desk, and seemed about begin-ning a story. vered in not seeing him—but such a letter, ladies! If ministers could speak so to the heart, there would be no sin left in the world. She said they had deserved to suffer for carrying matters so far without my knowledge. She spoke of me as the kindest of fathers and the kindest of masters. Then she spoke of the duty a child owed a parent-said she should never have any peace of thind till she heard we were re-conciled; and told him it would be in vain for him to seek her, for she had solemnly what a parcel of girls is, ma'am, dinging resolved never to see him again. The paper was blistered with tears from top to bottom; but, saving and excepting that,

"I could not stand it. My heart melted furbelowing her hair. The boys and girls within me. I found her that night, and used to have their jokes about her, and call without loss of time; brought her back to her the little parson; but she only preach- my house; and then," he added, walking practical preaching ma'am. She was a lit- and throwing open a door that led into a le master-workman with her needle. I back parlor, "there, ma'am is the long and ma'am, there was nothing from which you could guess what it cost her to write the

And there was one of the most touching scenes of human life. My pretty, dutiful friend became a wife and mother, her infunt in her arms, and her husband sitting beside her, watching the first intimation of intelligence and love in its bright little face: Such should be the summer of happiness when the spring is consecrated to virtue.

Good Advice.

Not many hours ago, I heard uncle Benjamin discussing this matter to his son, who was commplaining of the pressure :-"Rely upon it, Sammy," said the old man, as he leaned upon his staff, with his grey ocks flowing in the breeze of a May morning, "murmuring pays no bills, I have been an observer any time this fifteen years, and I never-saw a man helped out ment about a canary bird that they found of a hole by cursing his horses. Be as when they went in the morning into the quiet as you can, for nothing will grow workshop, in a cage hanging over Lucy's under a moving harrow, and discontent seat; and then I remembered that John barrows the mind. Matters are bad, I achad asked me for five dollars the day before, knowledge, but no ulcer is any thing the better for fingering. The more you groan the poorer you grow.

swer. I thought it pradent, before matters | Repining at losses is only putting pepper went any further, to tell John my wishes, into a sore eye. Crops will fail in all soils about his cousin Amy. My wishes, ma'am and we may be thankful that we have not I have always made a law to my children. a famine. Besides I always took notice, To be sure, I have taken care for the most | that whenever I feel the rod pretty smartly, part that they should be reasonable. I am it was much to say, there is something a little willful, I own it; but it's young folks' which you have got to learn, Sammy, don't business to mind; and 'Children, obey your lorget that your scolding is over yet: though marriage with his cousin was what he could | tices into the bargain; and I should like to have no reasonable objection to, what I had know what a poor man can learn here long fixed my heart upon, and what he must | when the great scholars and lawyers are at set about without delay, on peril of my dis- loggerheads, and can't for their lives tell pleasure. He was silent, and looked east what has become of the hard money."

I believed he would not disobey me. A I have not these grey hairs and this crookfew evenings after, I saw a light in the ed back without some burdens. I could workshop after the usual time, and I went tell you stories of the continental money, to inquire into it. I had on my slippers, when grandfather used to stuff a sulkey box and my steps made little or no sound. The with bills to pay for a yearling or a wheat upper part of the door is set with glass-I fant and then Jersey women used thorns saw Lucy was finishing off a pair of gloves for pins, and laid their teapots away in the -my son was standing by her. It appear. garret. You wish to know what you may poor thing, seemed to tremble. The glove and spent too much. I never taught you would not go on, but it came off, and their to be a miser; but I have seen you giving hands met without gloves, and a nice fit they a dollar for a 'notion,' when you might have were. I burst in upon them. I asked half one half aside for charity, and the other John if this was his obedience to me, and half for a rainy day. Secondly-That you I told Lucy to quit my service immediately. have gone too much upon credit. I always Now the whole matter is past, I must do told you that credit was a shadow, it shows John the justice to say he stood by her like a that there is a substance behind, which man. He said this was a matter in which casts the shadow : but a small body may he could not obey me. He had given his cast a shadow; and no wise man will folheart and promised his hand to Lucy, and low the shidow any farther than he sees she owned she loved him-him who was not the substance. You may also learn, that worthy of her love. He said, too, some, you have followed the opinion and fashions thing of my having hitherto been a kind of others, fill you have been decoyed into father and a kind man; and he would not a bog. Thirdly-That you have been in believe that the first case of my doing a too much haste to become rich. Slow and wrong to be to the orphan girl whom Pro easy wins the race. Fourthly-That no vidence had placed under our roof. Ma'am course of life can be depended upon as alyou will wonder that I hardened my heart ways prosperous. I am afraid the younger to all this, but you know that anger, is said race of working men in America, have to be short madness, and so it is; and be. had a notion that nobody could go to ruin sides, there is nothing makes us so deaf to on this side of the water. Providence has greatly blessed us, but we have become we are wilfully doing wrong; I was harsh, presumptuous. Fifthly-That you have and it ended with my telling Lucy she may be thankful that your lot is no worse. 'I have had a great many young women should not stay another day in my house, And lastly-To end my sermon, you may and John, that if he did not obey me, my learn to offer, with more understanding, the prayer of your infancy, 'Give us this day our daily bread."

The old man ceased, and Sammy put on his spron, and told Dick to blow away at till night, when John came in like a dis. the forge bellows .- Newark Advertiser.

> A GREAT ROGUE -Judge Jeffries, of noforious memory, pointing to a man with his cane, who was about to be tried, said -"There's a great rogue at the end of my cane." The man to whom he pointed, looking at him, said, "At which end, my Lord ?"

> SATISFACTION -A lad, running through the street as though be were shot out of a