THE MESSENGER D. R. M'ANALLY & J. ROBERTS, EDITORS. ASHCEVILLE, N. C. Friday, December 9, 1842.

07 From the present tone of the Whig papers, we think it pretty well settled, that National Convention will be held some time next year, to nominate candidates for the offices of President and vice President. The Lexington (Ky.) Intelligencer soys. of the local or State nominations, nor will he, as the editor believes, permit his name to be used in reference to that office, unless fully impressed with the idea that a majority of the American people-the great Whig party-desire his election.

The Legislature.

Last week we published the message o Goy. MOREHEAD to both branches of our State Legistature. We had no room for comments then, and there is little or no necessity for any now.-To say that it is a well written, able, practical, common-sense document, would be to say just what every body knows who reads it. The subjects presented by the Governor are of the highest importance to the people of the whole State ; and the views expressed by him show that he is the Governor of the whole State, and feels alike for all its interests. On the doctrine of repudiation-the Rhode Island commotion-a national currencytariff and free trade-and the disposition of the proceeds of the public lands-the message is, we think, particularly sound, and clearly sets forth what we consider to be the doctrines of the Whig party.

Among the prominent recommendation in the message, the reader will notice-A turnpike road from Raleigh to the West; A general improvement of the roads the mountain country ;

The establishment of asylums for the deaf and dumb ;

The erection of a Penitentiary ;

A turppike from Fayetteville to the Yadkin :

The extension of aid to the two existing Rail Roads, provided it can be done withthe part of the State, &c., &c.

The first debate which sprung up in the branch of our National Legislature. House, was on the question whether one or five copies of the Governor's message should be printed for the use of each of the members. In this debate, Mr. FRANCIS, of Haywood, took a prominent part, and copy this week from the Raleigh Register, I various bills, resolutions, memorials, dec., Mr. Candler for creating a new county out of parts of Buncombe and Yancy, to be called Union; another by the same gentleman instructing the committee on the Judiciary to inquire into the expediency of so amending the Revised Statutes as to give amending the Revised Statutes as to give Magistrates jurisdiction of assaults and batteries, and to give them compensation J. DESERVIERE HOOPER, A. M., Professor of the that as yet Mr. CLAY has not accepted any for the same, and another exempting certain property of the debtor from execution.

> to sales of property under execution. HUGH McQUIEN, Esq., has resigned the office of Attorney General,

The election for United States Senator had not taken place up to the last advices. It seems that the Democrats have some difficulty in determining who shall be the favored one; some are for Ex.Senator Resident Graduet BROWN and some for Judge SAUNDERS. Mr. Baster, of Ratherford, has introd ced a bill to prevent the sale of standi crops, under executions.

Mr. Avery, of Burke, presented a bill o create a new county, out of parts of Rutherford and Burke, to be called Mc. Dowell.

Mr. White, a bill to create a new county out of Lincoln, to be called Catawba. Robert Cochran, of Fayetteville, James G. Thomas, of Franklin, and James Rumly have been clected Engrossing Clerks.

AT IT AGAIN ..... The Locofoco papers, or at least a great portion of them, since the late elections, which have resulted in favor of that party, have boldly hoisted the Sub-Treasury flag. For a while after the last Presidential election, they were as mute as mice on this subject-they never montion. ed it, but now, thinking the tide is turning in their favor, they begin to speak out .-We are glad of it-let them show their colors, that the Whigs may know where they are, and with such freight as antibank, anti-Tariff, and Sub-Treasury, they may look out for breakers.

07 The Legislature of Tennessee ad. ourned without going into an election for out incurring any further responsibility on United States Senators-consequently that State still remains unrepresented in that BANK NOTES OF ENGLAND .- Some time since, it was stated that a quantity of notes on the Bank of England had found their way into the valley of the Mississippi, where hey had been used in purchasing produce for shipment to England. This statement was subsequently contradicted; but it turns out to be true-they have been circulated to a considerable extent. This is the result of having no national currency of our own. We are playing to the hands of Briish bankers-their notes will find their way here-be long in getting back, while the Bank, will be able to bank upon the value. Were we English bankers, or English ma. Commaittee on Claims :- Messrs. Thos. Wilson, Odom, McNair, Brodgen, Hawkins, Thomas, Martin, Stockard, Cardwell, Brummell, Stowe, States Gov ernment, than the carrying out of the anti-bank and anti-tariff doctrines of the Locofoco party. for the information of such of our roaders as may not see the catalogue entire.

The Collegiate year is divided into two Sess. ons or terms, the one commencing six weeks after the first Thursday in June, the other six weeks after the fourth Friday in November.

The Classes, (with the exception of the Senior.) cecite in two divisons, each division occupying an hour. By this arrangement, six hours are devoted to recitations and lectures on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. On Monday there are but four ; the forenoon of Saturday is set apart for the meetings of the two Literary So-

Composition and Declamation receive due attention throughout the whole course. The three lower classes are required to declaim in private before the Professor of Rhetoric, and afterwards in the presence of the Faculty. The Senior Class deliver Orations of their own composition upon the public stage twice in each

All the Classes are required to attend Divine Worship in the College Chapel on Sunday forenoon, and in the afternoon to recite on the Historical parts of the Old and New Testaments. The instruction of the Freshman Class, is confided, for the most part, to the Tutor of Ancient Languages, and the Tutor of Mathematics. By the division of the Department of Ancient Languages into two branches, with a Professor to each, and by the appointment of a Professor of Rhetorie, very ample means of instruction are afforded in these studies, while the other Professors are enabled to give increased attention to their nore peculiar dutics. In addition to National and Constitutional Law.

the President gives instruction in Mental and Moral Philosophy, and in Political Economy.

A regular course of Lectures on Chemistry, Mineralogy and Goology, illustrated by experi-ments and the exhibition of specimens, is deliver-ed to the Senior Class, by the Professor of Chimistry, who also gives occasional Lectures on the other departments of Natural History. To the means of instruction and impro talents and studious habits, and is unable to deay the expense of fuition and room rent, to adnay bo prepated.

A LOCOPOCO'S OPINION OF HIS OW'S FARTY. -A certain Mr. Walsh, who has been initiated into the mysteries of Locofocoism, lately delivered a speech in Tam many Hall, New York, and made use of the following in reference to the aristocracy of his party. " The aristocracy of talent I revere-the

-the aristocracy of wealth, I can tolerate

-but the low, dirty, codfish aristocracy of Democracy, I loathe and detest !".

05 Some of the Democratic papers say that a personal reconciliation has taken blace between Gen. JACKSON, and Mr. CALnoun. We would like to know if it has been on Mr. C.'s " cohesive bonds of plunder" principle.

07 There are twenty-three candidates for the office of Secretary of State in Scuth Carolina. O, these office-hating Democrats!

OF It is said that money is very plenty in England, and can be had at very low rates on good security. This is no doubt the case, and it would be so here if we had a sound national currency, and proper protection for our labors.

RICE'S, DEC. 3, 1842.

Mesars. Editors .- If you see proper you can publish the weight of a hog, measura. ly raised by myself. I bought this hog about 12 months since; it weighed near 300lbs. The same hog weighed this Fall, 586lbs, gross. I believe this hog was of the old English stock ; I also believe if it had been weighed in scales, it would have weighed 600lbs. I had to weigh with two pair of steelyards, which was not a fair test. will give you his weight neat in a few days.

Yours, respectfully, J. M. RICE.

ELECTIONS BY THE LEGISLATURE, THIS WEEK .-William Hill, Secretary of State : Robert Strange, Solicitor of the 5th Circuit : Henry S. Charle, So. icitor of the 2d Circuit. Cavalry Officers .- William H. Neal, Col. Com.

of the 11th Brigade : John W. Botts, Locut Col. Joseph W. Scott, Major : Reuben Deaver, Col Com. of the 19th Brigade.

FIRE IN THE MOON .- A correspondent of the New Bedford Mercury gives an account of a singular phenomenon on the eastern timb of the moon, which he saw with the aid of a telescope on the 12th of Septem. ber last. The atmosphere, he says, was favorable for observation, and while surveying a tract, which he had frequently examined, and without anticipating any discovery, suddenly a new phenomenon burst upon the eye. The appearance was that of two immense torch lights of dazzling lustre, issuing from a valley of con-

able depression, with much apparent

THE INFLUENCE OF IMAGINATION .- That great old writer, Thomas Fuller, relates a curious incident, which is truly character. istic, and shows how fancy will put life into young limbs. A gentleman, he says, hav-ing led a company of children beyond their usual journey, they began to be weary, and jointly cried to him to carry them; which, because of their multitude, he could not do, but he told them he would provide them with horses to ride. Then cutting little wands out of the hedge as pags for them, and a larger one for himself, they mount. aristocracy of power, fairly obtained and ed, and those who could scarce stand beproperly exercised when obtained I respect fore, now full of mirth, bounded cheerfully home.

> THE DIFFERENCE .- In 1840, with a decided majority, the Whigs re-elected Thos. G. Stone (Loco Foco) Principal Clerk of the Senate, because he was the incumbent. In 1842, with a Loco Foco majority, H. W. Miller is removed from the office of Reading Clerk, without regard to the fact of his incumbency. How could any party, with such an example of political tolerance before them, be guilty of the injustice that has been perpetrated? We leave the answer to every candid man .- Register.

from the first has attracted much attention. Mr. FRANCIS is a gentleman of learning and talonts, and unless we are much mistaken the Democratic majority in the Legislature will find him an " ugly customer" before the close of the session.

We cannot, of course, give the proceedings in detail; but will keep our readers apprised of the most important transactions which may take place.

In addition to the proceedings which we to Washington city this winter.

it's fun for them it's death to us.

The following extract from a letter received at this office, from a gentleman of high standing in an adjoining county, who Candles. has himself cerved for several years in the State Legislature-will show the state of feeling existing in this part of the country, in reference to the proceedings of the dominunt party in the present Legislature. For ourselves, we are not at all sorry that proscription has been carried to the extent Moore, Myers, Melvin, Cathey, Cooper, Jno. W. it has. We were looking for it-and, as well as we were able, endeavored to warn: the Whigs of the State previously to the election. We never had, and have not now, any confidence in Jackson Van Buren democracy-and the Whigs of this State, as elsewhere, may be assured that the course of the present majority in the Legis. lature is but a practical demonstration of the creed of the party, It may serve to ton. Spruill, Stallings, Moye, Hester, Albright, teach the Whigs a lesson in future, and convince them of the folly of casting their votes for a Democrat, from personal partialities or any local considerations.

I cannot, gentlemen, forbear to express my disgust at the unprincipled course of the dominent sarty in our State Legislation. I loo..ed for some changes-but, when such men as Mr. Manly must be prescribed for opimon's sake, to the prejudice of the public good, I hope and believe, that good will result from evil; for surely, such conduct will rouse Whigs from their apathy. Take care ! look out, Sceretary Hill, and Wm, F. Collins, compt., and Gov. Morehead too if he was in their power. Let them take his message and make capital for the future. Ah! sirs, it bids defiance to that par-ty. I have not had thing this evening to read the whole of it ; but the part I have read, is the principles and policy I go for. How stands the case. now, with those Democratic Members, who were cleeted by Whigs ? And how do the Whigs feel who are guilty of the deed ? I ask them to re-pent, and amend their ways in future. Yours, truly.

The College buildings have undergone thorough repair. Extensive improvements are now in progress; and others are in contemplation. Increas. ed efficacy has been imparted to the system of Instruction : more attention is paid to neatness and comfort in the various apartments of the Institution ; and energetic measures have been adopted for confining the expenses of Education within reasonable limits.

Board of a quality not inferior to what is fur. ished at the tables of the most respectable Board ing Houses of the neighboring villages, may be had at the Steward's Hall and elsewhere at SS per month. In addition to the above expenses, ere are those incurred for books, pocket monay. and certain others incident to a connexion with the Literary Societies, the amount of which is fixed by the private regulations of those bodies.

The whole series of books, for the four years, may be purchased for $60 or $70. It is desirable that every Student shall retain his Text Books, and take them with him when he leaves College but as in most instances, they are parted with to the succeeding classes, at a reduced price, this item of expense is thereby rendered less burthen some to many.

Every Student is required on his arrival at the mmencement of each Session, to deliver to the Bursar (Professor Mitchell) the moneys and drafts for money, which he has brought with him.

It is the duty of the Bursar to attend to the settlement of the demands for board, &c .-- to pay into the hands of the Student such sums as are required for other necessary expenses, and to render a statement of the same to the Parent or Guardian at the close of the Session.

The Merchants in this place have entered into an engagement, that the system of unlimited credits, heretofore in use, shall be abandoned ; and that they will confine themselvs in this particular, to those cases in which the Parent or Guardian has previously given a specific and definite sanc. tion, and thus rendered the transaction his own. From the foregoing statements, it will be seen what amount of money a young man is likely to require. With the safeguards, therefore, that have been provided, there is every reasonable security. if the regulations of the Trustees are complied with, that there will be no disappointment in regard to to the expense of an Education at the University. The Fasulty concur in the opinion expressed upon this subject by the Executive Committee, in their Circular Addres to Parents and Guardians on the 15th April, 1837, that exclusive of the supplics of clothing ordinarily obtained from home more than two hundred and fifty dollars per aunum is not necessary, to either the comfort or conve pience of any young man while at this Institution The Faculty are authorized in all, cases, where the appleant is a native of the State, sustains a States, which gave in 1824 on unanimous fair moral character, is believed to passes good cote for General Jackson.-Register.

vehemence; and such was the strength of light that the prismatic colors could be distinctly defined. The two columns were situated northwest and southeast, and distance about six miles, were of conical shape, issuing in angles opposite to each other, of about twenty degrees. Several witnessed this appearance until a late hour, and all of them are of opinion that it is volcanic. That portion of the moon's disc was not visible in October, but the writer was anticipating another view of the phenomenon the present month.

SINGULAR CASE OF POISONING .- The Gre. neda (Mi.) Register of the 29th nlt., states that the family of G. Morehead, residing near the Yazoo pass, were recently poisoned (as is supposed) by cating peaches which had been dried upon a painted scaffold--"the acid of the peaches, combining with 5 the aikaline , and other properties of the white lead, probably producing a poison like sugar lead." Mrs. M. and two of the children died. The other members of the family recovered.

OFFICE HUNTING .- It is astonishing how much discontent, vexation, and misery men will subject themselves to, merely for the chance of obtaining some petty office, which, if secured, would not yield them so much nett income as a moderate applica. tion in their proper trade or calling. When we remember the requisitions for the political expenses which are made annually upon all officeholders, in proportion to their emoluments, we shall find that an office with a salary of a thousand dollars a year is actually worth not more than six or seven hundred. Add to this the precatiousness of holding on to an office under the present system of partisan proscription, and we thick a man who expects to live upon his lock in getting an office may very appropriately be termed an office beggar -New York Sun. THE FIRST DEBATE -Quite an animated liscussion sprung up in the House of Commons, on Wednesday last, the question at ssue being whether fire copies, or one copy, of the Governor's message, should be printgiving the people light, (with the exception of Messrs. Avery, of Burke, Wilder, of Wake, and Wilson, of Lincoln,) it having only one copy should be printed. On this occasion, Mr. FRANCIS, of Hay. price. wood, made his debut as a speaker, and a most successful one it was. The discussion was entirely incidental, and the subject trite, yet he impacted to the debate an interest which one would hardly conceive the subject capable of eliciting.
