To those indebted.

We of all things dislike most to be dunned, and we dislike almost as much to dun—but of the two we had rather dun than be dunned. We owe money, and must pay it, and will pay it, if it takes every penny we have in the world, even to the old three-parts-worn coat on our backs.

The returns from sixteen States of the applications in bankruptcy, made in accordance with a call for information on the subject by Congress, shows in the aggregate, 18,374 petitions, of which 17,694 were voluntary; 8,471 have been finally discharged.

Three thousand persons in the town of Lynn, Mass., have signed the temperance pledge, and of this number 1200 signed during the year 1842; 500 of them are reformed drunkards.

Of the Sittons the postmaster informs us that the elder one has taken the benefit of the bankrupt law, and the younger one is perfectly insolvent.

If gentlemen do not like to gain such notoriety as this, all they have to do is to pay for their papers, and then order them to be discontinued. We are not done with the subject, but have a considerable list of such friends, to whom we shall pay our respects every hencewhile, and if our attentions should be troublesome to them, they can at any time get rid of us by paying the amount of our account.

We publish this week an article which has been called poetry, just to show how silly some people are. It is quite common for men and women both to think themselves competent to write poetry, simply because they happen occasionally to make lines jingle, than which nothing is more ridiculous.

I will merely remark that the style is of the ancient Tom Thumb, Lilliputian order, with a small touch of long and short metre. Respectfully yours, J. M. E. Edneyville, Feb. 23, 1843.

A Father's visit to the Tomb. I come! my first visit to the little mound, Where a few months ago, my child was laid in ground. Deep beneath its silent top and sloping sides, Lowly and quietly, our little one sleepeth, hides An inmate of yon peaceful tomb alone, To pain and bustle lost, to worldly love unknown The busy hum of men quieted—eternally hush'd From the world, monotonous dim, forever push'd The fall of the eod, the deep hollow sound, The hand, a hoe, the spade pass'd round A load of earth, a monumental pile, The sad memento, of thy former sin, The bright blue eye, a lispng tongue, endearing prattle.

Oh! would I've lost? for a thousand hills cattle, But thy little spirit (how sweet) is flown, In full fruition lives, its higher parent own. Thou hast done with things of time and sense, Engaged in holy anthems, call us hence, Thy little structure, of animated clay, How lost! in dust and ashes, the body lay, Doomed a lifeless little one, till God's trump Shall burst thy prison, then (mystic union) jump Forth in beauteous array, holy and untold, (For useless to speak) I scarce dare, God's law unfold, The heavy loadings of my perturbed heart, Speak out blighted hopes, doomed here to part. I come now, my last sad tribute here to pay, Thy dear relics, buried beneath this press of clay, A polished marble, to emulate the head, Another polish'd too (at foot points) out length of bed, Whose inscrip't tell out the tender years of one so loved, From thy earthly parents, how far remov'd, West River, Nov. 1839. DRYAD.

ODDS AND ENDS. SELECTED FROM OUR EXCHANGES. The returns from sixteen States of the applications in bankruptcy, made in accordance with a call for information on the subject by Congress, shows in the aggregate, 18,374 petitions, of which 17,694 were voluntary; 8,471 have been finally discharged.

The compul-you-to-ride-on-a-rail-road-in-the-same-car-with-colored-people-bill, has been re-considered in the Massachusetts Legislature, and indefinitely postponed, by a vote of 171 to 61.

Without fruglity none can be rich; and with it few would be poor. Beauty is worse than wine—it intoxicates holder and beholder. We increase our wealth not so much by increasing our money as by lessening our desires.

He that shows his passion, tells his enemy where to hit him. The credit that is got by a lie only lasts till the truth comes out. A living faith is said to be the best divinity; a holy life the best philosophy; a tender conscience the best law; honesty the best policy; and temperance the best physic.

Catharine Pickle, of Clinton county, Pa., got into a pickle by marrying one Joseph Pickle; she wishes to get out of the pickle and to avoid all future pickles, by procuring a divorce from Pickle, and thus become unpickled. Jesse Hoyt, late of the New York Customs, is said to be a debtor to the Government in $222,000. A man is nobody in old Kentuck, if he hasn't a handsome sister. A real pretty one is a fortune. Almost every amiable woman is pretty. If a wife will always look amiable, she will look pretty to her husband. There is a man in Woonsocket, who feels so big that he takes off his hat when the clouds are sailing through the heavens, lest they should knock it off.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD. Run away from the subscriber, on Friday night last, the 30th of December, a bright mulatto man, named MADISON, about 31 years old, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high—tolerably stout built, weighing 165 lbs., has red curly hair, is light colored that he might pass for a white man, if not particularly observed—is slightly ruptured, and wears a truss. He wore off a broad-brimmed white hat, a checked home-spun cotton coat, and blue mixed pantaloons. He rode a Pass, which expired on the 2d inst. He rode off a small sorrel mare. It is possible he may have been furnished with a free pass, and is no doubt endeavoring to get to a non-slaveholding State. The above reward, and all necessary expenses, will be paid for the apprehension of said Fellow, and his confinement in any Jail, so that I can get him again. Letters upon the subject may be addressed to the subscriber at Tyler's Cove, P. O., Laurens District, S. C. JAMES H. DILLARD, Jan. 6, 1843. 31 129

IF He has REDUCED his PRICES, so that his customers cannot grumble, and will give as long a time for payment as any reasonable man would ask. IF He tenders his thanks for the liberal patronage already bestowed. IF He still occupies his old stand. A. J. FAIN. Asheville, Jan. 13, 1843. 2 129...

A NEW ENTERPRISE. By the former Editor of the Saturday Evening Post and Saturday Courier. COMPRISING the fruits of twenty years experience in the Newspaper business; the aid of the most distinguished newspaper writers of the day; a valuable Foreign Correspondence; with troops of Literary Friends, and the determination to publish a Newspaper for all classes, which shall NOT BE SURPASSED! PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY MUSEUM. OF KNOWLEDGE, NEWS, AND AMUSEMENT. A Family Newspaper, neutral in politics—opposed to quackery, and devoted to the useful Arts, Education, Morals, Health and Amusement. The Tale, Sketches, Narratives, Biographies, Essays, and Poems, shall be of the first order—the best productions of the best writers of the day. Also, articles on History, Astronomy, Chemistry, and all the useful Arts and Sciences, with a liberal portion of light reading, anecdotes, wit and humour, making a varied, rich, and mirth-inspiring Ohio. LIFE ON THE OCEAN.—Furnishing narratives of sterling adventures at sea, showing the courage and heroism of the bold Mariner, as Ho springs from his hammock and flies to the deck, Where amazement confronts him with images dire, Wild winds and mad waves drive the vessel a wreck, The mast's fly in splinters—the shrouds are on fire. Foreign and Domestic news, Congressional proceedings, and a general view of all matters of interest or importance, will appear. PICTORIAL ENAMELLMENTS, comprising maps, landscapes, architecture, portraits of distinguished personages, of both sexes. In these, as well as in neatness of typography, the Museum shall not be surpassed. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS.—Arrangements have been completed for securing a regular Foreign correspondence more extensive and complete than has ever enriched the columns of an American Newspaper. COMMERCIAL.—The state of business, of stocks, prices of grain, flour and all descriptions of country produce, merchandise, &c., will be given from actual sales, in Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York, Boston, &c. SELECT AND ORIGINAL GEMS FROM Miss Leslie, Mr. Authur, Mrs. Sigourney, Mr. Irving, Miss Sedgwick, Mr. Cooper, Mrs. Hale, Mr. Morris, Mrs. Stephens, Mr. Chandler, Mrs. Loce, Dr. Bird, Miss H. Gould, &c. &c. &c. ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS. At an early period will be announced the offer of One Thousand Dollars, which the Proprietors intend awarding in Premiums for the best Literary Productions, instructive Stories, Touching and Affecting Descriptions, Essays, Poems, &c., in order to enlist the strongest array of the best Native Talent in favor of this great Literary Enterprise. It being, in fact, the determination of the proprietor, to leave nothing undone, and to spare no pains, exertions, or expense. EVERY subscriber to this paper will receive a copy of CLARKE'S AMERICAN POCKET LIBRARY, noticed below, without charge, thus rendering the Saturday Museum the most desirable, the most attractive, and the cheapest Family Newspaper that has ever been published in the United States. To Agents.—Terms, Commissions, &c. Any individual who will take the trouble to procure the names of his friends, and remit the funds, will be entitled to the commissions which are at present, and will continue to be, until further notice, more liberal by far, than have yet been offered by any Newspaper of real character or merit. A commission of 70 cents will, for the present, be allowed to agents upon each subscriber. The Philadelphia Saturday Museum is published every week at $2 per annum, as usual, in advance, or $3 at the end of the year. IF For $20, in current funds, 16 copies of the Newspaper, and 16 copies of the Library, will be forwarded, securely packed, to any part of the United States. 3 copies for $5. All orders and communications to be addressed, free of postage, to THOS. C. CLARKE & CO., Saturday Museum, No. 101 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

PROSPECTUS OF THE New Genesee Farmer, AND GARDENER'S JOURNAL. Vol. IV for 1843. HENRY COLMAN, Editor for the first quarter; and M. B. BATHMAN, for the remainder of the year. Published by C. F. Crossman and E. Shepard, Rochester. Sixteen pages monthly, enlarged and improved; price $1 00 per year, in advance. The character of the Genesee Farmer, both old and new, has been well known, and its ability and usefulness universally applauded. Published in one of the best farming districts in the world, and in one of the finest and busiest cities of the growing west, the very home of active industry and intelligence, where information and mechanical talent of the highest order are concentrated, no pains will be spared to make it all that such a paper should be. Under present arrangements, Mr. Colman is expected to continue in the editorial department for the first third of the year; and whenever he retires from its supervision, it will pass into able and competent hands, who will do justice to the paper and its subscribers. Mr. Colman contemplates an agricultural tour in Europe, and will be a regular correspondent of the paper through the year. Mr. Bathman, as traveling agent and correspondent, designs to spend most of his time among the farmers, observing their condition, and operations, and his contributions will be interesting and practical. The numerous and able correspondents of the N. G. Farmer, it is expected will continue their valuable contributions. With these arrangements, the proprietors feel assured, that the long-tried friends of the Genesee Farmer will not desert the paper; but will use their influence to extend its circulation and usefulness. If each subscriber would make it an object to procure one other, he would render an essential public benefit. The correspondence being extended throughout the country, the paper will embrace the husbandry of New England, the Canadas, the Middle, the Southern and Western States; and it will communicate the fullest intelligence of the progress of agriculture in the old world. Being connected with an extensive Agricultural Establishment, for seeds and implements, under the management of one of the Publishers, it will furnish information of all improvements. The proprietors will use their utmost endeavors to concentrate the best talent in their management; to have the mechanical execution and appearance greatly improved, and to render it entirely worthy of the patronage of practical and intelligent farmers. Six Copies will be furnished for $5. Thirteen Copies for $10. On Twenty Copies and over, a discount of thirty per cent will be made. PAYMENT ALWAYS IN ADVANCE. Bills of all specie paying banks will be taken at par. Postmasters are permitted by law to remit money free of postage. The friends of agriculture are respectfully requested to assist in obtaining subscribers. Back numbers or volumes can be furnished. Communications on business or for the paper, may be addressed to Crossman & Shepard, Rochester, N. Y.

Run here, every body!! WILLIAMS & ROBERTS, Have received, at their Cheap Store in Asheville, A FRESH SUPPLY OF WINTER GOODS, AND expect in a few days to receive an additional supply, which, added to their present stock, will make their assortment complete. NOW LOOK OUT FOR BARGAINS. To those who wish to buy a large quantity of Goods for a small sum of money, we say, HERE IS THE PLACE, as we are determined to put them down even LOWER than we have heretofore sold them; and having arrangements by which we will be receiving constant additions to our STOCK, we respectfully call the attention of the Goods-purchasing public to our establishment—promising at all times and under all circumstances to use our best exertions to give general satisfaction. We receive—as we have heretofore done—the PRODUCE OF THE COUNTRY in exchange for Goods; allowing for it the highest market price. WILLIAMS & ROBERTS. Asheville, December 4, 1842.

Furniture—Furniture. CALL at the Cabinet shop on the public square, immediately east of the courthouse, where you will find a large stock of well assorted FURNITURE, consisting in part, of BUREAUS, PRESSES, TABLES, large and small—WORK-STANDS, CANDLE-STANDS, &c. The establishment has lately changed hands, and the price of Furniture considerably reduced. In a few days there will be ready a large lot of REPUBLICAN BEDSTEADS, substantial and neat, but no "French," about them. Every kind of work in the above line will be done to order at this shop, with a neatness and dispatch, not surpassed in the Western part of this State. IF All kinds of country produce except Provisions, Tobacco and Whiskey or Brandy, will be taken in payment for Furniture. Asheville, July 21, 1842. 106. 11.

LOOK HERE. IS it worth while for us to remind our customers, that their debts fell due on the 1st of January? We think they know it, and will attend to it, and when they come to pay up, which we hope will be immediately, that they will bring more money than they owe us, with which to buy some of the CHEAPEST GOODS ever sold in Asheville. WILLIAMS & ROBERTS. P. S. You had all better believe we need the money, and must have it. W. & R. Asheville, January 6, 1843. 128. 11.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SOUTHERN PLANTER. HOWEVER the value of works devoted to the important science of Agriculture may have been appreciated in former times, the day has passed when it becomes necessary to enter into an elaborate defence of the necessity and worth of such publications, and all practical men are now constrained to admit the beneficial influence which they exercise upon the Agricultural industry of the country as well in the increased production of labor as in the general improvement of the soil. Imprinted with these convictions, and the no less startling truths which are daily developing to the mind of every reflecting man, the necessity of diverting a portion to that labor now employed in the production of our great staple, into other and more profitable employment—the growth of Broad-stuffs, Provisions, Stock of all kinds—thereby rendering the southern section of the Union, less dependent for all the articles of daily consumption, upon our Eastern and Western brethren, and affording a more ample field for improvement of our rapidly exhausting soils—the undersigned have been induced to undertake the publication of the SOUTHERN PLANTER, a work which will be exclusively devoted to the cause of Southern Agriculture, and whatever pertains to the promotion of the science, in all its varied ramifications, extending as they do through all the Mechanic Arts. This brief sketch of the objects and designs of the work, will doubtless commend it to the favorable consideration of every intelligent Planter who feels the necessity of such a medium of communication, and to such, without further remark, we make a direct appeal in its behalf, confident that the extremely low price at which it is offered, will place it within the reach of every farmer however limited his means.

Terms.—The Southern Planter will be issued every other week; the first number will appear early in January, on FINE PAPER and NEW TYPE, (bought expressly for the work) in a form suitable for binding. Each number to contain eight pages 9 by 12 inches, which will form at the end of the year, a volume of 208 pages, and will be mailed to subscribers at ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, INVARIABLELY IN ADVANCE. The CASH principle will be rigidly adhered to, and in no case will the work be forwarded unless the cash accompanies the order. Every citizen whether he be Farmer, Mechanic, Lawyer, Doctor or Merchant, who feels the necessity of making an effort to advance the great Agricultural and Mechanical interests of the country, is requested to constitute himself an agent for the circulation of the Southern Planter. IF Postmasters will forward all subscriptions, free of charge, if handed to them. Otherwise all letters and communications must be post paid. J. W. & W. S. JONES. Augusta, Ga., Dec. 24, 1842.

WILLIAMS & ROBERTS HAVE received an additional supply of 3-4 and 4-4 BROWN DOMESTICS, 4-4 OSNABURGS. Also, 200 bales COTTON YARN, assorted numbers, from the Salisbury Manufacture, which they are selling, as they do every thing else, at the most reduced prices, for cash or merchantable produce. The community are respectfully requested to call and examine their stock and prices. August 5, 1842. 108

Also, HOLLOW-WARE, CASTINGS, WAGON Boxes, &c. &c. August 12, 1842. 109

New Goods. THE subscriber is now receiving and opening a large and handsome supply of Fall and Winter GOODS, Directly from the City of New York, which, in addition to his former stock, will make his assortment full and complete. Unwilling to create any impression which he may not be able fully to sustain, he will barely remark, that he is determined to sell Goods so low, that all desirous of obtaining GOOD BARGAINS for Cash, shall not go away dissatisfied. Grateful for the patronage already bestowed by a generous community, he flatters himself, that if prompt attention to business, and a disposition to give entire satisfaction, will successfully sustain him against the honorable competition with which he has to contend he will still continue to receive a liberal share. In conclusion, he respectfully requests cash buyers to call and examine his Goods, and judge for themselves. He will continue to take in exchange the following produce, at cash prices, viz. Feathers, Snake-root, Beeswax, Talow, Hides, and Corn. A. B. CHUNN. Notice. THE subscriber will receive in 8 or 10 days a load of SALT, which he will sell for cash and carriage, by the sack. A. B. CHUNN. Asheville, Dec. 2, 1842. 124

Wool wanted. ANY quantity of WOOL will be received in exchange for Goods, by WILLIAMS & ROBERTS. Dec. 9. 125
