FORIGN NEWS.

By the arrival of the Britannia at B ton on the 4th inst., we are put in possession of foreign news to the 19th ult. The most important item is that of the arrest of O'Connell. Immediately after his arrest he issued the following address :

To the people of Ireland:

Beloved fellow countrymen—I announce to you that which you will hear from other quarters, namely, that I have this day given bail to answer to a charge of 'conspira-cy and other misdemeanors,' the first day of next term. I make this announcement in order to comure the people, one and all, to observe the strictest and most perfect tranquility. Any attempt to disturb the public peace may be most disastrous; certainly would be criminal and mischievous. Attend then, beloved countrymen, to me.

Be not tempted by any body to break the peace, to violate the law, or to be guilty of any tumult or disturbance. The slightest crime against order or the public peace may ruin our beautiful and otherwise triumphant cause.

If you will, during this crisis, follow my advice, and act as I entreat you to do, patiently, quietly, and legally, I think I can sledge myself to you that the period is not far distant when our revered Sovereign will open the Irish Parliament in College Green.

Every attempt of our enemies to disturb the progress of repeal hitherto, has had a direct contrary effect. This attempt will also fail unless it be assisted by any miscon. duct on the part of the people.

Be tranquil, then, and we shall be triumphant. I have the honor to be,

Your ever faithful serv't. DANIEL O'CONNELL. Merrion Square, Oct. 14, 1843.

Some suppose that this is a preconcerted plan to humbug the people of Ireland.-Mr. O'Connell and his associates have about $600,000 in their hands, collected from both hemispheres. This sum will do very well to close the drama with.

Graham's Magazine. - The December No. of this beautiful monthly is upon our table. It contains some very fine engravings .-"The Mother's Jewel" is beautiful; "A Day in the Woods" is a splendid engraving by Dick; "The Moss Rose" is very neat; the contents varied and excellent. The present number closes the current volume. The first number (for January) of the next volume will be issued on the 10th of December. Now is the time to subscribe for the very best magazine .-lisher offers the Magazine for one year and was, that he came to his death by a wound a copy of the " Gems of Art and Beauty," a magnificent ornament for the centretable, containing thirteen splendid engrav. ed to the Jury are briefly these: Mr. Johnperson forwarding $3, thus making the price of the Magazine only $2! ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 22, 1843. At a Whig meeting held in Ashevile on the 3rd of October ult., in which a respectable number of the citizens of Buncombe county were associated, a resolution was unanimously adopted empowering Col. Jas. Lowry, who presided as chairman of the meeting, to appoint delegates to the Whig State Convention to be held at Raleigh on the 7th of December. In pursuance of which power, the chair has appointed (and proceeds to notify of their appointment,) N. W. Woodfin, J. W. Woodfin, Jho. H. Coleman, and William Williams, Esqrs., delegates to represent Buncombe county in midsconvention.

By order of the chairmain.

D. VANCE, Secretary. It is confidently hoped that some, or all of the above nominated gentlemen will attend the convention. We know there are many difficulties and privations attending so great a journey, over such a road, and at such a season; but, urged by every principle of patriotism, and by the call of our common country, what difficulties can we not surmount? We would much regret that old Bencambe should not be represented. She should be heard. But should she be silent on the 7th of December, our word for it, she will speak out on the first / ly allow Mr. Clay six States, and allowed Thursday in August next. Do not mistake us, gentlemen of the east, we do our voting foco allowance of four, General Harrison "away up here;" and just wait till 4th '44, then hear from the "state of Buncombe," and see her " launch her earthquake." She then will speak in a "voice of thunder" not to be misunderstood.

GROWTH OF MICHIGAN. -- Michigan, for the last two periods of ten years, has increased in population at a higher rate thanany other State or Territory; she has even outstripped Ohio, as to rate of increase, at the same relative stages of their growth .--From 1820 to 1830 the rate of increase of the population of Michigan was 225 per cent; the next highest during the same period was Illinois, which was 185 per cent; Alabama, 142 per cent., &c. From 1830 to 1840 her rate of increase was 622 per cent.; or from a population of 28,004, (exclusive of the counties now embraced in Wisconsin,) to 212,267. The next highest State or Territory as to rate of increase during the same period, was Arkan. sas, being 221 per cent., then Illinois, at 202 per cent.; Mississippi, 173 per cent.; Indiana, 99 per cent., &c. In 1850 the Press estimates that her population will be over half a million. That is the way the West grows.

The Eulogy on Mr. Legare.

In compliance with the public appointment, yesterday was devoted by our citizons to a participation in the ceremonies in honor of the memory of the gifted and lamented LEGARE. Notwithstanding the very inclement weather, the procession was formed near the appointed hour, and moved up Meeting st. to the Circular Church, the spacious interior of which soon presented a throng of both sexes, anxious at once to hear the eloquent culogist, and to pay the tribute of respect and affection to departed genius, learning and worth. The exercises were opened with an appropriate prayer, by the Rev. Dr. Post, Pastor of the Church, followed by an anthem from the choir. The eulogy was then pronounced by the Hon. WILLIAM C. PRESTON, who, attention of a deeply interested audiance, with one of the richest feasts of both mind and heart, it has ever been our privilege to enjoy. It has been often remarked that the eulogy is a most difficult species of composition, and one in which the great prator frequently fulls to achieve a success corresponding with his previous fame; but on the present occasion, the eulogist was signally felicitous, coming up to the full measure of public expectation, raised to the highest point by the well known tribut echoing the universal sentiment to pronounce Mr. Preston's performance a masterly effort; chaste and simple in style yet glowing with fine imagery and pervaded by a touching pathos and winning tenderness; in its narrative full of the charm of biography, and in its more reflective portions replete with all and the higher requisites of the funeral oration; at once just generous in its estimate and delineation of ad beyond the limits of this State so that the orthe character of the deceased, and elegant and discriminating in its criticism of his productions and performances as a writer tribute to the illustrious LEGARE, as a scholar, a jurist, an orator, a writer and a states. man, and to his character as a man of gentle virtues and pure and noble nature-and, when published, as it will doubtless be, we hesitate not to say that it will take the high. est rank as a literary performance, and be regarded as a model for future efforts in the same line of composition.-Char. Courier Nov. 8.

Melancholy Suicide.

On Thursday last, the dead body of one HENRY W. JOHNSON was found in a field of al attendance of the Pupils at the opening of the Mr. George Mosteller, about four miles south of of this place. The head was half disengaged from the body, his clothes and the ground around him were dyed in blood, and by his side lay a dull pocket knife with which no doubt the despurate deed was per-The terms are-single $2 per annum; 2 petrated. On the night previous to his death, he became maniacal, paced the floor of his room incessantly, talking and gesticulating in the wildest manner. The witness stated, that his words and actions reembled more than any thing else, those of a tragedian on the stage. But it seems he was determined that "the last act" should be performed in the sight of no human spectator; what the dawn of day, he exwill liave at least a drink of cool water, and left the room, as witness supposed to return in a short time; but he was never more seen until he was found a bloody, mu-

He afterwards settled in New York, and for a time carried on an extensive business there in his line; but the firm of which he was a member, failing, he left New York and came to the south, and has been working in Charleston, Columbia, and Greenville, S. Sears' Popular Pictorial Works,

The most splendidly-illustrated volumes for families ever issued on the American continent, containing more than fire thousand beautiful en-gravings, designed and executed by the most emi-nent artists of England and America. Published and sold by Sears to Walker, Nos. 114 Fulton and 129 Nassau street, New York city.

JUST PUBLISHED, (a.six dollar book published and sold for three dollars,) THE CHRIS-TIAN'S GIFT FOR 1844 .- The most splendidly-illustrated work on Bible History ever offered to the American public, embellished with several hundred new and fine engravings-the whole work (two volumes in one) making seven hundred large and closely-printed octavo pages, elegantly bound in guilt, and lettered, in the most finished style of modern book making. Price only three dollars, being the cheapest work ever issued in the world! The publishers respectfully request clergymen, teachers of Subbath schools, heads of families, and booksellers, to examine this new, fined by its expressive title-" Sears' new and Complete History of the Holy Bible, as contained in the Old and New Testaments, from the creation of the world to the full establishment of Christianity. Containing a clear and comprehensive account of every remarkable transaction recorded in the sacred Soriptures during a period of upwards of four thousand years. notes, critical and explanatory, forming an illustrated commentary of the sacred text. Part 1. The Old Testament History. Part. 2. The New Testament History. By Robert Sears: aided by the writings of our most celebrated biblical scholars, and other learned persons, who have made the Scriptures their study. Two volumes in one."

Commentators, lexicographers, oriental travellers, and biblical critics of the greatest name, have been extensively and carefully consulted in pre-paring this work. The editor trusts it will be found worthy of the patronage of christian pastors, instructors and parents of all denominations, and well calculated, under the Divine blessing, to enlighten the understanding, purify the heart, and promote that knowledge by which we may obtain happiness in this world, and eternal salvaton in that which is to come.

The following is from the editor of the United States Literary Advertiser : "The most splendid Gift Book of the season and the cheapest and most useful work ever is-sued on either side of the Atlantic, is Sears' 'New and Complete History of the Bible,' deduced from the labors of the most renowned biblical scholars of all countries, incorporated with numerous ori-ginal and curious embellishments, engraved by the first artists-which has just made its appear. ance. This work proves not only an elegant, be distinctly marked with the owner's a most interesting and valuable volume. Evidently no pains or cost have been spared to ren. der it such; and when it is remembered that it is known editor of 'Bible Biography' and other pictorial works, which have had such an extraordinary popularity, we feel assured that the most sanguine anticipations of the christian public will not fail of being fealized. From what we have seen of it, we predict this work will be pronounced at once the most useful and splendid of all Mr. Sears' pictorial publications. Literature, profane and sucred, has been combined, with several hundred embellish. ments, to produce a work eminently adapted as a family book of the very best order; while we consider it also one of the cheapest ever presented to American patronage. Of the descriptive and explanatory letter-press, it is enough to say that the records of ancient history, and the researches of the best theologians, have been put in requisition for the elucidation of Scripture difficulties, and book fails of unexampled success. Rich, Amusing, and Instructive Book! " He who blends instruction with delight,
