> For the Highland Messenger. Public Meeting.

At a meeting of the citizens of Buncombe county, held at the court-house in Asheville on the 1st of January, 1844, Capt. Charles Moore was called to the chair, and J. M. Rice, Esq., and J. H. Christy requested to act as secretaries.

After which, N. W. Woodfin, Esq., rose and stated that the object of the meeting was two-fold; 1st, To appoint delegates to attend the District Convention to be held at this place on the Tuesday of our next Superior Court, for the purpose of appointing a delegate to the National Convention : and 2ndly, to take the necessary steps for the organization of a Clay Club for the county of Buncombe ... and in a speech of considerable length clearly showed the propriety of the measure.

Mr. Francis, being called upon, gave the meeting an account of the Whig Convention at Raleigh.

After which, Col. Mills, by request, addressed the meeting at considerable length.

On motion of Mr. Woodfin, the following resolution was adopted: Resolved. That the chair appoint twenty delegates to attend the District Convention to be held at Asheville during the week of our next Superior Court, for the purpose of appointing a delegate to the Baltimore con-In pursuance of the above resolution, the chair appointed the following gentleman as delegates: Col. Robt. Williamson, Jas. M Smith, Esq., Col. Jas. M. Alexander, N. W. Woodfin, Esq., Jas. Gudger, Esq., A. B. Chunn, Esq., Jno. For the Highland Messenger. Whig Meeting in Henderson.

At a meeting of the Whigs of Henderson county, held in the Court-house in Hendersonville on the 25th alt., for the purpose of organizing a Clay Club; Col. John Clayton was called to the chair, and L. S. Gash, Esq., appointed secretary.

By request of the chair, Col. John Baxter explained the object of the meeting, and concluded by vindicating the propriety, wisdom, and usefulness of such associations, and pressed with zeal and earnestness the importance of organization and concerted action by the great Whig family of the nation.

On motion a committee waited on Mr Francis of Haywood, who was in the vitlage on his return from the Whig State Convention, with a request that he address the meeting: to this request Mr. Francis responded in an interesting and lucid account of the proceedings of the convention. repeatedly interupted by shouts of applause. Of the unanimity and enthusiasm which pervaded the convention, he spoke with unusual force and effect.

Col. Mills of Rutherfordton was next call. ed out, who pronounced a just and eloquent eulogy on the character of the Hon. Wm. A. Graham, and congratulated himself and the Whigs of the Wastern Reserve" that the wisdom of the convention had selected one so eminently worthy to be the leader of "Whigs good and true," and closed with a soul stiring and annimated appeal to the Whigs to engage vigorously in the coming

Col. Baxter offered the following resolu tion, which was adopted without a disenting

Resolved, By the Whigs of Henderson county, that they hail with unqualified aprobation the nomination of the Hon. Wm. . Graham by the Whig State Convention convened in Raleigh on the 7th ult., as the Republican Clay Whig candidate for the Gubernatorial chair of the state; and in consideration of his high attainments, un suffied patriotism, exalted talents, long tried and acknowledged integrity, disinterestedness of purpose, and undisputed Whig principles, we pledge ourselves to use every honorable exertion to secure his election.

On motion a committee of five consisting of Mesers John Buxter, Wm. Brittain, Elisha King, L. S. Gash and J. Summey, were appointed to draught a constitution and by laws for the government of the Clay Club of Henderson, and report on the 22nd day of February next.

On motion of Wm. Brittain, the chairman was added to the committee.

On motion of Elisha King, it was order ed that a transcript of the proceedings of this meeting be furnished to the editors of the Highland Messenger for publication. The meeting then adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening in the Court-house at Mesers. Editors :- It afforded me great pleasure to learn that the name at the head of this article, carried with it such potency as to secure for it the nomination of our State Convention for Governor. Mr. Badger being out of the canvass, I am almost constrained to believe that the nominee stands higher, fairer, and more in the affections of the good people of the good old North State than any other gentleman in it belonging to the Whig party. Mr. Gra-ham's talents, morals, integrity, honesty, gentlemanly bearing, and undoubted attach-ment to the Whig cause—all, all endear him to their warmest support and co-ope ration; and as he is now before the good people of the state, it is time to be "up and doing," for the Whigs have always lost their victories (when they were lost) by sleeping on their arms till the vigilance of their opponents overpowed them, more than from the justness of their cause or their real strength. Let us, then, of the first district be sowing our seed in the morning and then we shall not be disposed to with hold our hunds in the evening.

We can succeed, we must succeed, we will

Gentlemen:-As the battle has to be fought with the cabbage worm of Kinderhook, and as our general cannot review his forces in our district, it is high time for his allies to be enrolling, parading, picking their Whig flints, and making ready to try

And it forcibly strikes me that there is and will be no way of doing this more effectually than by forming at once-at the beginning of the new year-Clay Clubs. speak now for the first district especially. We can not prudently do too much, but we may carelessly do too little; and as our success depends entirely upon our efforts, we should strain every nerve to conquer and come off more than victorious, and show to our opponents that '44 will be far more glorious for us than '40 was. If we will we can make it so. Let us show by our actions that we are in earnest; let us spread the news abroad; let us make haste to work, and all we desire will be consummated. We hope the subject will be acted on at all the courts now in progress, till our strength shall be as that of Sampson. J. M. E Dec. 23, 1843.

We hope our Whig friends of this district will profit by the above suggestions .-EDS. MESS.

intelligent and attentive correspondent:

CITY OF BAGDAD, (ON THE RIO GRANDE,) November 10th, 1843. To the Editors of the Bulletin: GENTLEMEN An express has just arrived here from the city of Mexiing the important intelligence that Joe Smith, the celebrated Mormon prophet of the Latter day Saints, has concluded a treaty with president Santa Anna for the purchase of Texas; for which he agrees to assume ten millions of the Mexican debt to England, and has hypothecated the state of Illinois as collateral security for the faithful redemption of said debt. Commission. ers have already been appointed to run the boundary line, &c. Gen. Ampudia and Martin Perfecto de Cos, are named on the part of Santa Anna, and Prophet Miller and Tigertail on the part of Joe Smith ... By a secret article in the treaty it is stipulated between the high contracting parties that Santa Anna shall transport president Houston to the Fejce Islands, within the space of three months, and that all the negroes in Texas shall be delivered up to commodore Elliot, of Chinese memory, to be equally divided between Lord Brougham and Daniel O'Connell.

Rebecca and her daughters, of Wales, have lately obtained a large grant of land on this river, and witl emigrate in the spring. Bennet, of the Herald, is her agent. The Texian commissioners are both dat same old 'coon." General Hamilton left here this morning on Santa Anna's famous war-horse, and will dine with the king of the Sandwich Islands to-morrow, at 5 o'clock P. M. Lord Paulett and Com. Jones are about making a joint attack on Yucatan. Private letters received by the overland mail confirm the report that Gov. Dorr has actually arrived at Vern Cruz, with that sword, and joined the Mexican army. My best respects to Pardon Jones, Sol. Smith, and all the up-river gals. Yours, in haste, MAJOR LONGBOW.

Our Second Volume.

The first volume of the "Southern Culti-ATOR" is drawing rapidly to a close-only two more numbers will be required to complete it— when we shall enter upon the second. It is, therefore, a fit and appropriate occasion for us to make an appeal to the Agriculturists of the South, to stand by, and aid and sustain us in the enterprise We do not appeal alone to the agriculturists, but we appeal to every friend of agriculture, to lend his aid in sustaining the work Prompted by an earnest solicitude for the improvement of the system of agriculture in our native State, as well as the entire South, we entered upon the publication of the work, hoping rather to make it an accepta ble medium of communication for the planters of the south, than the vehicle for diffusing our own crude ideas upon the subject of agriculture. We had long feit the necessity for such a work—a work adapted and devoted to the promotion and improvement of southern agriculture, while it should be afforded so cheap as to place it within the reach of every planter—and feeling rather mortified at the reflection that the entire south bark in the enterprise-to make the experiment. and see whether the planters and friends of agriculture for whose immediate benefit it was designed, would sustain us in our efforts. Thus far, although the patronage extended to the present volume has quite equalled if not surpassed, our expectations, it has been barely sufficient to defray the actual cost of publication—affording us no the actual cost of publication—affording us no remuneration for our own labor and attention. It remains, therefore, with the planters to deter-mine whether this state of things shall continue; to determine, in short, whether, "the laborer is worth, of his hire," and, if so, to mote out to him even handed justice. It has been aptly and tru ly said, that "it is the reward, or the hope therewhich sweetens labor," and as we are not ena bled to gather together, and count the fruits of our labors in this behalf, we invoke the friends of agriculture to extend to us such aid in the circulation of our paper, as they may deem it worthy to receive at their hands. We have every disposi-tion, and are entirely willing, to toil on in behalf of the interests, and for the improvement of the condition, both morally and physically, of our own native south; but, as the well tempered steel cannot resist too much tension, we, too, must yield when too great a burthen is imposed. cannot, therefore, prosecute a labor which holds out to us no inducement in the shape of a reward; and we are quite sure the generous and noble hearted planters do not desire such a sacrafice of time and labor at our hands, but rather that they desire to see us amply, yea, abundantly and liberally rewarded. With a perfect convic The Textan commissioners are both setin' on a rail" at Laredo, to the tone of has read or seen the "Southern Cultivator," we shall enter upon the publication of the sec volume, indulging the sanguine hope that our efforts in behalf of the great agricultural interest of the south will not go unrewarded but that our friends will lend their efforts to extend its circulation and increase its usefulness. Satisfied that this is the feeling among the planters who have read the work, we feel no delicacy in asking each of our present patrons, to imagine us before them in person, with hat in hand, and, after having made our best how, soliciting them to call and see their neighbors, and ascertain if they, too, will subscribers to the "Southern Cultivator." And allow us to assure you, if each of you succeed in obtaining only one subscriber, you will afford us such relief as will make our heart leap for joy. Some of you can get two, some ten, and some twenty, if you will only make a little exertion. Will you not, then, unite your energies in behalf of the Cultivator, the cause of agriculture, and your own interests? We hope you will; indeed, we had almost said we know The price of subscription is only ONE you will. The price of subscription is or DOLLAR per year, as you all knowwhich every planter can afford to pay; and as very planter who studies his own interest, n justice to that interest, to take an agricultural paper, we hope that all such planters will have their names enrolled on our subscription list. We need not trespass upon the consideration and in-dulgence of our friends, the Agricultural Cubs of the State, for we feel quite assured that they will not neglect its in this hour of need. CLUSS .- We remark, in conclusion, that in order to offer every inducement to clubs to subscribe, the following terms will, in future, be adopted: 6 copies for 25 These terms, certainly, should meet the approba-tion of every friend of the work, and, we trust, will excite an increased zeal in its behalf.—With these remarks, we commit the work to the hands

Commentators, lexicographers, essental travel-lers, and biblical critics of the greatest name, have been extensively and carefully consulted in pre-paring this work. The-editor trusts it will be found worthy of the patronage of christian pastors, instructors and parents of all denominations, to enlighten the understanding, purify the heart, and promote that knowledge by which we may ton in that which is to come. The following is from the editor of the United States Literary Advertiser : "The most splendid Gift Book of the season. and the cheapest and most useful work ever issued on either side of the Atlantic, is Sears' New and Complete History of the Bible,' deduced from the labors of the most renowned biblical scholars of all countries, incorporated with numerous original and curious embellishments, engraved by the first artists—which has just made its appearance. This work proves not only an elegant, but a most interesting and valuable volume. Evidently no pains or cost have been spared to render it such; and when it is remembered that it is the production of the well-known editor of the Bible Biography' and other pictorial works, which have had such an extraordinary popularity, we feel assured that the most sanguine anticipations of the christian public will not fail of being realized. From what we have seen of it, we predict useful and splendid of all Mr. Scars' pictorial pub. heations. Literature, profane and sacred, be been combined, with several hundred embellishments, to produce a work eminently adapted as a family book of the very best order; while we consider it also one of the cheapest ever presented to the limits of this State, and are beyond the juris-digtion of this Court; they are notified by six American patronage. "Have you surrendered ?" was the inquiry of the commander of the Scrapie, as the Bom Hom. me Hichard' desisted from firing to repair damages and extinguish the flames that had been rapidly gainining the mastery of his vessel. "Surren-dered!" answered Paul Jones, "WE have NOT YET BEGUN TO FIGHT !" In that same spirit, the great Whig Party of the Union, victorious on some points and thrown back at others, unconquerable by force but not impregnable to treachery, hav-ing passed through the Elections of 1843, now organization of its forces, the commences the foustering of its battalions, and the systematic affusion of intelligence preparatory to the great contest of 1844. Once fully organized, they will advance to certain, glorious and beneficient vic-

The Publishers of the New-York Trinune, having been urged from several quarters to issue a cheaper paper devoted to the important work of diffusing to every dwelling correct and convincing information with regard to the character, principles, objects, and measures of the two great parties, have hesitated to issue a smaller sheet devoted especially to this purpose, since it would subject its patrons to the same postage that is charged on our present ample sheet, and must necessarily exclude those portions of the Litera-ture, General News of the day, and accurate and extensive reports of the transactions in the money and produce markets, which The Tribune has the amplest means of presenting, and which every family should in some form possess. They have concluded, therefore, to publish an Extra Edition of the Weekly Tribune as it is, containing the same matter that is transmitted to our regular subscribers. This Extra Edition will be commenced with the number of December 9th, containing the President's Message at the opening of the new Congress, and continuing to the number which in November, 1844, shall announce the result of the Presidential Election, (being fif-ty weeks, or numbers.) Obthis Extra Edition, we will send through the whole term Twenty Cories to one address for Twenty Dollars.

Where the papers are required to be sent to different Post Offices, or where the name of the must insist on our uniform price-Two Dol the best theologians, have been put in requisition for a single copy per year: Ten copies or more at for the elucidation of Scripture difficulties, and the rate of One Dollar and a Half each. Do not ask us to swerve from this rule, friends! for the thing is impossible.

e character of The Tribune is by this time generally known. It aims to reconcile the largest Freedom of Thought and Action with a profound reverence for Law and obedience to rightful Au. thority—to be the stern foe of all discord, anarchy and turbulence, but the champion of every generous idea, however novel or unpopular, w for its end the upraising of the oppressed and the lowly. While it proffers no claim to the abused name of Democracy, so long the cloak of political Pharisees, the cant of designing demagogues, it will be, as it has been, in the legitimate sense of the word, truly Democratic—the adversary of every wrong, the exposer of hollow profession and scheming knavery, and the advocate of every movement tending to the diffusion of true Freedom and the upward progress of the human race. The Weekly Tribune is published in this city very Saturday morning, but despatched by the mails of Thursday and Friday. It wof the largest size, folded in eight pages, so as to be about the average size of two common newspapers. Subscriptions are respectfully solicited.
