THOS. W. ATEL LOITHE AND PROPERTY.

TERMS:

for the paper will receive alternation

From Neal's Salurday Gane The Living and the Dead.

the living know that they shall die, but w the living more triat they must die, but deal know not anything.-Faiel.ir 5. A Solemn Troth! The living know That what size are they must renge; The hand of Peath will strike the blow. And beth the mandate form will go, That "Time shall be no longer thing." Eddadt your finite time to know. When Death's dread hom is drawing high; The record that is keps to high. Is galden letters this will show.

In galden letters this will show, That living, then hast learned to di

The living know itt-but the dead, The living know its—sent the mean, Der whom both closed the silent grave, Who notece out the form by trend: Of moteness worping over their head, Or the flowers that over them wave; These know nothing-for they have pa They gate of Dents; and all around In sey failers they are bound; . This one great truth is scaled fast. That all mankind must die at last.

"Grand Scribe,

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Chalera Morbas ment doubt his distant. his wild a Devoted to Politics, Literature and General Intelligence.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., AUGUST 36, 1847.

Franks Rates Darsen,
 Franks Rates Darsen,

Perdvina Marri

VOLUME VIL-NO. 52. WHOLE NUMBER 3

Terris 32 per annum

PAVABLE IN ADVANCE

the Washington Union, for efficient means officer of the Missouri battalion of volunteers. But the time has now arrived for executing these orders, and making the Indians feel the power of the government.

To do this effectually, and to afford ade. quate protection to the U. States "trains," a requisition has just been made upon the Governor of Missouri for one battallonto consist of one company of artiflery, two companies of infinity, and two of mounted men, to rendezvous at Fort Leven.

worth, to be placed under the orders of Brig. Gen. Arbuckle, commanding 2d and 3d military departments. Gen. Arbuckle is empowered to call for a larger force.

my in an open field, with a clear sky and an undivided from. But to attack them when our phalany is reaf by disaffection, ! and distracted and divided in our councils, is mally to popsed the ultimate success of our warfaret and to give the most advanwipe from your escatcheon, the imputation ter. The feiends of the wife with equal of neglect and lethargy. And to my mind, I see no plan so feasi

And to my mind, there is a part of the farmen be and the internet of the farmer and the farmer a tion thoroughly organized in . our midsthaving a fountain head, or Grand Divisshing subordinate Divisions, and an increased and brightening prospect of several others being very soon eaublished .-The most casual observer must have notieed, than most deplorable failing off has Societies (under the old Washingtonian plan,) are totally neglected, if not utterly withdrawn, and almost every where intempersance seems to be on the increase.

What, then, is to be done? seems to be the natural enquiry, to save the cause from utter annihilation in the Old North State? The "Sons of Temperance" is an Institution which has spread with greater rapidity then anything of the kind ever before known. In less than five years, they have then from sixteen lone men, to largely more than one hundred thousand. Their Sucm of organization is perfect-complete. It embraces in its Brotherhoud ome of the very first men in the Nation. That it is a good cause, and one in which every Christian; Philanthropist and Patriot admitted by all, eyen its most rabid oppo BUDDIN. d praisewurthy a work?

This reflection alone, should be naply oning him, and against the Chancellor of sufficient to arouse the slumbering energies. Maryland for stealing papers 'from his to service in the nuble army of the Sons. Just their resentment in their pity.

fold upprious effect, viz: First, to discour-age the most zealous and ardent devotee beings were united in the most important necessary reforms to be made in time; the was perfectly sound. One of them was, John song, Ann song, Mary song, Today and single the most ware unled in the most important is enounced to be constitution to be constitutionally amen, and single to repress them. Some of these measures and single to the most important is enounced. At the some violent is enounced to a certainty, inasmuch is it rested upon a mathematical founda.

men will go astray." The parties wran architect of ruin; he did not pelldown until rotted off. gled, quarrelled, and came to an open rup-ture and separated. The whole of the clan of the McD wells were in arms, and to enter another. The two intermediate be sufficient to convince the incredulous; Gov. Thomas was not without his partir bodies which stand between the people and, perhaps, to determine the correctingeous position to the united forces of his vouthful bride of infidelity, and charged und the object of their choice-the nome is LEGION!-To the work, then, Temperance min, and wipe from your escatcheon, the imputation of the friends of the work of dubious characters. The friends of the work of the imputation of the work of the imputation of the mouth of the work of the imputation of the mouth of the work of the imputation of the imputation of the mouth of the work of the imputation of the mouth of the imputation of the mouth of the work of the imputation of the mouth of the mouth of the work of the imputation of the mouth of the mou zins. The venerable bridegroom accused and the object of their choice--the nom? acerbity charged groundless suspicion, and unmanly, treatment, going even to of Temperance," Already is this Instita. dress at law for the villainous conspiracy of which he deemed himself a victim .-Criminations and recrim nations through ion for North Carolina, with several flour- the public prints; occasional assaults and batteries between principals and partizans; the stages of the suits dragged through the tedious courts-all kept alive a curlogs inquiry into the circumstances of this painful mestic aff or, made public for the gratitaken place. Many of our Temperance fication of a morbid appetite for scandal. The charges against the wife were .so clearly the truits of a distempered mind, abandoned; individual exertion has been that her acquittal, in public opinion, was unanimous; nor were the charges against her match making triends" deemed better grounded. The oals way to reading the whole mystery was to deem Mr. Thomas insance a supposition rendered more than probable by his subsequent conduct. And yet during all the stages of proceeding he appeared to rely on positive and unquesnable evidence. Mrs. Ling, widow the U. S. Senator from Missouri, holding documentary proof sustaining Governor Thomas's assertions, as stated by counsel cognizant of this fact. There was a mystery somewhere, though the most astute could not find the key.

In the mean time Mr. Thomas and wife can saidly and zealously engage, is a fact were divorced by an act of the Virginia L'egislature, and she authorized to assume With a cause, then, which has bid her maiden name. The slander and gross auccessful defiance to the tongue of slan- suits were adjourned from time to time, on der and malice, and received the approving account of the absence of Mrs. Linn, the anchon of Heaven itself, what have we most material witness. The monomanic to fear to engage in it? Oc rather, what of Gov. Thomas incited him to after steps awful responsibilities shall we incur if we in the mean time, which established the orglect to engage most heartily in so noble fact of his sincerity in the whole drama --His actions against his physician for poisup his armur, draw forth the sword of Truth and Reform, and fight ull the prin-ciples of Sobriety and Temperance are firmly established upon the ruins of Drun-ten by Sarah McDawell. With the blind of the argument.

popular choice, and bringing on a crisis,induce the people to supersede them by-safe and better institution."

> "Tom Corwin, the wagan boy."-Thomis generally known in the Union as the "Wagon Boy." How he came by this soubriquet, the following paragraph will

These, at one time, were but off, and the army was in great distress. A call was made for volunteers, who were to be charged with the responsibility of con-ducting through the fearful and uninhabited the lightest grains, and barles and oats will imperfect grains, and barles and oats will rise to the surface. Then it will be well day to this, he has been known as "Tom Corwin, the wegon boy."

PRESCOTT, THE HISTOBIAN, is nearly blind. He has the use of but one eye on an avorage about an hour each day .---His last work, "The conquest of Peru," was written at a time when he could not see duall. He had to employ a secretary to read his foreign letters, and gradually accustom himself in this way to the sound of foreign tongeles, so as to comprehend the reading. He wrote with writing materials such as the blind use. Under these great difficulties he hascomposed a work which will do honor to the literature of acquired fame as a hist rian.

A Cockney and a Yankee were dis-John, "I have you there; for I was travel-greatest evils in our way. It is hard work tion. ( enough, in all conscience, to meet the ene. But the "best laid schemes of mice and nominating convention. But he was no was decayed, while the other had nearly gry: Finding myself 'so much better, I

TOMATO Pies -Line the bottom and side of a bake pan with thin slices of lost longer, so I left for this country, on the bread, put in alternate layers of sliced to- 18th of January, 1812. When I- fanded matoes, ripe and sound, and brend, ad ding butter and spice to taste, sprinkle a sufficiency of powdered sugar on each lay-ployed. Well, I thought I must look ar as Corwin, the U.S. Senutor from Ohio, er of tomatoes. Cover with aliced bread Proparation of Seed Wheat -- By sieves "During the late war with Great Britnin, Gen. Harrison's army had to be supplied grain may be separated. By washing in with provisions from the interior of Ohio.

First-rate Paste

Next to scissors, paste is editorial assistant. North American) the a latter aweet and pute, scientific philanthropist new recipe for paste, Resolution Franklin, a Folton, a "You ult do know," ton, a Davy, or a Morse. Mark Anthony said, that when paste is mus ary manner, it soon bes and by fermenting in war ares its sticking power. To keep, dissolve an ounce of a ITHUD C .... of warm water, when cold, an as much rusin as will stand on a shilling, and lwo or three cloves; buil it, to a c cussing the hospitality of the Americans. silirring all the time. It will beep for twelve "They behaved very shabby to me in months, and when dry may be softened sufficient to aroose the slumbering energies of the freeds of humanity, and inspire them with a transe both accusations positively absurd. Boston," said John Boll. "That was with water. Think of this, yo who have the interview of the freeds of humanity, and inspire them are clear evidences of his madness. Byen because you are an Englishman," replied a paste pot under your nose from one there have a paste pot under your nose from one form on tet every Washingtonian, then, burnish The mystery is at last revealed. Mrs., ing with a Yankee, and they served him the villationas odors from the ferment of rye flour and water.

Advantages of Politeness .-- While an officer was bowing't cannon bull passed over his bead, and decapitated a soldier who stood behind him. "Yod see," said kenness and Misery. To all who may desire information rel-ative to the Order of the Sons of Temper-nace, I would any, by simply addressing a is Legion.

went and signed the pledge for life, and I hope I shall hold on. In January, 1842, the man that I worked for, wanted to lower my wages, the some as he had done before many a time, when he knew men could not help themselves. At this time we got only half what we used to get nine years before and not so much work mither. I made up my mind not to submit to such lyranny: any very dull, not half the calico factories em. if these should prove insufficient. One ployed. Well, I thought I must look at mounted regiment, and one buttalion of ter something else. I fell in with a man foot from Missouri, and one regiment of who wanted a garver sat a Temperance here I fell in with a man that sold Razor rate living selling his good Strops, so 1 took two dozen, commenced selling in Wall Street, knowing it to be a great place of shaving, for they are very near-all Bro-kers, and I know that Brokers like to shave with ease! Who 'says' have not done right? Every body was saying that times were doll, so I thought I must look out. I'm worth a few thousands now; I won't say how many -- I'm able to do something for the unfortunate, but its all through tem-perance that I amount I am." S. C. Temperance Advocate.

Chapean of Gen. Taylor.

A hatter at Washington having comple ted a splendid chapeau for the National Fair, thought the best disposition he could make of it aftarwards would be to despatch t to the hero of Palo Alto. It was ac' traordinary facility with which he could cordingly sent; but so long a time elapsed without acknowledger ent, that it was fear. ed some untoward accident had prevented its reaching, its place of destination. But lately came a letter from the General, with as many minutes. A wager was instantly due thanks for the gift, and an apology for laid, and Foote produced the following: the tardiness of the acknowledgement: "So the went into the garden to cut a the tardiness of the acknowledgement: "So she went into the garden to cut a while from another source Mr. Todd had rabbage to make an apple pie; and at the the gratification of hearing that the tri-umph of his capital art had the hanor of appearing in its appropriate position both ho-soapl. So he died, and she very imappearing in its appropriate position both at Monterey and, Boena Vista. The fortunate artist is now in high request among were present the Pickiminnies, and the officers who need new "thatching." The Libillies, and the Gayrulies, and the grand richly ornamented chapeau of a general Parjandron hidiscif, with the little button officer is quite a different affait from that at the top: and they all fell, to playing the very day truncated storepipe looking thing which a late writer in the Quarterly says: "It is a machine which an importial stranger might impute a variety of culturary purposes to, but would never dream of putting on his head."

A gentleman sat down to write a deed, and began with-"Know one woman I Marriage either gets rid of your devils these presents." by the presence of an angel-or else it "You are wrong," said a bystander, "it supplies their place with one whose name ought to be, know all men."

"Very well," answered the other, "if Beware of the man who is constantly one woman knows it, all men will of grinning. He is a hypocrite, if nothing else. | course."

wounding three others, one of whom it is feared may not recover. The names of he children killed were Oliver McAnich, John Casidy, Morgan Richards, John Da-wis and Charles Doron. They varied in age from six to ten. Wounded-John Craig, S. Johnson, and Robert McKurkie. A Trial of Memory - A person was boasting in Foote's presence of the excommit anything to memory, when the modern Aristophanes said he would write down a dozen lines in prose which the other would not repeat, from memory, in productly married the harber; and there Libillies, and the Gay rulies, and the grand game of eatch as eatch can, till the gunpowder ran out of the heels of their boots. Such a mass of unconnected nonsense defied memory, and the wit won his wager.

if these should prove insufficient. One foot from Missouri, and one regiment of fust from Illinois, have been ordered to House in New York, Ltook the place, and the province of Naw Mexico; a part of which, too, may, it is supposed, be em-Strops; he told me that I might get a first ployed by Gen. Arbuckle for chasting the hostile Indians, without interfering but lit-tle, if any, with their much to Santa Fe. Fatal Accident .- Five Children Killed. -A large limestone rolled from the top a a hill in the vicinity of Puttsburg, Pa., or Monday afternoon, week. In its descent it rostied against a frame school house, and instantly killed five children, besides