

ODDS AND ENDS.

France produced, in the year ending September last, the enormous amount of over 800,000,000 pounds of beet root sugar.

President Lincoln once listened patiently while a friend read a long manuscript to him, and who then asked: "What do you think of it? How will it take?" The President reflected a little while, and then answered: "Well, for people who like that kind of thing, I think that it is just about the kind of thing they'd like."

The presence of the great Duke of Argyll in New York, en route to visit his son in Canada, recalls to the New York reporter who sees him ashore, and marvels that he is much as God makes other men, save that his hair is a trifle redder, the suppositions conversation in which two Caledonians indulged when the Duke's son married Louise. "Have you heard the news, Sandy?" "The news? No. What?" "Why," said Bobby, "McCallum Moore's son has married the Queen's daughter." "Ah, Bobby," said Sandy, "but the Queen ought to be a proud woman!"

The late Professor Agassiz had a wondrous power over animals. He would go up to the most obstinate of pigs, and after a few soft words and a movement of his stick in the right direction the pig would lift its head erect, its small eyes would glisten with a vague intelligence, it would remain almost motionless in a kind of pleased surprise, and emit a grunt of comfort. Whenever he entered a menagerie he was eagerly welcomed by lions, tigers, wolves, hyenas and other beasts of prey. There is said to be not a single instance of his having been injured by any serpent or beast.

A NEW ANECDOTE OF GENERAL LEE.—(Related by himself)—
"To-day an incident occurred which had happened for the first time in the late region, where not even a cabin could be seen, I was surprised to find, on a sudden turn in the road, two little girls playing on a large rock. They were very poorly clad, and after looking a moment at me began to run away. 'Children,' said I, 'don't run away! if you could know who I am, you would know that I am the last man in the world for anybody to run from now.' 'But we do know you,' they replied. 'You never saw me before, for I never passed along here.' 'But we do know you and we've got your picture up yonder in the house, and you are Gen. Lee, and we ain't dressed clean enough to see you.' With this they scampered off to a poor hut on the mountain side."

THEY ALL WANT IT.
Because it is a family newspaper of pure, sound reading for old and young, and it contains a reliable and comprehensive summary of all the important news.

THE NEW YORK OBSERVER.

the best family newspaper, publishes both the religious and secular news, that is desired in any household, with telegrams and all the latest news, and four to scular.

The New York Observer was first published in 1823, and it is believed to be the only instance of a Religious Newspaper continuing its even course for fifty-six years, without a change of name, doctrine, intent, purpose, or pledge from the date of its birth.

THE 57TH VOLUME

will contain all the important news that can interest or instruct; so that any one who reads it will be thoroughly posted.
We do not run a benevolent institution, and we do not ask for the support of charity. We propose to make the Best Newspaper that is published, and we propose to sell it as cheaply as it can be afforded. Let those who want pure, sound, sensible, truthful reading, subscribe for it, and let them induce others to do the same.

We are now publishing in the Observer the story of JOAN THE MAID,
by Mrs. Charles, author of "Chronicles of the Schomburg-Cotta Family." We send no premiums. We will send you the

NEW YORK OBSERVER

one year, post-paid, for $3.15. Any one sending with his own subscription the names of new subscribers, shall have commission allowed in proportion to the number sent. For particulars see terms in the Observer.
