THE SEWING MACHINE,

AT REDUCED PRICES. WHEELER & WILSON'S improved patent has taken preminms over all others, as the best sewing machine yet patented. During the past autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been fairly into competition. In every cases the Wheeler & Wilson Machine has won the highest premium. We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin and California, and the Fairs of the Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis Institutes, already held. At the Fair of the St. Louis Mechanical Association the committee consisted of twenty-five ladies of the highest social standing, who without a dissenting voice awarded, for the Wheeler & Wilson Machine the highest and only premium, a silver pitcher valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.

From our own experience, and the testimonials received from those to whom we have sold these Machines, we confidently recommend them to the EDGERTON, RICHARDS & CO., 32 and S4 Broad-st., Charleston, S. C.

THE CHARLESTON MERCURY. A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY

NEWSPAPER.

HE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. 'Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by l'elegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Corresnondent in London (a gentleman Sonnected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive. Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interests, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a Strict Construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the Agent of the States; Free Trade, and an Economical Administration of the General Government. Its policy is the union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

PROSPECTUS "THE COURANT,"

A Southern Literary Journal THE UNDERSIGNED PROPOSE TO COMmence, in the course of next month, the publication of a SOUTHERN LITERARY JOURNAL at Columbia, S. C. The necessity for such an organ of Southern mind will at once be comprehended by all who have reflected upon the present insufficient arrangements for the expression of the thoughts and feel-ings of our section. We have in the South two excellent periodicals: the "SOUTHERN LITERARY MESSENGER," at Richmond, Va., and "RUSSELL" MAGAZINE," in Charleston. Although they are ably conducted, and in all respects worthy the confidence and patronage of our citizens, still, as monthly issues, their ability to publish such an amount of contributions as should be looked for from so large a community, is necessarily limited. At the North, the number of literary and semiliterary periodicals is, proportionately, much larger, and as greater facilities for publication are offered, far more is written amongst their people; although it is not true that there is a greater degree of intelligence in the Northern States. Again, t is absurd to suppose that the intellectual, moral, esthetic, or political features of Southern societ can be reflected by a literature which springs from a social organization of entirely different and even hostile principles. We are, moreover, entirely convinced that society in the South is moulded by institutions and customs the best adapted to the production of a perfect Literature. In view of the fact that our laws, gustoms, and modes of thought differ essentially from those of the Northern States, it becomes our policy to have our own organs, devoted to our peculiar institutions, and upholding those views which may preserve our people in unity of thought and action, and maintain that wise conservatism of taste, morals and politics upon which the welfare of the South depends. We hope to make our journal auxiliary to the two Southern Magazines, in the production, in print, of the intellectual efforts of our own citizens; in stimulating a love for reading, in elevating
