PPOSPECTUS OF "THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS." SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY: RALEIGH, N. C.

R. H. WHITAKER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

WITH a hope of indreasing our usefulness to the Democratic Party, as well as to thereading public, generally, we desire to enlist the aid and good will of the young men, and old men, of the States in behalf of our enterprise-and we care to do it in no other way than by publishing a SOUND DEMOCRATIC PAPER, and a good and reliable Family Journal. Our opinions are too well known to the public to require an announcement of our sentiments upon the various political topics which now agitate the public mind, and it need only be said, that, as: heretofore, we shall be guided by the examples of such true lights of Democrocy as the venerable sage and just patriot, James Bucharan, Mr. Bragg, Mr. Reid, Mr. Branch, Mr. Edwards, and others, whose political histories are untarnished, and whose records, as Democrats, are fair.

The approaching year will bring with it duties of sufficient importance to engage the time, the tal- 3 ents and the zeal of even more Democratic Papers 2 than now exist in North Carolina, and it is important, in order that their labors may be beneficial to the party, that they be extensively patronized; that they circulate in every neighborhood, and visit

For our self, we are determined "to be instant in season and out of season," and spare neither time nor labor in defending the principles of Democracy, and laboring to maintain for it that proud position, which it now holds before the country.
