erate that portion of the Continent which covers Che Daily Bulletin the passage across the Isthmus. 5. Resolved, That the Democratic party will expect of the next Administration that every proper effort will be made to issue our ascendancy in the Gulf of Mexico, and to maintain a permanent protection to the great outlets through which are emptied into its waters the products raised out of the soil, and the commodities created by the industry of the people of our Western valleys, and of the Union at large.

Platform of the National and Constitu#### tional Democracy.

"Resolved, That the platform adopted by the Democratic party at Cincinnati be affirmed with the following explanatory resolutions :

1st. Resolved, That the government of a Territory, organized by an act of Congress, is provisional and temporary, and during its existence all cit-izens of the United States have an equal right to settle with their property in & Territory, without their rights, either of persons or property, being destroyed or impaired by congressional or territorial legislation.

2nd. Resolved, That it is the duty of the Federal Government in all its departments to protect, when necessary, the rights of persons and property in the Territories, and wherever else its constitutional authority extends.

3d. Resolved, That when settlers in a Territory having an adequate population from a State constitution, the rights of sovereignty commence, and being corsumated by an admission into the Union, they stand on an equal footing with the people of other States ; and that a State thus organized ought to be admitted into the Federal Union, whether its constitution prohibits or recognises the institution of slavery.

4th. Resolved, That the Democratic party are. in favor of the acquisition of the island of Cuba on such terms as shall be honorable to ourselves and just to Spain, at the earliest practicable moment.

5th. Resolved, That the enactments of State legislatures to defeat the faithful execution of the fugitive slave law are hostile in character to and subversive of the Constitution, and revolutionary in their effect.

6th. Resolved, That the Democracy of the United States recognizes it as an imperative duty | brother merchants. of this Government to protect naturalized citizens in all their rights, whether at home or in foreign lands, to the same extent as its native-born citizens.

And whereas, one of the greatest necessities of the age, in a political, commercial, postal and military point of view, is a speedy communication between the Pacific and Atlantic coasts; Thereore, be it.

5th. Resolved, That the National Democratic party do hereby pledge themselves to use every means in their power to secure the passage of some bill to the extent of the Constitutional authority of Congress for the construction of a Pacific railroad from the Mississippi river to the Pacific ocean at the earliest practicable moment."

That the foregoing propositions covers and was intended to embrace the whole subject of slavers agitation in Congress; and therefore, the licitatic party of the Union, standing on this Den national platform, will abide by and adhere to a the same subject matters. faith ulexecution of the acts known as the Comprovise measures, settled by the Congress of 1850; "the act reclaiming fugitives from service or labor" indi fiel; which act being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to a stroy or impair its efficiency.

That the Democratic party will resist all atis at renewing, in Congress or out of it, the agit tion of the slavery question under whatever share or color the attempt may be made. 4. That the Democratic party will faithfully the and private the principles laid down in tentacky and Virginia resolutions of 1798, in the report of Mr. Madison to the Virginia islature in 1799, that it adopts those principles opstituting one of the main foundations of its ticll creed and is resolved to carry them out in r obvious meaning and import. indthat we may more distinctly meet the issue which a sectional party, subsisting exclusively in slavery agitation, now, relies to rest the fitution and the Union.

Resolved, The claiming fencies with, and iring the co-operation of, all who regard the eservation of the Union under the Constitution the permanent issue; and repuditting all sec-"Inal parties and platforms concerning domestic vavery which seeks to embroil the States and inme to treason and armed resistance to law in the Territories, and whose avowed purposes, if conammated, must end in civil war, and disunion .--the American Democracy recognize and adopt the wincipies contained in the organic laws, establishing the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska as imbedying the only sound and safe solution to the slavery question" upon which the great National tes of the people of this country can repose in its Istermined conservatism of the Union-non-intererence by Congress with slavery in State and Terstory, or in the District of Columbia.

2. That this was the basis of the Compromise of $50-confirmed by both the Democratic and Whig marties in National Convention-ratified by the people in 1852-and rightly applied to the organi-ention of Territories in 1854.

8. That by the uniform application of this Dematic principle to the organization of Territories, nd to the admission of new States with or without jestic slavery, as they may elect-the equal rights of all the States will be preserved intactthe original compacts of the Constitution maintained inviolate-and the perpetuity and expantion of the Union insured to the utmost capacity of embracing, in peace and harmony, every future State that may be constituted or annexed, with a Republican form of Government.

Resolved, That we recognize the right of the scople of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the legally and fairly expressed will of a majority of actual residents, and thenever the number of their inhabitants justifies in to form a Constitution with or without domestic layery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States. Resolved, finally, That in view of the condition of popular institutions in the Qid World, and the ngerous tendencies of sectional agitation, comuned with the attempt to enforce civil and refithus disabilities against the right of acquiring and enjoving citizenship in our own land-a high and sacred duty is devolved with increased responsibility upon the Democratic party of the Union to uphold and maintain the rights of every State in the Union of the States ; and so sustain and advance among us Constitutional liberty, by continning to resist all monopolis and exclusive legislation for the benefit of the few, at the expense of the many, and by a vigilant and constant adherence to those principles and compromises of the Constitution, which are broad enough, and strong enough, to embrace and uphold the Union as it was the Union as it shall be, in the full expansions ty is stave is distinctly of the energies and capacity of the great and pro-

OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY

NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices' Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by, Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished . Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected, with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New-York, Washington; Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be exclusied from the family circle. The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.
