346 and 338 Broadway, New York, published by subscription only, the New American Cyclo-pædia; a Popular Dictionary of General Knowledge, edited by George Ripley and Charles A. Dana, assisted by a numerous but select corpse of writers.

THE object of the NEW AMERICAN CYCLO-PÆDIA is to exhibit in a new condensed form, the present state of human knowledge on every object of rational inquiry in SCIENCE. LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, COMMERCE. MANUFACTURES, LAW, MEDICINE, ART, MATHEMATICS, ASTRONOMY, PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION, POLITICS, HISTORY, BIOGRA-PHY, GEOGRAPHY, TRAVELS, CHEMISTRY, MECHANICS, TRADES. With this design, the numerous Encyclopædias, Dictionaries of special branches of study, and popular Conversations, Lexicons, in the English, French and German languages, have, of confer been diligently consulted and compared. But the New American Cyclopædia is not founded on any European model; in its plan and elaboration it is strictly original. Many of the writers employed on this work have enriched it with their personal researches, observations and discoveries. As far as is consistent with the thoroughness of research and exactness of statement, the popular method has been pursued. By condensation and brevity, the editors have been enabled to introduce a much greater variety of subjects than is usually found in similar works, and thus to enhance the value of the New American Cyclopædia as a manual of Universal Reterence. At the same time, an entertaining style has been aimed at wherever it would not interfere with more important considerations. In this fact, it is hoped, will be found a guaranty of the universality and impartiality of the New American Cyclopædia, which the publishers do not hesitate to say will be superior in extent, variety and exactness of in-formation to any similar publication in English

THE GLOBE: THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS.

[$6 PER ANNUM.

PUBLISH now my annual Prospectus of The Daily Globe, and The Congressional Globe and Appendix, to remind subscribers, and inform those who may desire to subscribe, that Congress met on the first Monday of December, 1860, when I resumed publishing the above-named papers. They have been published so long, that most public men know their character, and therefore I deem it needless to give a minute account of the kind of matters they will contain.

The Daily Globe will contain a report of the Debates in both branches of Congress as taken down by reporters, equal, at least, to any corps of short-hand writers in this, or in any other country. A majority of them will, each, he able to report, verbatim, ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words speken by fluent speakers rarely exceeds seven thousand five hundred words an hour. When the debates of a day do not make more than forty-five columns, they will appear in The Daily Globe of the next morning, which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be

THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOSS AND APPENDEX, will contain a report of all the Debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book form, royal quarto size, each number containing sixteen pages. The whole will make, it is believed, at least 2,000 pages. This is acknowledged to bethe cheapest work ever sold in any country, whether a reprint or printed from manuscript try, whether a reprint or printed from manuscrip copy, taking for data the average number words it contains. The coming session will, without doubt, be an unusually interesting one, because the debates will, in a great measure, be upon the policy of the President elect, and The Globe will be, as it has been for many years past, the only source from which full debates of Congress can be obtained. THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX PAS free through the mails of the United States, as will be seen by reading the following Joint Resolution passed by Congress the 6th of August, 1852:

A NEWSPAPER FOR THE PEOPLE. S soon as the necessary arrangements can be A made, and I hope to have them completed early in January, 1861, I will commence, in the City of Raleigh, N. C., the publication of a weekly New Paper, to be called the all values form, on good paper, and with new materials throughout.

The limits of a Prospectus will not admit of my going fully into the policy and principles which will govern my course as an Editor, and I can now only give the outlines briefly. First.-The BANNER will be, in many respects, different from any other paper published in the State, or the South. About half of it will be devoted to Literature of a high order, such as Poetry, Tales, Essays, Biographies, &c., in which department I will be aided by some of the best writers of the age. The rest of the paper will be devoted to Politics, News, general Miscellany, &c., thus combining the advantages of a good Family paper, with the political principles of truth, justice and equality. Second .- I am a Democrat-one of the Old Guard-and under present circumstances a Union man. I shall think for myself, and speak what I think, if I so choose, regardless of threats, cliques, combinations, magnates and potentates. I shall adhere to the great conservative principles of my party, and not be seduced by the "zeal without knowledge" of new converts. My advisers shall not be those with the scent of "Sam," after putrefaction took place, upon their garments; and most especially will I not be counselled by any one who was regarded as too unreliable to be admitted into

Know-Nothing lodge! Third .- I helped to fight the battle on a great popular right, (Equal Suffrage,) which gave the Democratic party power in North Carolina; and now I shall strive to maintain that power by sustaining another great popular right-Equal Taxation. We have equality at the ballot-box; let us have it at the Treasurer's Office also. Fourth .- While I shall adhere to the old landmarks of Democracy, I shall free myself from that worst of tyrannies—party tyranny; and shall ever oppose the action of caucuses and conventions when ruled by a minority, and by an irresponsible secret ballot, as is now generally the case. Fifth.-The BANNER will speak for THE PEO-PLE, and against political speculators. It will counsel union and harmony, and advocate fair deating and a fair expression of the public will. Sigth.-If Mr. Lincoln or any one else violates he Constitution, I shall advocate his removal from power and the infliction of a punishment commensurate with the crime; but I am not in favor of rashly overthrowing the fairest governmental great hope of freedom, on account of the villainy f any man or set of men. Seventh .- As occasion requires I shall use a set f editorial casters, well supplied with the vinegar of sarcasm, the mustard of irony, the pepper of ridicule, the horse-radish of invective, and other seasonings to suit times and circumstances.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER! THE TIMES;

A large Eight-Page Weckly, published in Greensboro' $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months. THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and en-rich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits. WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems. "I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."

—Rev. J. E. Edwards. "There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald "One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

PPOSPECTUS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS,"

R. H. WHITAKER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR WITH a hope of increasing our usefulness to the Democratic Party, as well as to the eading public, generally, we desire to enlist the aid and good will of the young men, and old men, of the States in behalf of our enterprise-and wg care to do it in no other way than by publishing a SOUND DEMOCRATIC PAPER, and a good and reliable Family Journal. Our opinions are too well known to the public to require an announcement of our sentiments upon the various political topics which now agitate the public mind, and it need only be said, that, as heretofore, we shall be guided by the examples of such true lights of Democrocy as the venerable.

others, whose political histories are untarnished, and whose records, as Democrats, are fair. The approaching year will bring with it duties of sufficient importance to engage the time, the tal-ents and the zeal of even more Democratic Papers than now exist in North Carolina, and it is important, in order that their labors may be beneficial to the party, that they be extensively patronized every voter. The Opposition are organizing for the Campaign of 1860, with the view, first to defeat their election of our present able Chief Magistrate, Gov. Ellis; socondly, to carry the Legislature; and thirdly, to secure the vote of the State to an Opposition sale didate for President. The accomp jects would be mortifying to the Democracy, though its effect might only be temporary, and it therefore behooves every man to do what he can to prevent the loss of an inch of ground. For our-self, we are determined "to be instant in season and out of season," and spare neither time nor in-bor in defending the principles of Democracy, and laboring to maintain for it that proud position which it now holds before the country.

We shall therefore at a very early date commence the publication of a SEMI-WEEKLY as
