subscription only, the New American Cyclopadia; a Popular Dictionary of General Knowledge, edited by George Ripley and Charles A. Dana, assisted by a numerous but select corpse of writers.

THE object of the NEW AMERICAN CYCLO-PÆDIA is to exhibit in a new condensed form, the present state of human knowledge on every object of rational inquiry in SCIENCE, LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, COMMERCE, MANUFACTURES, LAW, MEDICINE, ART, MATHEMATICS, ASTRONOMY, PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION, POLITICS, HISTORY, BIOGRA-PHY, GEOGRAPHY, TRAVELS, CHEMISTRY, MECHANICS, TRADES.

Dictionaries of special branches of study, and popular Conversations, Lexicons, in the English. French and German languages, have, of course. been diligently consulted and compared. But the New American Cyclopædia is not founded on any European model; in its plan and elaboration it is strictly original. Many of the writers employed on this work have enriched it with their personal researches, observations and discoveries. As far as is consistent with the thoroughness of research and exactness of statement, the popular method has been pursued. By condensation and brevity, the editors have been enabled to introduce a much greater variety of subjects than is usually found in similar works, and thus to enhance the value of the New American Cyclopædia as a manual of Universal Reterence. At the same time, an entertaining style has been aimed at wherever it would not interfere with more important considerations. Special care has been bestewed on the department of Living Biogra-In the preparations of the present volume.

NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY. HE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current. is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.— Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle. The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights. Terms-Payable in Advance, DAILY, per annum......$10.00 TRI-WEEKLY......5.00

The January number is a fine specimen of what this valuable publication will be for the future .-The course Putnam is pursuing will stamp it with permanency, and the reason for this permanency will be the substantial literature which its pages offer to the public. Putnam is the pioneer, in our opinion, of a new era in literature, and which must, at some future day, take posssssion of the people. The present is the age of romance, and light literature has its millions of votaries, but the coming age will be the age of substantialities, and then Putnam will lead the van and establish a fame which other cotemporary Magazines can never pretend to aspire to. - Brooklyn, L. I., Morning Journal.

high as ever. - Boston, (Mass.) Post.

It furnishes a great variety of popular literary entertainment; is bold, spirited and judicious, and furnishes better reading for the public than any magazine in the country .- Ogdensburg (N. Y.) Sentinel. Other magazines have their appropriate place, and are worthy of commendation, but Pntnam, inasmuch as it is a repository of the best current American Literature, must be placed at the head. It affords a variety of reading matter of a highorder, and has an elevating tendency upon the tastes of its readers. Besides, it stimulates and encourages meritorious authors. There has been no falling off in its character since it passed into the hands of Messrs. Dix & Edwards, and during the three years of its publication, it has verified the language of the publishers concerning it.— Bangor (Me.) Daily Journal.

Occupying a position between the stately Quar-terlies and the lighter Monthlies, it is a Magazine which is well calculated to elevate the public taste. and deserve from its intrinsic excellence a large circulation.—Boston (Mass.) Journal.

We feel ourselves called upon, however, just now to repeat, that from intimate and continued examination of all the publications of this class, we are convinced not only of its unrivalled superiority as a household and literary periodical, but as identified with the best interests of the cause of letters in this country; we would testify to its great utility and value. Subscribers to Periodical lit. rature for the ensuing year should consider the fact in connection with this periodical, that they will equally benefit the cause of American literature and their own welfare, by a support of Putnam.—N. AD VALOREM BANNER A NEWSPAPER FOR THE PEOPLE. S soon as the necessary arrangements can A made, and I hope to have them completed early in January, 1867, I will commence, in the City of Raleigh, N. C., the publication of a weekly Newspaper, to be called the "AD VALOREM BAN-NER." It will be published in quarto form, on good paper, and with new materials throughout. The limits of a Prospectus will not admit of my going fully into the policy and principles which will govern my course as an Editor, and I can now only give the outlines briefly. First. - The BANNER will be, in many respects different from any other paper published in the State, or the South. About half of it will be de-voted to Literature of a high order, such as Poetry, Tales, Essays, Biographies, &c., in which department I will be aided by some of the best writers of the age. The rest of the paper will be devoted to Politics, News, general Miscellany, &c., thus combining the advantages of a good Family paper, with the political principles of truth, justice and equality.

Second.—I am a Democrat—one of the Old Guard-and under present circumstances a Union man. I shall think for myself, and speak what I think, if I so choose, regardless of threats, cliques, combinations, magnates and potentates. I shall adhere to the great conservative principles of my party, and not be seduced by the "zeal without knowledge" of new converts. My advisers shall not be those with the scent of "Sam," after putrefaction took place, upon their garments; and most especially will I not be counselled by any one who

was regarded as too unreliable to be admitted into

Third.—I helped to fight the battle on a great popular right, (Equal Suffrage,) which gave the Democratic party power in North Carolina; and now I shall strive to maintain that power by sustaining another great popular right-Equal Taxa-We have equality at the ballot-box; let us have it at the Treasurer's Office also. Fourth .- While I shall adhere to the old landmarks of Democracy, I shall free myself from that worst of tyrannies—party tyranny; and shall ever oppose the action of caucuses and conventions when ruled by a minority, and by an irresponsible secret ballot, as is now generally the case.

Fifth.—The BANNER will speak for THE PEO-PLE, and against political speculators. It will counsel union and harmony, and advocate fair dealing and a fair expression of the public will. Sixth.—If Mr. Lincoln or any one else violates the Constitution, I shall advocate his removal from power and the infliction of a punishment commensurate with the crime; but I am not in favor of rashly overthrowing the fairest governmental fabric in the world, and of blotting out the last great hope of freedom, on account of the villainy of any man or set of men. Seventh .- As occasion requires I shall use a set of elitorial casters, well supplied with the vinegar of saroasm, the mustard of irony, the pepper of ridicule, the horse-radish of invective, and other seasonings to suit times and circumstances. TERMS OF THE BANNER: $2 a year, payable on receipt of the first number. Any person remitting $10, with the names of five subscribers, will be entitled to an extra copy Please obtain what names you can, and send them to me by the 1st of January next. FRANK I. WILSON. dec 11, 1860

THE PAPER FOR YOUR FAMILY! A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER! THE TIMES; . large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months. THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant sim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES & trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES. "The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."-Rev. C. F. Deems. "I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that s so deserving of public patronage as the Times." Rev. J. E. Edwards. "There is no pandering to a vitiated taste-every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published n the Union."-Spirit of the Age. "Let the people of North Caarolina encourage their own newspapers.—Raleigh Standard.

PPOSPECTUS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS." SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY.

RALMIGH, N. C.

R. H. WHITAKER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. Wiff a hope of increasing our usefulness to the Democratic Party, as well as to the eading public, generally, we desire to culist the aid and good will of the young men, and old men, of the States in behalf of our enterprise—and we care to do it in no other way than by publishing a SOUND DEMOCRATIC PAPER, and a good and reliable Family Journal.
Our opinions are too well known to the public to require an announcement of our sentiments upon the various political topics which now agitate the public mind, and it need only be said, that, as heretofore, we shall be guided by the examples of such true lights of Democrocy as the venerable sage and just patriot, James Buchanan, Mr. Bragg, Mr. Reid, Mr. Branch, Mr. Edwards, and others, whose political histories are untarnished. and whose records, as Democrats, are fair. The approaching year will bring with it duties of sufficient importance to engage the time, the talents and the zeal of even more Democratic Papers than now exist in North Carolina, and it is impor-tant, in order that their labors may be beneficial that they circulate in every neighborhood, and visit every voter.

The Opposition are organizing for the Campaign of 1860, with the view, first to defeat their election of our present able Chief Magistrate, Gov. Ellis. secondly, to carry the Legislature; and thirdly, to secure the vote of the State to an Oppositio anndidate for President.

to the party, that they be extensively patronized

The accomplishment of either one of those objects would be mortifying to the Democracy, though its effect might only be temporary, and it therefore behooves every man to do what he can to prevent the loss of an inch of ground. For ourself, we are determined "to be instant in season and out of season," and spare neither time nor la-bor in defending the principles of Democracy, and laboring to maintain for it that proud position which it now holds before the country.

We shall therefore at a very early date commence the publication of a SEMI-WEEKLY as well as a WEEKLY PRESS, and we carnestly so-

ocrats from all sections of the country. nov 4-tf
