45 and 338 Broadway, New York, published by subscription only, the New American Cyclopadia; a Popular Dictionary of General Knowledge, edited by George Ripley and Charles A. Dana, assisted by a numerous but select corpse of writers. THE object of the NEW AMERICAN CYCLO-PÆDIA is to exhibit in a new condensed form, the present state of human knowledge on every object of rational inquiry in SCIENCE, LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, COMMERCE, MANUFACTURES, LAW, MEDICINE, ART, MATHEMATICS, ASTRONOMY, PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION, POLITICS, HISTORY, BIOGRA-PHY, GEOGRAPHY, TRAVELS, CHEMISTRY,

MECHANICS, TRADES. With this design, the numerous Encyclopædias, Dictionaries of special branches of study, and popular Conversations, Lexicons, in the English. french and German languages, have, of course, been diligently consulted and compared. But the New American Cyclopædia is not founded on any European model; in its plan and elaboration it is strictly original. Many of the writers employed on this work have enriched it with their personal researches, observations and discoveries. As far as is consistent with the thoroughness research and exactness of statement, the popular method has been pursued. By condensation and brevity, the editors have been enabled to introduce a much greater variety of subjects than is usually found in similar works, and thus to enhance the value of the New American Cyclopædia as a manual of Universal Reterence. At the same time, an entertaining style has been aimed at wherever it would not interfere with more important considerations. Special care has been besubscription is only $1.40. The January number is a fine specimen of what this valuable publication will be for the future .-The course Putnam is pursning will stamp it with permanency, and the reason for this permanency will be the substantial literature which its pages offer to the public. Putnam is the pioneer, in our opinion, of a new era in literature, and which must, at some future day, take posssssion of the people. The present is the age of romance, and light literature has its millions of votaries, but the coming age will be the age of substantialities, and then Putnam will lead the van and establish a fame which other cotemporary Magazines can never pretend to aspire to .- Brooklyn, L. I., Morning Journal.

It is the best for those who wish to read and preserve the best purely literary serial in the country, to begin to take this magazine—which we do safely and heartily .- N. Y. Courie and En-

We would remark of Putnam's Monthly that it has been thus far, the American magazine of the day. Its articles have been, generally speaking, of a high order, and they will favorably compare with the contents of any periodical in existence .-Under its present editor it stands as well and as high as ever .- Boston, (Mass.) Post. Putnam, of January, is the best number of any magazine ever published in this country. No one can keep up with the progress of American mind and American scholarship without Putnam's .- Lawrence Sentinel. It furnishes a great variety of popular literary entertainment; is bold, spirited and judicious, and furnishes better reading for the public than any magazine in the country. - Ogdensburg (N. Y.)

Other magazines have their appropriate place, and are worthy of commendation, but Pntnam, inasmuch as it is a repository of the best current American Literature, must be placed at the head. It affords a variety of reading matter of a high order, and has an elevating tendency upon the tastes of its readers. Besides, it stimulates and encourages meritorious authors. There has been no falling off in its character since it passed into the hands of Messrs. Dix & Edwards, and during the three years of its publication, it has verified the language of the publishers concerning it.—

We feel ourselves called upon, however, just now to repeat, that from intimate and continued examination of all the publications of this class, we are convinced not only of its unrivalled superior-ity as a household and literary periodical, but as

Subscribers to Periodical lit rature for the ensuing year should consider the fact in connection with this periodical, that they will equally benefit the cause of American literature and their own welfare, by a support of Putnam, -N. THE GLOBE:

PUBLISH now my annual Prospectus of THE DAILY GLOBE, and THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE DAILY GLOBE, and THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX, to remind subscribers, and inform those who may desire to subscribe, that Congress met on the first Monday of December, 1860, when I resumed publishing the above-named papers. They have been published so long, that most public men know their character, and therefore I deem it needless to give a minute account of the blad of matters they will contain the kind of matters they will contain.

The Daily Globs will contain a report of the Debates in both branches of Congress as taken down by reporters, equal, at least, to any corps of short-hand writers in this, or in any other country. A majority of them will, each, be able to report, verbatim, ten thousand words an hour, while port, verbatim, ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words speken by fluent speakers rarely exceeds seven thousand five hundred words an hour. When the debates of a day do not make more than forty-five columns, they will appear in The Daily Globe of the next morning, which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with such coltoital articles as may be

THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBS AND APPENDIX, will contain a report of all the Debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws

the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, n book form, royal quarto size, each number containing sixteen pages. The whole will make, it is believed, at least 2,000 pages. This is acknowledged to betthe cheapest work ever sold in any country, whether a reprint or printed from manuscript copy, taking for data the average number of words it contains.

The coming session will, without doubt, be an unusually interesting one, because the debates will, in a great measure, be upon the policy of the President elect, and The Globe will be, as it has been for many years past, the only source from which full debates of Congress can be obtained. THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX DASS ree through the mails of the United States, as will be seen by reading the following Joint Resolution passed by Congress the 6th of August, 1852:

My advisers shall not be those with the scent of "Sam," after putrefaction took place, upon their garments; and most especially will I not be counselled by any one who was regarded as too unreliable to be admitted into

Know-Nothing lodge!

Third.—I helped to fight the battle on a great popular right, (Equal Suffrage,) which gave the Democratic party power in North Carolina; and now I shall strive to maintain that power by sustaining another great popular right-Equal Taxation. We have equality at the ballot-box; let us have it at the Treasurer's Office also. Fourth .- While I shall adhere to the old land- ly labor to effect union and co-operation amongst marks of Democracy, I shall free myself from that worst of tyrannies-party tyranny; and shall ever ppose the action of caucuses and conventions then ruled by a minority, and by an irresponsible secret ballot, as is now generally the case. Fifth .- The BANNER will speak for THE PEO-PLE, and against political speculators. It will counsel union and harmony, and advocate fair deating and a fair expression of the public will. Sixth .- If Mr. Lincoln or any one else violates rashly overthrowing the fairest governmental fabric in the world, and of blotting out the last great hope of freedom, on account of the villainy of any man or set of men. Seventh.—As occasion requires I shall use a setof editorial casters, well supplied with the vinegar of sarcasm, the mustard of irony, the pepper of the Constitution, I shall advocate his removal from power and the infliction of a punishment commen-surate with the crime; but I am not in favor of ridicule, the horse-radish of invective, and other asonings to suit times and circumstances TERMS OF THE BANNER: $2 a year, payable on receipt of the first number. Any person remitting $10, with the names of five subscribers, will be entitled to an extra copy lurge Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensbor $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months. THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is nelther sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits. WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."-Rev. C. F. Deems. "I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."

RALEIGH, N. C. R. H. WHITAKER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. ITH a hope of increasing our usefulness to the Democratic Party, as well as to the eading public, generally, we desire to solist the aid and good will of the young men, and old men, of the States in behalf of our enterprise—and we care to do it in no other way than by publishing a SOUND DEMOCRATIC PAPER, and a good and reliable Family Journal. Our opinions are too well known to the public to require an announcement of our sentiments upon the various political topics which now agitate the public mind, and it need only be said, that, as heretofore, we shall be guided by the examples of such true lights of Democrocy as the venerable sage and just patriot, James Buchanan, Mr. Bragg, Mr. Reid, Mr. Branch, Mr. Edwards, and others, whose political histories are untarnished, and whose records, as Democrats, are fair. The approaching year will bring with it duties of sufficient importance to engage the time, the talents and the zeal of even more Democratic Papers than now exist in North Carolina, and it is important, in order that their labors may be beneficial to the party, that they be extensively patronized; that they circulate in every neighborhood, and visit

The Opposition are organizing for the Campaign of 1860, with the view, first to defeat their election of our present able Chief Magistrate, Gov. Ellis, secondly, to carry the Legislature; and thirdly, to secure the vote of the State to an Oppositio sandilate for Provident.

didate for President.

The accomplishment of either one of those objects would be mortifying to the Democracy, though its effect might only be temporary, and it therefore behooves every man to do what he cap to prevent the loss of an inch of ground. For ourself, we are determined "to be instant in season and out of season," and spare neither time nor isbor in defending the principles of Democracy, and laboring to maintain for it that proud position which it now holds before the country. We small therefore at a very early date com-mence the publication of a SEMI-WEERLY as well as a WEEKLY PRESS, and we sarnestly so
