PÆDIA is to exhibit in a new condensed form, the present state of human knowledge on uable and instructive not only in the Workshop and Manufactory, but also in the Household, the Library and the Reading Room, as all articles, every object of rational inquiry in SCIENCE, LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, COMMERCE, MANUFACTURES, LAW, MEDICINE, ART, Manufactures, Law, MEDICINE, ART, South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—

With this design, the numerous Encyclopædias, Dictionaries of special branches of study, and popular Conversations, Lexicons, in the English, French and German languages, have, of course, been diligently consulted and compared. But the New American Cyclopædia is not founded on any European model; in its plan and elaboration it is strictly original. Many of the writers employed on this work have enriched it with their personal researches, observations and discoveries. As far as is consistent with the thoroughness of research and exactness of statement, the popular method has been pursued. By condensation and brevity, the editors have been enabled to introduce a much greater variety of subjects than is usually found in similar works, and thus to enhance the value of the New American Cyclopædia as a manual of Universal Reterence. At the same time, an entertaining style has been aimed at wherever it would not interfere with more important considerations. THE coming year inaugurates the hird volume of this favorite exponent of Southern Literature. It is source of so little patification to us that in aunouncing the THISE tolume of the possible reproof to the description of Northern Publishers, as the to the sloomy fore-bodings of hearty well-states in our own section of the country. Yes, we are prond to say that the brilliant success of the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL has proved the existence of Literary talent and enterprise in the South which fears no rivals.

The friends of Southern Literature have often declared that, could they get a Southern Paper, which, in point of intrinsic merit and in price, could compete with Northern Weeklies, they would cheerfully support it. We offer this desideratum; we ask these promises to be redeemed. We ask a comparison with other papers of its class, and are satisfied that the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL will be found equal to the best. Arrangements have been made with the BEST WRITERS OF THE SOUTH and the Publishers have no hesitation in saying that the JNURNAL must become a welcome quest in every Southern home. For the ensuing year we are enabled to report a host of new and interesting features, comprising,

The January number is a fine specimen of what this valuable publication will be for the future .-The course Putnam is pursuing will stamp it with permanency, and the reason for this permanency will be the substantial literature which its pages offer to the public. Putnam is the pioneer, in our opinion, of a new era in literature, and which must, at some future day, take possession of the people. The present is the age of romance, and light literature has its millions of votaries, but the coming age will be the age of substantialities, and then Putnam will lead the van and establish a fame which other cotemporary Magazines can never pretend to aspire to .- Brooklyn, L. It is the best for those who wish to read and preserve the best purely literary serial in the country, to begin to take this magazine—which we of editorial casters, well supplied with the vinegar quirer. We would remark of Putnam's Monthly that it

Its articles have been, generally speaking, of a high order, and they will favorably compare with the contents of any periodical in existence .-Under its present editor it stands as well and as high as ever. - Boston, (Mass.) Post. Putnam, of January, is the best number of any magazine ever published in this country. No one can keep up with the progress of American mind and American scholarship without Putnam's .- Lawrence Sentinel. It furnishes a great variety of popular literary entertainment; is bold, spirited and judicious, and furnishes better reading for the public than any magazine in the country .- Ogdensburg (N. Y. Other magazines have their appropriate place, Occupying a position between the stately Quarterlies and the lighter Monthlies, it is a Magazine which is well calculated to elevate the public taste, and deserve from its intrinsic excellence a large circulation .- Boston (Mass.) Journal.

PUBLISH now my annual Prospectus of The DARLY GLOBE, and THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPENDIX, to remind subscribes, and inform those who may desire to subscribe, that Georgess met on the first Monday of December 1860, when I resumed publishing the above-ramed papers. They have been published so loog, that most public men know their character, and therefore I deem it needless to give a minute account of the kind of matters they will contain.

THE DAILY GLORE will contain a report of the Debates in both branches of Congress in taken to down by reporters, equal, at least, to any orphof short-hand writers in this, or in any other country. A majority of them will, each, be able to report, verbalim, ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words spoken by fluent speakers rarely exceeds seven thousand five hundred words an hour. When the debates of a day do not make more than forty-five columns, they will appear in The Daily Globe of the next morning, which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

PROSPECTUS

AD VALOREM BANNER A NEWSPAPER FOR THE PEOPLE. S soon as the necessary arrangements can be

A S soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, and I hope to have them completed early in January, 1861, I will commence, in the City of Raleigh, N. C., the publication of a weekly Newspaper, to be called the AD VALOREM BANNER." It will be published in quarto form, on good paper, and with new materials throughout.

The limits of a Prospectus will not admit of my The limits of a Prospectus will not admit of my going fully into the policy and principles which will govern my course as an Editor, and I can now only give the outlines briefly. First .- The BANNER will be, in many respects, different from any other paper published in the State, or the South. About half of it will be devoted to Literature of a high order, such as Poetry, Tales, Essays, Biographies, &c., in which department I will be arded by some of the best writers of the age. The rest of the paper will be devoted to Politics, News, general Miscellany, &c., thus combining the advantages of a good Family paper, with the political principles of truth, justice and equality. Second,-I am a Democrat-one of the Old Guard-and under present circumstances a Union man. I shall think for myself, and speak what I think, if I so choose, regardless of threats, cliques, combinations, magnates and potentates. I shall adhere to the great conservative principles of my party, and not be seduced by the "zeal without knowledge" of new converts. My advisers shall not be those with the scent of "Sam," after putrefaction took place, upon their garments; and most especially will I not be counselled by any one who was regarded as too unreliable to be admitted into Know-Nothing lodge!

Third .- I helped to fight the battle on a great popular right, (Equal Suffrage,) which gave the emocratic party power in North Carolina; and now I shall strive to maintain that power by sustaining another great popular right—Equal Taxation. We have equality at the ballot-box; let us have it at the Treasurer's Office also. Fourth .- While I shall adhere to the old landmarks of Democracy, I shall free myself from that worst of tyrannies—party tyranny; and shall ever oppose the action of caucuses and conventions when ruled by a minority, and by an irresponsible secret ballot, as is now generally the case. Fifth .- The BANNER will speak for THE PEOmanufactures,-PLE, and against political speculators. It will and no effort will counsel union and harmony, and advocate fair dealing and a fair expression of the public will. Sixth .- If Mr. Lincoln or any one else violates the Constitution, I shall advocate his removal from eration of this a power and the infliction of a punishment commensurate with the crime; but I am not in favor of rashly overthrowing the fairest governmental fabric in the world, and of blotting out the last great hope of freedom, on account of the villainy of any man or set of men.

sarcasm, the mustard of irony, the pepper ridicule, the horse-radish of invective, and other seasonings to suit times and circumstances. TERMS OF THE BANNER:

$2 a year, payable on receipt of the first numper. Any person remitting $10, with the names of five subscribers, will be entitled to an extra copy Please obtain what names you can, and send them to me by the 1st of January next.

$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months. THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family ircle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by peing courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and en-rich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if of our prese it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES. "The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems. "I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."
-- Rev. J. E. Edwards. "There is no pandering to a vitlated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Heraid "One of the handsomest weekly papers published
